1894—No. 79.

MR. JUSTICE REAL.

Between Francis Kates, Plaintiff, and Walter Laycock, Defendant.

Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith.

To Walter Laycock, of Cattle Creek, near Roma, in the Colony of Queensland.

WE command you that within twelve days after the service of this Writ on you, inclusive of the day of such service, you cause an appearance to be entered for you in our Supreme Court of Queensland, in an action at the suit of Francis Kates, and take notice that in default of your so doing the Plaintiff may proceed therein, and judgment may be given in your absence.

Witness—The Honourable Sir SAMUEL WALKER GRIFFITH, Knight Commander of our Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, the Chief Justice of Queensland, the seventeenth day of February, in the fifty-seventh year of our reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

[L.S.] F. VAUGHAN,

A Commissioner for Issuing Writs of Summons.

N.B.—This Writ is to be served within twelve calendar months from the date thereof, or, if renewed, within six calendar months from the date of the last renewal, including the day of such date, and not afterwards.

The Defendant may appear hereto by entering appearance, either personally or by solicitor, at the Supreme Court Office at Brisbane.

The Plaintiff's claim is against the Defendant as maker of a promissory note.

The following are the particulars:—

Promissory note for £37 4s. 5d., dated 28th December, 1891, made by Defendant in favour of Plaintiff, payable four months after date—

Principal	£37	4	5
Interest	5	6	7

£42 11 0

And £4 14s. 6d. for costs on issuing the summons (besides mileage and special service); and if the amount claimed be paid to the Plaintiff or his solicitors within twelve days from the service hereof further proceedings will be stayed, and if such amount be not so paid a further sum of £4 14s. 6d. for costs of judgment in default of appearance, and if the amount claimed be paid to the Plaintiff or his solicitors before execution issued further proceedings will be stayed.

The Plaintiff also claims interest on £37 4s. 5d. of the above sum from the date of the Writ until judgment.

This Writ was issued by Robert Henry Dyball, of McDowall street, Roma, whose address for service is "Morris and Heiner, Chancery Chambers, George street, Brisbane," agents for Thompson and Dyball, of Roma aforesaid, solicitors for the Plaintiff, who resides at Roma.

MUNICIPALITY OF CHARLEVILLE.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At Government House, Brisbane, the twenty-first day of March, 1894.

Present :

His Excellency the Governor

The Vice-President
Mr. A. J. Thynne

The Secretary for Public Lands and Agriculture
The Secretary for Mines and Secretary for Public Works.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-second year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "The Local Government Act of 1878," it is amongst other things enacted that, subject to the provisions of the said Act, the Governor in Council may from time to time, by Order in Council, constitute a Municipality: And whereas a petition signed by upwards of fifty inhabitant householders possessing rateable property in that part of Subdivision 2 of the Division of Murweh, forming the Town of Charleville, was presented to His Excellency the Governor, praying that the said Town might be constituted a Municipality: And whereas the said petition was duly published in the manner prescribed by the said Act: And whereas no counter-petition signed by a larger number of persons qualified to sign a like petition than have signed the said petition has been presented within the period of three months from the date of the publication of the said petition: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, doth order that the said Town of Charleville shall be and the same is hereby constituted a Municipality, under the name of the "Borough of Charleville," and that the boundaries of the said Borough shall be as follows, that is to say:—

Commencing on the left bank of the Warrego River at the south-west corner of portion 7, parish of Charleville, and bounded thence on the north by portions 7 and 15 bearing east 114 chains; on the east by a line bearing south 345 chains; on the south by a line bearing west 400 chains; on the west by a line bearing north 345 chains; and again on the north by a line bearing east 286 chains to the point of commencement.

His Excellency the Governor doth further order that the Council of the said Borough of Charleville shall consist of Six Members; that the First Election of Councillors shall be held at Charleville on SATURDAY, the Twenty-first day of April proximo; and that John Vivian Williams, Police Magistrate of Charleville, shall be the Returning Officer to conduct such Election.

And the Honourable the Colonial Secretary is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

AMENDED PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, [L.S.]
H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

IN pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Co-operative Communities Land Settlement Act of 1893," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, set apart the Area hereinafter mentioned for the purposes of a Group, subject to the particulars and conditions hereinafter contained, that is to say:—

E.M.—14-3-94.

SCHEDULE.

1. The name of the Group shall be "The Industrial Group."

2. The names of the persons included in the said Group are as follow:—

(b.) Each member will be permitted to acquire the freehold of any area, not exceeding 160 acres, at the expiration of the period hereinafter mentioned.

4. The sum of ten shillings per acre shall be expended by the said Group in making improvements on the said area, and such improvements shall be of a substantial and permanent nature to the satisfaction of the Minister.

5. (a.) The said area shall be set apart for a period of twelve years from the First day of January, 1894.

(b.) Rent shall be paid by the said Group on 6,080 acres at the rate of tenpence per acre per annum for the whole of the said period, payable in equal instalments at the end of each of the ten latter years of the said period, and shall be accounted as the purchasing price for the acquisition of the freehold of the said area or any part thereof at the end of the said period.

6. The said period shall be divided into four equal portions of three years, and within three months before the expiration of every such portion during the said period an inspection of the improvements on the said area will be made by the Commissioner.

7. (a.) Timber may be cut by any member of the said Group on the subdivision of the said area occupied by him for the purpose of making improvements thereon, but not for sale.

(b.) Timber can only be cut on the unoccupied portion of the said area by permission of the Commissioner, but no timber shall in any case be cut for sale by the members of the said Group.

(c.) The total money aid under section 33 shall be £456, repayable, on demand, within the first three years of the said period, with 5 per centum per annum interest added.

(d.) No allowances will be made to individual members of the said Group under section 34.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

No. 66.

Treasury, Hobart, 5th March, 1894.

THE Governor directs the publication of the following Notice to Mariners, for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
JOHN HENRY, Treasurer.

REEF OF ROCKS OFF SNAKE ISLAND, D'ENTRECASTEAUX CHANNEL.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Red and White Vertical striped Nun Buoy has been placed in 6 feet water near the centre of a Reef of Rocks (not shown on the chart) the south end of Snake Island, bearing N.N.E. $2\frac{1}{4}$ cables. The Reef, which extends about 60 yards on each side of the buoy, has a depth of 4 and 5 fathoms round it, and there is a clear passage for small vessels between it and Snake Island.

JAMES RIDDLE, Harbourmaster.
Hobart, 3rd March, 1894.

Office N. M. Board,
Newcastle, 19th March, 1894.

It is hereby notified, for general information, that Major-General Hutton, A.D.C., Commanding N.S.W. Military Forces, intends, from the 23rd instant to 6th April, to go through a training of Submarine Miners. Two Buoys will be placed between the Northern and Southern Breakwater which will show at all times of the tide.

Masters of vessels will therefore use every precaution when navigating this portion of the Harbour, so as to avoid fouling the mines or buoys.

W. F. WEATHERILL, Secretary N. M. Board.

LEASE OF QUEEN'S WHARF, BUNDABERG.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Lease of the Queen's Wharf and a portion of the Store, Bundaberg, will be submitted for Sale by Auction, at the Custom House, Bundaberg, at Noon on WEDNESDAY, the Eighteenth day of April, 1894.

CONDITIONS.

1. The Wharf and Store will be leased for one or two years at option of purchaser. Purchaser to declare term he intends to take it for, immediately on fall of hammer. The rent to commence on 1st May next.

2. The highest bidder shall, subject to the approval of the Treasurer as to sureties or otherwise, be the lessee. In case of any dispute between the bidders, or any bidder and the seller, the lot shall be put up again for sale.

3. The lessee and his approved sureties will be required to enter into a bond in double the amount of rent for one year.

4. The rent is to be paid monthly in advance to the Sub-Collector of Customs, Bundaberg, or at the Treasury, Brisbane.

5. In the event of the shed on the Wharf being carried away by floods, or damaged to such an extent as to be temporarily unfit for the storage of goods, the Government will allow the lessee an abatement of one-half the rent payable from the date the shed was carried away or damaged until such time as the shed is re-erected or repaired. No claim for abatement of rent on account of flood-water covering the Wharf will be allowed.

6. No charge for wharfage rates on cargo shall exceed two shillings per ton weight or measurement, nor shall any wharfage rates whatever be charged on goods or cargo of any description consigned to or by any public officer on account of the Public Service.

7. The lessee will be entitled to the entire use of the Wharf and Store, subject to clause 13 of these conditions; but no other buildings are to be erected on the ground leased or on the Wharf without the express sanction of the Government.

8. The lessee shall not in any way interfere with the Railway Commissioners in completing the line of railway now being extended from the Bundaberg Railway Station by way of the Queen's Wharf to Mr. Duffy's Wharf on the Burnett River, the plans of which extension may be seen at the Chief Engineer's Office at Brisbane, and the lessee shall at all times keep the line of rails running through their (the lessees') premises clear for railway traffic to and from Mr. Duffy's Wharf, and permit the Railway Commissioners to run free of charge such railway locomotives and wagons, loaded or unloaded, at any time they may require to do so.

9. The lessee will be required to keep the Wharf clean and free from all deposit of rubbish or refuse and in good and suitable repair during the tenancy, reasonable wear and tear only excepted; and should any damage be done to the Wharf by any vessel or otherwise, such damage shall be made good by the lessee to the satisfaction of the Government.

10. The lessee shall not be at liberty to assign or sublet the Wharf, or any portion thereof, without having previously obtained the consent of the Treasurer.

11. The lessee will be held accountable for the proper conduct of his wharfinger or other servant employed in connection with the Wharf or the collection of wharfage rates.

12. The officers of Customs, the Harbour Master, and other officers in the Public Service, and all persons acting under their orders, shall have free access to the Wharf for all purposes connected with their public duties.

13. The western division of the Store is reserved by the Government for Customs purposes, and is not included in the lease. Should any free or duty-paid goods inadvertently, or by permission from the Customs officer in charge, be placed in this portion of the Store, the lessee shall remove them immediately on being required so to do, or in default they may be removed at his risk and expense.

14. The lessee must provide all materials and labour required by the landing-waiter in charge for examining, weighing, gauging, marking, packing, and repacking goods.

15. Should the rent be at any time more than one month in arrear, or should the lessee wilfully infringe the conditions of his lease, the Government shall in the former case have the right at once to enter upon and take possession of the Wharf and premises, and in the latter case to enter and take possession on the expiration of one month's notice given after such infringement.

T. M. KING, Under Secretary.

The Treasury,
Brisbane, 21st March, 1894.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 21st February, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct that the Administration of "The Meat and Dairy Produce Encouragement Act of 1893" be transferred from the Department of the Colonial Treasurer to that of the Secretary for Public Lands and Agriculture; and the Administration of "The Sugar Works Guarantee Act of 1893" from the Department of the Colonial Treasurer to that of the Secretary for Mines and Secretary for Public Works.

HUGH M. NELSON.

£1,000 REWARD.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 21st February, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct that a Reward of £1,000 be offered for information which will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the person who was or the persons who were concerned in causing the fires which occurred on board the unnamed vessels of The British India Associated Steamers, Limited, on the dates respectively specified:—

On board the "India," on the 19th November, 1893, while the vessel was lying alongside Messrs. Parbury, Lamb, and Co.'s Wharf at South Brisbane;

On board the "Jumna," on the 9th January, 1894, on the arrival of the vessel at Batavia; and

On board the "Dorunda," on the 1st February, 1894, after the vessel left Thursday Island, and on the 15th day after she left the Brisbane River.

Also that a pardon be granted to any person concerned in the crime, not being the principal offender, who shall give such information.

HUGH M. NELSON.

£25 REWARD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 3rd March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct that a Reward of £25 be paid to the person who may give such information as will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who murdered Margaret Lyons, between Mundoo and Goondi Plantation, near Cairns, and that a Free Pardon be granted to anyone concerned in the crime, not being the principal offender, who may give such information.

HORACE TOZER.

£100 REWARD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 6th September, 1893.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct that a Reward of £100 be paid to the person who may give such information as will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who, on the night of the 31st of August, 1893, set fire to the Naryileo Woolshed, and that a Free Pardon be granted to anyone concerned in the crime, not being the principal offender, who may give such information.

HORACE TOZER.

By their Honours the Justices—
WILLM. BELL, Registrar.

Registrar's Office,
Supreme Court, Brisbane,
20th March, 1894.

THE following Extracts from Statutes and Rules of Court, in respect of the Powers and Duties of Commissioners for Affidavits, and the Fees to be taken by them, are published for general information:—

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF MARRIED WOMEN.

(20 Vic. No. 27, s. 4.)

Every commissioner of the Supreme Court for taking affidavits not residing within five miles of the city of Brisbane* shall have power to take acknowledgments of married women and others and verifications of copies of deeds and other instruments requiring verification, and may receive to his own use the fees now by law payable in that behalf.

*Brisbane for "Sydney."—31 Vic. No. 27, s.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT (Judicature Act, 40 Vic. No. 6).

Order XXXVI.

3c. Every affidavit shall state the description and true place of abode of the deponent.

3d. In every affidavit made by two or more deponents the names of the several persons making the affidavit shall be inserted in the jurat, except that, if the affidavit of all the deponents is taken at one time by the same officer, it shall be sufficient to state that it was sworn by both (or all) of the "abovenamed" deponents.

3f. The date of the day of the month in the jurat of all affidavits shall be in handwriting in extenso, and not printed or in figures. No affidavit having in the jurat or body thereof any interlineation, alteration, or erasure shall, without leave of the Court or a judge, be read or made use of in any matters depending in court unless the interlineation or alteration (other than by erasure) is authenticated by the initials of the officer taking the affidavit, or, if taken at the Supreme Court office, either by his initials or the stamp of that office, nor in the case of an erasure unless the words or figures appearing at the time of taking the affidavit to be written on the erasure are re-written and signed or initialled on the margin of the affidavit by the officer taking it.

3g. Where an affidavit is sworn by any person who appears to the officer taking the affidavit to be illiterate or blind, the officer shall certify in the jurat that the affidavit was read by him, or in his presence, to the deponent, that the deponent seemed perfectly to understand it, and that the deponent made his or her mark or signature in the presence of the officer, and in such case the jurat shall conclude as follows:—

And I hereby certify that the above affidavit was first read over by me [or in my presence] to the abovenamed [deponent], and that the said [deponent] seemed perfectly to understand the same, and wrote his signature [or made his mark] hereto in my presence.

A.B.,

A Commissioner for taking Affidavits in the Supreme Court of Queensland.

3h. Each separate sheet of an affidavit shall be signed by the deponent and by the person before whom it is taken, and numbered and dated of the day on which it is sworn, and the same fee shall be payable on each extra sheet as on an exhibit. A form is subjoined:—

A.B. [name of deponent].

C.D. [name], Commissioner.

Toowoomba, May 5th, 1870 [place and date of taking].

3i. Every officer shall express the time when and the place where he shall take any affidavit, or otherwise the same shall not be held authentic nor be admitted to be filed or enrolled.

3o. No affidavit is to be deemed sufficient which has been sworn before the party on whose behalf the same is offered, or before his proctor, solicitor, or attorney, or before a clerk of his proctor, solicitor, or attorney.

3p. Where an agent in town or a principal in the country is the proctor, solicitor, or attorney on the record, an affidavit sworn before the principal in the country shall not be received, and an affidavit sworn before the clerk of a proctor, solicitor, or attorney shall not be received in cases where it would not be receivable if sworn before the proctor, solicitor, or attorney himself; but this rule shall not extend to affidavits to hold to bail.

3q. Proctors, solicitors, and attorneys, and their clerks, respectively, if acting for any other proctors, solicitors, or attorneys, shall be subject to the rules in the respect of taking affidavits which are applicable to those in whose stead they are acting.

3r. Where a witness or deponent shall not make oath the forms of jurats shall be varied and other necessary alterations made accordingly, so as to conform with the solemn affirmation or other declaration of the witness or deponent.

3s. No affidavit, declaration, acknowledgment, or other like proceeding which can be taken, made, or acknowledged, or had by or before a commissioner or other officer or person shall be brought to a judge to be so taken, made, acknowledged, or had.

Note.—The following is the ordinary form of jurat:—
Signed and sworn by the deponent at [town], in the Colony aforesaid, this day of , 189 , before me.

A.B.,

A Commissioner for taking Affidavits in the Supreme Court of Queensland.

H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fiftieth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "The Quarantine Act of 1886," it is amongst other things enacted that the Governor may, by Proclamation, appoint any place on land to be a place at which passengers may perform Quarantine, and prohibit all persons, ships, and boats from going within the limits of a Quarantine Station or Quarantine Ground: Now, therefore, I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by virtue of the power and authority so vested in me, and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby appoint Barubbra Island, situated at the mouth of the Burnett River, to be a place at which passengers may perform Quarantine, and I do hereby prohibit all persons landing upon the said Island.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.

REMARKS.

Mean pressure was 0·106 higher, and mean temperature was 0·8 lower, than in January. The mean vapour tension was 0·030 lower, and the relative humidity 2% less, than last month. Thunderstorms experienced between 9·30 p.m. and 1 a.m., 23rd. Lunar rainbow about 9 p.m., 25th.

* NOTE.—The average death-rate of children under one year, as compared to births, during the ten years ended 31st December, 1892, throughout the whole of Queensland, was 12·15. Vital Statistics of 1892.

February, 1894, compared with February, 1893.

Mean pressure was 0.127 more than for the same period a year ago. The mean shade temperature was 1.4 higher than last year. The mean vapour tension or absolute weight of vapour was 0.094 more than, and the percentage of humidity was 15% less than, twelve months ago. The mean wind velocity was 0.2 more than in February, 1893; while the amount of cloud was 2.2 less. Examining the winds, we find that during February, 1894, northerly and north-east winds were observed 2 and 6 times, as against 2 and 7 times for the previous year. Easterly winds were observed 17 times in February, 1894, and 14 during February, 1893; and the south-east winds were 20 and 28 respectively. The southerly winds were 18 this year, against 18 a year ago. South-west currents were noted 1 and 0 this and last year respectively. Westerly winds were 3 and 0 this and last year respectively, and the north-west winds were 1 this year and 1 a year ago. The amount of calms observed was 16 this year, as against 14 twelve months ago. As for rainfall, we had 2.310 inches in February, 1894, against 40.389 inches in February, 1893.

The Observatory, which was reorganised on 1st January, 1887, is conducted entirely in accordance with the Royal Meteorological Society's Rules.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

[L.S.]
H. W. NORMAN,
Governor.

IN pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the Country Lands specified in the Schedule hereto, and situated in the CAIRNS Land Agent's District, shall be open both for CONDITIONAL and UNCONDITIONAL Selection, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the SEVENTH day of MAY, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said lands shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be as follows, that is to say, 1,280 acres.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.

[L.S.]
H. W. NORMAN,
Governor.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the twenty-eighth day of March, 1894, I did, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Land Board, order that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884" as requires land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection should be suspended with respect to the Country Land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Surveyor-General was, by the said Order in Council, required to mark off the said land, and to indicate the position on proper maps or plans: And whereas the Surveyor-General has accordingly marked off the said land into the lot specified in the said Schedule, and has indicated the position thereof on proper maps or plans: Now, therefore, in pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the said land specified in the said Schedule hereto, being situated in the TOWNSVILLE Land Agent's District, shall be open for UNCONDITIONAL Selection only, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the SEVENTH day of MAY, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said land shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be 1,280 acres.

H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

IN pursuance of the power in me vested, and in accordance with the provisions of the 42nd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the unselected lots of land, being portions 9v, 10v, 11v, 12v, and 60, in the parish of Norman, in the Normanton Land Agent's District, opened to selection by Proclamations dated the 17th March, 1888, and 14th January, 1892, shall be and are hereby withdrawn from selection.

E.M.—23-3-94. 94-4408—S.G.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

GOWRIE COLLIERY.

Department of Mines,
Brisbane, 15th March, 1894.

THE following Special Rules, relating to the Gowrie Colliery, are hereby published in the Government Gazette in accordance with the provisions of "The Mines Regulation Act of 1889."

ROBERT PHILP.

MANAGER.

1. He must strictly observe and fulfil the provisions of the Act and special rules, and must carry out and provide whatever is necessary for the safety of the Colliery and all its parts, and for rendering those provisions and rules effective.

2. He shall cause the general and special rules to be posted up, in legible characters, in some conspicuous place at the Colliery, where they may be conveniently read by the persons employed thereat; and so often as the same become defaced, obliterated, or destroyed, shall cause them to be renewed with all reasonable despatch.

3. He has the responsible charge and direction of the Colliery.

4. He has the control of all officers, and of all other persons employed in or about the Colliery.

5. He must provide fit and adequate machinery and structures for the purpose of the Colliery, and take care that the same are kept in repair.

6. He must provide upon the premises at the Colliery a sufficient quantity of materials for the purpose of carrying on the Colliery with safety.

7. He must design and lay out the ventilation of the mine, and must see that the same is adequately ventilated, in compliance with the provisions of the first general rule.

8. He shall direct where borings shall be kept in advance in approaching old workings.

9. He shall give the necessary directions for the construction of the manholes and places of refuge, as required by the fifth general rule.

10. He shall cause the safety-valve of every boiler to be properly weighted, and shall give direction that the same may be frequently examined to see whether there has been any interference with the weight to alter the pressure of the steam, and shall give direction that every steam-gauge and every water-gauge shall be frequently examined to secure its good order.

11. He shall give directions that each boiler shall be cleaned as often as may be necessary.

12. He shall provide from time to time a proper number of printed copies of the general and special rules, for use at the Colliery.

13. He must from time to time appoint a sufficient number of competent officers to superintend the Colliery and all persons employed thereat.

14. He shall cause all necessary plans of the mine and all workings therein, and section of the thickness of the coal, to be kept in compliance with the provisions of the Act.

15. He shall give to the inspector and Minister of Mines all notices required by the Act to be given to either of them, and shall make all necessary returns to them.

OVERMAN.

16. Subject to the control and supervision of the manager, the whole operative details shall be under the care and charge of the overman. The overman shall see that the workmen of every class, in their several departments, discharge their duties; shall receive and attend to all reports made to him as to the state of the airways, machinery, midwalls, ventilation doors, roads, and working places. He shall cause remedies to be provided when needed, and shall see that the general and special rules are faithfully and vigorously enforced.

17. He shall have full power and authority over all officers under him, and all other persons employed at the Colliery.

18. He shall obey all orders and directions given him by the manager.

19. He shall take care that all officers under him, and all other persons in the mine, understand and fulfil their respective duties.

20. He shall give immediate notice to the manager of any breach of duty by any person in the mine.

21. He shall have under his immediate and special charge the shaft, slides, pumps, and relative fittings, all of which he shall keep safe and efficient.

22. He shall see that boards on which the code of signals is legibly printed are placed, one in the engine-house, one at the top of the shaft, and one at the bottom, and at each working level between top and bottom.

23. He shall be at the Colliery during the working hours daily, and shall not absent himself under any circumstances, without first having had permission from the manager, and given information to the person next in authority below him of his intended absence.

24. He shall examine every working place once every working day, and also examine the travelling roads and airways, and maintain over them, and over the timbering, ventilation, and lighting of the mine, and all operations therein, a careful supervision, so as to ensure the safety of all persons in the mine, and enter result of such examination in report book kept for the purpose.

25. He shall, as often as need be, inspect the ventilating furnace, to see that the same is in good order, that all ashes are removed, and that there is a good supply of fuel for use at the furnace, and that the furnaceman fulfils his duty.

26. If at any time it is found that the mine or any other part thereof is, by reason of noxious gases prevailing therein, or from any other cause whatever, dangerous or unsafe, he shall immediately suspend all operations in the mine or such part thereof, and remove all persons therefrom, and instantly report the danger to the manager, and prevent any person again entering the mine or such part thereof until the danger has been removed, and the mine or such part thereof has been restored to safety.

27. He shall immediately cause any fall which shall obstruct any airway or roadway to be removed, and every defect therein to be made good.

28. He shall direct all loose overhanging stones or coal in the roofs and sides of all working places, travelling roads, and airways to be removed or propped, and made safe.

29. He shall see that a plentiful supply of timber for props and other purposes required by the workmen to carry on their operations with safety to themselves is always ready at hand, and shall cause the same to be cut in proper lengths and laid down at a convenient place.

30. He shall see that sprags or short props are used by the colliers whenever needed in their working places.

31. He shall direct that timbers are set in the best manner in all places where they are required, and shall take care these directions are obeyed.

32. He shall take care that the airways are kept in repair, and maintained of the size directed by the manager.

33. He shall require the colliers and other persons employed in the mine properly to stow away all rubbish in their bords and working places within ten yards of the face, and to remove all loose overhanging stones or coal in the roof and sides, and to put up all necessary props, walls, and gobbing, to make their working places safe.

34. He shall attend to and strictly enforce the provisions regarding gunpowder and blasting, as set forth in second general rule.

FIREMAN.

35. Where there is reason to suspect the presence of inflammable gas, the fireman shall carefully examine each day each man's working place, and shall mark with chalk the date of the month in some conspicuous place upon the face of each working place, so that the workmen can see that the fireman has been there, such examination to be made with a safety lamp, and report and sign in report book kept for that purpose.

36. Shall suspend or affix danger signals on outside of any bord or place where gas is found to exist, and shall keep up such signal until the danger is removed.

37. No person, without authority, shall go beyond such signal with a naked light or safety lamp, and anyone found doing so shall be instantly dismissed.

38. No working places containing gas shall be worked until the miners in such places are supplied with safety lamps.

39. No smoking and no lucifer matches shall be allowed in any working place where safety lamps are used.

40. No blasting powder or any other explosive shall be used where safety lamps are used.

41. No person shall have in his possession, in the mine or district where safety lamps are exclusively used, a key or contrivance for opening the lock of any safety lamp, except the manager, overman, or fireman, or other competent person appointed for that purpose by the manager.

42. Any safety lamp receiving any injury shall be immediately extinguished and brought out to the person in charge, who shall report such accident to the manager.

43. He shall examine every working place at least once in every shift, if more than one, or oftener if necessary, to ensure the safety of all persons working therein.

44. He shall instantly stop every working place that may, for want of timbering or from defective ventilation, or an issue of gas, be in an unfit state to work therein, and shall report such occurrences at once to the overman.

45. He shall carefully examine daily the edges of all old workings abutting on travelling roads or working places.

46. He shall fix or cause to be put up all doors and brattices wherever required, for the proper ventilation of the mine.

47. He shall put up or cause to be put up all stoppings, doors, brattices, and other fittings necessary for proper ventilation, and shall see that they are kept in good repair and order, and for that purpose shall frequently examine all stoppings, doors, brattices, and fittings.

48. He shall take care that all ventilation doors shall be so hung that they will not stand open of themselves, and that all main doors are double.

49. Every ventilation door in actual use must always be kept closed. If it is necessary that a ventilation door should be kept open permanently, or for any temporary purpose, except to pass through it, the fireman shall unbunge and unsling it and place it aside.

50. He shall suspend every operation attended with risk until he shall have received special instructions from the overman or manager.

51. He shall report to the overman all accidents, dangers, or defects which may occur in his district of the mine, and he shall also report any accident, danger, or defect to or in any machinery or structure in the mine which may come to his knowledge.

ROADSMEN.

52. The roadmen, in their different divisions or districts, and shifts, if more than one, shall at least daily make careful inspection of the whole roadways and working places, from the pit bottom throughout the mine, and shall keep the same free from all obstructions.

53. They shall repair and remedy all damages and defects in the roads of the mine.

54. The roadmen shall also lay rails on the roads, where requisite, and in the absence of the overman or foreman they shall receive all reports or communications from the colliers, wheelers, and other workmen, as to falls and defects in the roads, roofs, sides, and working places, and shall proceed to and repair or remedy the falls and defects.

55. They shall stop the passage of men and materials through or under defective roads, roofs, sides, and places until the necessary repairs shall have been executed. They shall receive information concerning any interruption to the ventilation, or of any other cause of danger, and communicate with the overman immediately, and shall aid and assist in the rectification and remedy of the same.

56. It shall be the special duty of the roadmen, in their different districts, if more than one, to observe that an adequate supply of timber for props and other necessary purposes is always ready at a place of general delivery, for the use of the colliers, in supporting the roofs and sides of their working places, and to report to the overman if they shall observe any want of such timber. For the purpose of carrying out this rule roadmen are empowered to call upon drawers, wheelers, or drivers, whether employed by the owner or collier, to convey such necessary timber from the pit bottom, or other place of general delivery, to the working places in connection with which they are employed.

57. The roadmen shall report to the overman any instances of neglect on the part of colliers and acts of carelessness in failing to remove loose or overhanging stones and coals in their working places.

58. To report to manager or overman any violation of General Rule No. 2, as to use of gunpowder, blasting, and tools.

59. To see that every manhole or place of refuge is kept clean, in terms of General Rules Nos. 3, 4, and 5.

60. To examine the roofs and sides of every travelling road, at least daily, and see that they are safe.

61. To report any damage to any fence, casing, lining, means of signalling, or otherwise, that may be observed, to the manager or overman, in terms of General Rule No. 25.

DRAWERS OR WHEELERS, &c.

62. Drawers, wheelers, and drivers shall not be permitted to approach or to enter the roads or working places until the colliers shall have been allowed to proceed thither to work. They shall carefully convey their loaded hutches or wagons to the pit bottom, or siding, or wheel, or self-acting incline plane, as the case may be; and when the hutches or wagons are brought to the pit bottom they shall not be pushed forward till the hottomer shall have taken charge of them. All drawers, wheelers, and drivers shall be subject to the orders of the overman and roadmen in carrying out Rule No. 55 as to the conveyance of timber to working places.

BOTTOMER.

63. He must learn and thoroughly understand the system of signals in use at the Colliery.

64. He shall, when a pit is being examined or repaired, or any pumps or machinery are being put up or fixed therein, see that the signals in use at the Colliery for the conducting of those operations and for the safety of the persons employed thereat are thoroughly understood.

65. He must carefully attend to and observe every signal, and he must clearly and distinctly understand a signal; and if he does not, he shall require it to be repeated, before any action is taken in consequence of it by himself or anyone else.

66. He must not allow any person to interfere with the signal-wire while he is on duty.

67. Shall report to the overman any violation of the Act and special rules.

68. He shall not allow more than four persons in a single cage, and eight in a double cage, to ascend at one time.

69. He shall not allow anyone to ride with full or empty tub or wagon, nor on the cage-top.

70. He shall not allow anyone to take his gear or tools with him in the cage, these being sent up in a tub or wagon provided for that purpose.

71. He shall remain next the signal-wire when men and boys are ascending, in order to signal to pitheadman or engineman in case of an accident.

72. He shall report at once to the engineman, overman, or manager, any defect he may observe in the ropes, chains, cages, guides, signals, or other apparatus, and prevent the use of the same until the defect is remedied.

73. He shall see that no timber, materials, stones, coal, or other thing shall, under any circumstances, be lifted or lowered in a pit while men are being lifted or lowered in it, except such as may be necessary in repairing a pit while the repairs are going on.

BANKSMAN OR PITHEADMAN.

74. He must learn and thoroughly understand the system of signals at the Colliery.

75. He shall not allow any person to descend the shaft without permission from the manager.

76. He shall not allow any ales, spirits, or intoxicating drink to be taken down the pit shaft, except by special permission, nor allow any person to descend or be at pit bank in a state of intoxication.

77. He shall have full charge of all persons employed on the pithead platform and screens, and see that the rules are observed by those under his charge, and shall watch the apparatus and appliances carefully, and report to the engineman or manager any observed defect.

78. He shall not allow more than four persons in a single cage, and eight persons in a double cage, to descend the pit at any time.

79. He shall not allow anyone to interfere with the signals.

80. He shall not allow anyone to ride with empty tubs or wagons nor on the cage-top.

81. He shall not allow anyone to take his gear or tools with him in the cage, all gear being sent down in a tub or wagon provided for that purpose.

82. He shall keep the flat-sheets and all places near the pit free from coal, stones, and loose material.

83. He shall not leave the shaft without seeing the rails, chains, or gates at the opening into the pit in their proper position, and it is the duty of every person who takes them down at once to replace them.

84. He shall attend on all occasions when men and boys descend the shaft, unless some other person is especially appointed to do so.

85. He shall at once report to the engineman or manager any defect he may observe in the ropes, chains, cages, or other apparatus, and prevent the use of the same until the defect is remedied.

86. He shall see that the pitwood, or timber, rails, &c., necessary for each day's consumption are brought to the pit, and sent down when required by the overman.

87. He shall report to the manager any violation of the rules, or any evasion or contravention of the Act and special rules.

88. In absence of a weigher specially appointed for that purpose, it shall be the duty of the pitheadman to act as weigher, and to see that all tubs, hutches, or wagons are properly filled with the "mineral contracted to be gotten," and that the proper deductions are made in respect of stones or materials, other than the "mineral contracted to be gotten," or in respect of the tubs, hutches, or wagons improperly filled, in terms of section 49 of the Act. He shall also afford proper facility to any check-weigher appointed by the colliers under the 50th section of the Act, to take the account therein mentioned, and if the pitheadman detects any disorder or inaccuracy in any weighing machine he shall immediately report the fact to the manager.

WEIGHER.

89. Where a person is specially appointed as weigher, it shall be his duty to attend to the matters appertaining to his duties embraced in the immediately preceding rule.

ENGINEMAN.

90. He shall have the care of the engines, boilers, and the machinery connected therewith, he shall constantly observe whether the whole work freely and are in good order, and he must keep them in thorough and efficient repair at all times.

91. He shall not, unless by the special authority of the manager, allow any person to be therein for any purpose, nor without such authority shall he leave the engine-house or place of his duty during his time of duty, nor entrust his engine to the charge of any person.

92. He must learn and thoroughly understand the system of signals in use at the Colliery.

93. He must carefully attend to and observe every signal, and he must clearly and distinctly understand a signal; and if he does not, he must require it to be repeated, before any action is taken upon it by himself or anyone else.

94. He shall once a day examine his engine, winding-drum, flanges, ropes upon the drum, bolts, hinges, main and cage chains, cages, the signal wrapper and wires, safety valves, water and steam gauges, and other machinery, and shall immediately report to the manager any defect he may observe.

95. He shall see that the boilers are properly cleaned, and shall prohibit and suspend the working of any boiler exhibiting weakness, or in connection with which any valve, gauge, or apparatus is out of order.

96. He shall not leave the working handles of the engine while it is in motion.

97. When lowering or raising men, he shall work the engine by hand at a slow speed.

98. He shall work the cages once up and down the pit before persons descend the pit at the beginning of each turn or shift, in order to see that there is no obstruction in the pit, and that the machinery and gear are right.

99. He shall once every week, with the overman, thoroughly examine the state of the external parts of the machinery, headgear, pulleys, ropes, chains, cages, and other works in his charge, with the shaft guides, and record and sign a true report in the book provided for that purpose.

COLLIERS.

100. Shall use safety lamps where the manager, overman, or fireman considers necessary.

101. No naked light is to be taken beyond any danger signal placed by the overman or fireman as a warning that gas is suspected.

102. They shall constantly be on the alert for discharges of gas, more particularly in meeting with faults, hitches, or backs, or in case of a sudden influx of water; and in these cases also a close examination of the state of the roof should be kept up, more vigilance being, if possible, required on reaching the hanging face of backs or hitches.

103. Shall make a thorough examination of the state of the roof and sides in their working places before commencing work.

104. Shall be responsible for the proper timbering of their own working places, and shall report to the overman any deficient supply of timber.

105. They shall set sprags or holing props wherever necessary, whenever directed by the overman.

106. If, from accident or any other cause, colliers are at any time unable to find a sufficient supply of timber or prop-wood, &c., at the place appointed, they are expressly forbidden to remain in their working places.

107. They shall take the utmost care to maintain the safety of their own working places.

108. They shall take care to leave their working places at the close of every day's work in good order, and in a condition fit for them to be able to resume their labour there in safety.

109. They must on no account leave in their working places any rubbish, small coal, or slack, which shall prevent access to the face of the coal, or interfere with free ventilation to the face of their working places.

110. They shall, on quitting their employment, leave their working places in good order, and in such proper condition as to enable the persons who succeed them therein safely to work there.

111. Except for a proper purpose, no person shall go into any other than his own working place, under any pretence whatever, and in no case shall he go into old workings except by order of overman or fireman.

112. On returning after a shot has been fired, they shall carefully examine the roof and sides of their working places, to see whether they have become loosened.

113. In pillar or stoop and other working, before commencing to remove pillars, the collier shall secure the roof and face, and when commencing to drive a new place he shall guard against a fall from a level, break, or crack.

114. When the colliers have been withdrawn from any place on account of any danger existing therein, they shall not re-enter such place until they receive order from the overman to do so.

115. Every collier shall obey the provisions of General Rule No. 2, and shall not in any manner use gunpowder or other explosive substance, or take any gunpowder into the mine otherwise than as prescribed, or use or have in his possession any iron or steel pricker, or use any iron or steel rammer for ramming either the wadding or the first part of the tamping on the powder, or to unram any charge of powder which has missed fire.

RULES FOR ALL PERSONS.

116. Every person employed at the Colliery shall make himself thoroughly acquainted with the provisions of the Act and special rules, so far as they relate to his employment and duty, and shall observe the same.

117. All officers shall acquaint themselves thoroughly with the rules applicable to their offices, and with those which are to be observed by persons under their charge.

118. No person shall take any boy under the age of fourteen years into the mine, or permit any boy under that age to assist him or to remain in the mine.

119. No person shall enter the mine, or remain on the premises of the mine, in a state of intoxication.

120. No person shall, without the order of the manager, take any ale, spirits, wine, or other intoxicating drink into the mine, or on to the premises, or consume the same therein.

121. Every person shall go into and out of the mine by the main travelling road, unless otherwise specially directed by the manager or overman.

122. No person shall enter any place if the same is barred with timber, thus X, which in all cases means danger.

123. No unskilled, or inexperienced, or careless person shall work alone, or at any operation in which there is risk.

124. No person shall commence to walk along any incline or plane in the mine, worked by machinery or self-acting, while the machinery, &c., shall be in motion.

125. No person shall ride on any moving platform, or in any carriage or train, or wagon, upon any incline or plane, which shall be worked by machinery or be self-acting, other than the person or persons in charge of the train, on journey.

126. No person shall open any door which should be kept shut unless it is necessary for him to pass through it, or, by any wilful act or by neglect, injure any door, brattice, aircourse, stopping or caution mark, or put coal, rubbish, or any other obstruction in any roadway, airway, manhole, or place of refuge, or break, injure, or put out of order, out of repair, or out of gear, any machinery or structure, or do any other act whereby the lives or safety of the persons at the Colliery may be imperilled, or the mine rendered unsafe, or any machinery or structure be made dangerous, defective, or out of order.

127. Every person passing through a door must close it carefully after him.

128. Doors not in actual use for ventilating purposes shall be unhung, and be either removed or placed conveniently aside.

129. As a matter of common safety, colliers, drawers, and all other workmen who shall observe, or who shall come to the knowledge of any damage to or deficiency in any road, roof, or airway, shaft, buildings, or other appliance or work devised for making, maintaining, or promoting the effective ventilation of the mine, or any appearance of fire-damp, choke-damp, or water, shall be bound instantly to communicate such damage or deficiency to the manager, overman, firemen, roadmen, or other person in charge, so that the same may be forthwith repaired or rectified.

130. In like manner every collier, drawer, and other workmen who shall observe or come to know of any defect or flaw in the cages, ropes, or chains, or in any part of the engine, machinery, and gearing used in or about the mine, whereby the efficiency thereof may be impaired, shall be bound forthwith to communicate the same as above.

131. No collier or other workman shall be permitted to introduce into the mine any stranger or person employed by him, on any pretence, without the permission and authority of the manager.

132. No person shall ride on any wagons, or on the hook or couplings between wagons, at the Colliery.

133. No person, except those especially authorised for the purpose, shall have in his possession in the mine any key or contrivance for opening a safety lamp.

134. Colliers and all others are prohibited from knowingly or wilfully defacing or removing marks which may be made in any part of the workings, for the guidance of the workmen or officials in their operations. All workmen are forbidden to displace, injure, or damage, in any way, the pillars, props, hutches, or wagons, rails, or any part of the machinery, gearing, or apparatus.

135. Workmen ascending or descending the pit shall not be allowed to leave the cage while it is in motion, nor until it shall rest on the landing place.

136. No fighting is allowed in the mine.

137. Meeting of colliers and other workmen, in a body, within the workings or in any of the roads or airways, or at the pithead, or on the premises, are strictly prohibited.

138. Any person who shall not obey the provisions of the Act, or of the special rules, or any order or direction of any officer of the Colliery to whom he is subordinate may be compelled by any officer to leave the mine immediately, with a view to the investigation of the case and the punishment of the offender.

139. No officer, or any person duly appointed in his stead or duly authorised to perform his duty, and no person in a place of trust or to whom any special authority or direction is given by any officer of the Colliery, shall absent himself from his duty, or appoint or require any other person to fill his situation or do his duty or work, without the authority of the manager or overman.

140. Officers who fail in the due observance of rules, or in enforcing the same for the safety of the workmen and the mine, subject themselves to dismissal and prosecution.

£1,000 REWARD.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 21st February, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct that a Reward of £1,000 be offered for information which will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the person who was or the persons who were concerned in causing the fires which occurred on board the undernamed vessels of The British India Associated Steamers, Limited, on the dates respectively specified:—

On board the "India," on the 19th November, 1893, while the vessel was lying alongside Messrs. Parbury, Lamb, and Co.'s Wharf at South Brisbane;

On board the "Jumna," on the 9th January, 1894, on the arrival of the vessel at Batavia; and

On board the "Dorunda," on the 1st February, 1894, after the vessel left Thursday Island, and on the 15th day after she left the Brisbane River.

Also that a pardon be granted to any person concerned in the crime, not being the principal offender, who shall give such information.

HUGH M. NELSON.

RAVENSBORNE CEMETERY.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 14th March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of the "Cemetery Act 1865," been pleased to approve of the following Rules and Regulations made by the Trustees of the Ravensbourne Cemetery.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by the "Cemetery Act 1865" the Trustees of any public Cemetery may make Rules and Regulations for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Trustees of the Ravensbourne Cemetery, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following Rules and Regulations shall be in force within the said Cemetery from the date of the publication hereof:—

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. The fees and charges set forth in Schedule A hereto shall be paid at the time the order is given for the preparation of a grave, or when the permission of the trustees is obtained for the erection of a vault, monument, or tombstone within the said Cemetery.

2. The trustees shall allot the size and position of all graves or vaults to be sunk in the Cemetery. No catacombs shall be allowed.

3. No grave shall be dug at a depth of less than six feet for an adult, and five feet for a child under twelve years of age. All graves shall be dug by the sexton only, except in his absence or illness, and then by some person duly appointed in writing by two or more of the trustees.

4. The sexton shall not break the ground for the purpose of digging a grave, nor allow the ground to be broken by any other person for the purpose of erecting any vault, monument, tombstone, tablet, or railing, until an order is presented to him signed by the secretary or by one or more of the trustees.

5. In accordance with the provisions of the 19th section of "The Cemetery Act 1865" any person digging or making a vault, or erecting and placing a monument or tombstone in the Cemetery by and with the permission of the trustees under these rules, and upon payment of the charges herein mentioned, shall be entitled to have, maintain, and keep up such vault, monument, or tombstone according to the terms of such permission, to and for the sole and separate use of such person and his or her representatives for ever.

6. Application for permission to have a grave prepared, a vault constructed, or a monument, tombstone, or tablet erected, must be made to the trustees, or to the person or persons authorised by them; whereupon, if approved, permission in writing will be granted to the person applying, on payment of the charges set forth in Schedule A hereto.

7. Orders for interment must be given to the sexton or whomsoever may be appointed to dig the grave, at least five clear working hours prior to the hour fixed for the burial; if not, an extra charge will be made in accordance with Schedule A hereto.

8. Parties requiring brick graves or vaults to be made in the Cemetery will be required to submit plans of same for approval of trustees, and to construct same under the direction of the surveyor or other person appointed in that behalf by the trustees, and every coffin placed in a vault or brick grave must be bricked-in, cemented, and covered with a slab of stone, slate, or iron, and every such coffin must have on the lid a coffin-plate with the name of the deceased stamped thereon.

9. Members of any religious denomination who wish to erect and build (within such part of the said Cemetery as shall be specially set apart for that denomination) at their own expense a suitable mortuary church or chapel, for the performance of the rites and ceremonies connected with the burial of the dead, according to the usage of such denomination, shall be at liberty to do so, provided that the plan, specification, elevation, or models of such church or chapel, together with plans, &c., of any lodges, other buildings, and conveniences which may be attached thereto, shall be first submitted to the trustees and approved by them.

10. A plan or drawing of every monument, tombstone, or tablet proposed to be erected, and a copy of every epitaph or inscription to be engraven thereon, must be submitted to the trustees for approval, and the trustees shall have power to withhold their permission and prevent the erection of any monument, &c., which appears to them inappropriate or unbecoming.

11. At the time orders for interments are given, or an application is made to have a grave prepared, the name, age, the late place of residence, the probable cause of death of the deceased, together with the rest of the particulars required to fill up Form B in the Schedule hereto, must be given by the party who makes the application.

12. The sexton or man appointed must be informed of the hour fixed for the burial, which must be understood to mean the hour at which the procession is to be at the Cemetery. This hour must at all times be punctually observed, otherwise a fine of two shillings and sixpence will be imposed.

13. The hours fixed for the performance of burials will be from 8 o'clock a.m. to 6 o'clock p.m. from the month of September to the month of April inclusive, and from 8 o'clock a.m. to 5 o'clock p.m. from the month of May to the month of August inclusive. On Sundays the hours for burials will be from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock p.m. throughout the year. Except in cases of great urgency no burial will be allowed to take place between the hours of 7 o'clock p.m. and 7 o'clock a.m., and then only subject to such conditions as the trustees may impose.

14. A plan of the Cemetery, a register of all special grants, and of positions of all graves in the Cemetery shall be kept by the trustees, and shall be open to the inspection of parties interested upon payment of the charges mentioned in Schedule A hereto.

15. All monuments, vaults, graves, and gravestones must be kept in proper repair and condition by or at the expense of their owners.

16. The sexton or person appointed shall turn out or take into custody (as the case may require) any person who may behave indecorously, or commit any trespass or injury to any trees, flowers, or erection, or otherwise infringe any of the provisions of the Act relating to the management of cemeteries in Queensland or the regulations framed under the authority thereof. And any such person shall be proceeded against according to law.

17. No burials will be allowed to take place (except under circumstances of the most urgent nature) without a certificate of the registration of death signed by the Registrar-General, Deputy Registrar-General, or District Registrar, or a certificate of a coroner or magistrate holding an inquest or inquiry, such certificate to be delivered to the sexton or person appointed before the funeral enters the gate of the Cemetery.

ALLORA GENERAL CEMETERY.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 13th March, 1894.

|| IS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of the "Cemetery Act 1865," been pleased to approve of the following Rules and Regulations made by the Trustees of the Allora General Cemetery.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Cemetery Act 1865" the Trustees of any public cemetery may make Rules and Regulations for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Trustees of the Allora General Cemetery, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following Rules and Regulations shall be in force within the said Cemetery from the date of the publication hereof:—

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. The hours appointed for the performance of funerals are from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. No funeral will be allowed to take place at any other time unless in cases of great urgency, and upon a written authority of two trustees, and subject to such conditions as they may impose.

2. The several fees and charges set forth in Schedule A hereto shall be payable in respect of the several matters therein specified. All fees and charges must be paid at the time of making application for the thing or matter in respect of which they are payable.

3. The trustees or person appointed by them for that purpose shall determine the size and position of all graves or vaults to be sunk in the Cemetery. No catacombs will be allowed.

4. No person shall be allowed to prepare a grave within the Cemetery except the sexton appointed by the trustees or his assistants.

5. All graves made in the Cemetery shall be sunk at least five feet six inches for an adult, and four feet six inches for a child under nine years of age. One grave only will be allowed on an eight by five allotment (unselected), which grave must be kept ten inches clear within the boundary line of the said allotment. The adjoining allotment will be reserved for six months. Three graves will be allowed on two adjoining allotments.

6. Application for interment must be made in writing to the trustees or person appointed by them for that purpose, at the office of the trustees in Allora. The application, which must be in the form and contain the particulars specified in Schedule B hereto, shall be signed by the applicant, and accompanied by the proper fees, on receipt of which the form in Schedule C hereto shall thereupon be given, which shall be the sexton's warrant for preparing the grave.

7. The person applying for the interment must deliver to the sexton the authority so given, together with a memorandum containing the particulars specified in Schedule D hereto, and signed by the applicant.

8. The hour named in the application and in the last-mentioned memorandum is to be the hour at which the funeral procession is to arrive at the Cemetery; the hour so named must be punctually observed.

9. The trustees shall have the power to remit all or any of the charges on the burial of any poor person in the Cemetery (except in the case of burials by persons under contract with the Government hospital, divisional board, or municipal council to perform such burial) upon its being proved to the satisfaction of the trustees that such person was a pauper or that the relations and friends of the deceased are unable to pay the cost and charges of such burial. Where paupers are buried by persons under contract as aforesaid, the charges will be in accordance with the scale set forth in Schedule A hereto.

10. Orders for interment must be given to the sexton at least eight working hours before the hour fixed for the burial, otherwise an extra charge will be made in accordance with the scale in Schedule A hereto. No free interment will be allowed without such notice.

11. No burial will be allowed to take place (except under circumstances of the most urgent nature, and upon the written authority of two trustees, or a certificate of some duly qualified medical practitioner) without a certificate of the registration of the death signed by a district registrar, or a certificate of a coroner or magistrate holding an inquest or inquiry. Such authority or certificate must be delivered to the sexton before the funeral enters the gate of the Cemetery.

12. Applications for permission to have a private grave prepared, a vault constructed, or a monument, tombstone, or tablet erected must be made to the trustees or other duly authorised person; whereupon, if approved of, a permission will be granted to the person applying, on payment of the charges set forth in Schedule A hereto in that behalf.

13. Persons requiring brick graves or vaults to be made in the Cemetery must submit plans of such graves or vaults for the approval of the trustees, and construct them under the direction of a surveyor appointed by the trustees. Every coffin placed in a vault or brick grave must be bricked-in, cemented, and covered with a slab of stone, slate, or iron, and every such coffin must have on the lid a lead or copper plate with the name of the deceased stamped thereon.

14. A copy of every epitaph or inscription proposed to be engraven or placed on any monument, tombstone, or tablet must be submitted to the trustees for approval, who may withhold such approval if the proposed epitaph or inscription appears to them inappropriate or unbecoming.

15. The trustees may order the removal of any monument, tombstone, or other erection which shall not have been sanctioned by them, and of any trees or shrubs planted on or near any grave which in their opinion are objectionable.

16. All monuments, vaults, graves, and gravestones must be kept in repair and proper condition by or at the expense of the owners.

17. A plan of the Cemetery, a register of all special grants, and of the position of all graves in the Cemetery will be kept by the trustees, and be open to inspection upon payment of the charges mentioned in Schedule A hereto.

18. The Cemetery will be open daily to the public from sunrise to sunset.

19. The sexton may turn out or take into custody (as the case may require) any person who shall behave indecorously or commit any trespass or injury to the trees, flowers, or erections, or otherwise infringe any of the provisions of the laws relating to the management of cemeteries in Queensland, or the regulations framed under the authority thereof, and any such person will be proceeded against according to law.

20. Single graves in the public grounds of the Cemetery may be converted into private graves on payment of the sum of fifteen shillings.

21. Members of any religious denomination who wish to erect and build (within such part of the said Cemetery as shall be specially set apart for that denomination) at their own expense a suitable mortuary church or chapel, for the performance of the rites and ceremonies connected with the burial of the dead according to the usages of such denomination, shall be at liberty to do so, provided that the plan, specification, models, or elevations thereof, together with plans, &c., of any lodges, other buildings, and conveniences which may be attached thereto, shall be first submitted to the trustees and approved of by them.

22. Any person having already fenced in plots of land within the Cemetery, the fees in respect of which have not been paid, shall within six months from the date of the publication of these regulations in the Gazette pay to the trustees the charges set forth in Schedule A hereto for private graves in respect of the quantity of land so fenced.

GYMPIE BRIDGES BOARD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 14th March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Local Authorities (Joint Action) Act of 1886," been pleased to approve of the following By-laws made by the Gympie Bridges Board.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the thirtieth day of September, 1892, made in pursuance of "The Local Authorities (Joint Action) Act of 1886," a Joint Local Authority was constituted under the name of "The Gympie Bridges Board," for the purposes in the said Order mentioned: And whereas the said Board was, by the said Order, empowered to make and enforce By-laws for preventing injury to and for regulating traffic across the bridges under the control of the said Board: It is hereby resolved by the said Board, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-laws shall be in force within the district of the said Joint Local Authority from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 1.

STANDING ORDERS.

Order of proceedings.

1. The Joint Board shall meet for the transaction of general business at such times and places as the president may appoint.
2. The Joint Board shall commence business as soon after the time stated in the summons as there is a sufficient number of members present to constitute a quorum.
3. The minutes of any preceding meeting not previously confirmed shall be read as the first business at all meetings of the Joint Board, in order to their confirmation, and no discussion shall be permitted thereupon except as to their accuracy as records of the proceedings.
4. At all meetings of the Joint Board (unless otherwise provided for by by-law) the reading of correspondence unconnected with the orders of the day, the presentation of petitions by members of the Joint Board, and the bringing up of reports of committees, shall have precedence of the regular business. The order of business shall be as follows:—
 1. The reading of the minutes;
 2. The reading of the correspondence outwards and inwards unconnected with the orders of the day, and their consideration;
 3. The presentation of petitions or memorials;
 4. Reports from committees, and their consideration;
 5. Payments;
 6. Questions;
 7. Orders of the day;
 8. Motions of which previous notice has been given;
 9. Notices of motion.
5. The report of a committee shall be brought up by the chairman of that committee, and may be ordered to be laid on the table, or otherwise dealt with as provided herein.

6. Every motion entered on the notice-paper shall be postponed until next meeting, unless the member who has given such notice, or someone authorised by him, be present when the business is called in the order prescribed by clause 4.

7. Any notice containing unbecoming expressions may be expunged from the notice-paper by instructions of the president.

8. The orders of the day shall include all matters arising out of the proceedings of former meetings of the Joint Board, and any business which the president may think fit to bring under consideration; any member of the Joint Board may, however, bring forward such business as he may consider advisable in the form of a motion, of which notice shall be given in writing to the clerk at least four clear days previous to the meeting at which the same is to be taken into consideration, and all such notices of motion shall be considered in the order in which they are given.

ORDER OF DEBATE.

General duties of the president or chairman of the Joint Board.

9. The president shall preserve order, and his decision on disputed points of order shall be final.

10. If two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the president or other presiding chairman shall decide which is entitled to pre-audience.

11. The president or other presiding chairman, when called upon to decide a point of order or practice, shall state the rule or precedent applicable to the case without argument or comment, and his decision thereon shall be final in each case.

12. The president or other presiding chairman shall, in taking the vote on any motion or amendment, put the question first in the affirmative, and then in the negative, commencing with the last amendment; and he may do so as often as may be necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion from the show of hands as to which party has the majority.

13. The president or other presiding chairman shall put all questions, and declare the sense of the Joint Board thereon.

14. The president or other presiding chairman may, without waiting for the interposition of any member of the Joint Board, call to order any member proceeding to speak a second time on the same question (unless entitled to reply), except in explanation, where he has been misrepresented or misunderstood, and without introducing any new matter.

15. The president or other presiding chairman shall stand up when addressing the Joint Board on any question.

General rules for the members of the Joint Board.

16. Any member desirous of proposing a motion or amendment, or of discussing any matter under consideration, must rise and address the president or other presiding chairman.

No member when speaking shall be interrupted, unless called to order, when he shall sit down, in which case the member calling to order shall be heard thereon in preference to any other speaker, and the question of order shall be disposed of before the subject is resumed or any other subject entered upon.

17. No person shall speak upon any motion or amendment for a longer period than fifteen minutes, unless by permission of the Joint Board.

18. Any member desirous of proposing either an original motion or amendment must state the nature of such motion or amendment before addressing the Joint Board in support thereof.

19. Any member making a motion or amendment shall put it in form, sign, and deliver it to the clerk, who shall add thereto the name of the seconder; and no motion or amendment shall be withdrawn without leave of the Joint Board.

20. No motion or amendment shall be entertained or discussed unless it be seconded. Any member may, however, require the enforcement of any standing order by simply noticing that such order is disobeyed.

21. A member who has made a motion may withdraw the same by leave of the Joint Board.

22. A motion which has been by leave of the Joint Board withdrawn may be made again during the same financial year.

23. A proposed amendment may be, by leave of the Joint Board, withdrawn.

24. Any member moving or seconding any motion or amendment shall be held to have spoken on the question.

25. The members in speaking shall designate each other by their respective title, as Mr. President or Boardman, as the case may be.

26. No member shall speak twice on the same question, except by way of explanation, or in reply upon any original motion of which he may be the mover, or as the mover of an amendment; and after the reply the amendment or the original motion, as the case may be, shall be immediately put to the vote.

27. One amendment only shall be discussed at one time, but if the first one moved is lost, another may be moved before the original question is put to the vote, but upon any amendment being carried it shall be competent for any member to move one other amendment thereon, but not more than three amendments shall be allowed.

28. Every member shall be at liberty to speak once on any amendment.

29. Upon the adoption of any amendment by the Joint Board, such amendment shall be held to have quashed the original motion, and for all purposes of subsequent discussion the amendment so carried shall be acted upon as an original motion.

30. Any member may require the question under discussion to be read for his information at any time during a debate, but not while any other member is speaking.

31. On the presentation of a petition no debate shall take place thereon until notice has been given in the usual manner, and the only question that shall be entertained on the occasion of its presentation shall be that the petition be received, and, if necessary, that it be referred to a committee, provided that every petition shall be received only as the petition of the party or parties whose signature it bears.

32. It shall be incumbent on any member presenting a petition to acquaint himself with the contents thereof, and to ascertain and report that it does not contain language disrespectful to the Joint Board.

33. Every boardman offering to present a petition to the Joint Board shall confine himself to a statement of the parties from whom it comes, of the number of signatures attached to it, of the material allegations contained in it, and to the reading of the prayer of such petition. It may also be read by the clerk if required.

34. The report from a committee may be agreed to or disagreed to by the Joint Board, or agreed to with amendments, or recommitted to the committee, or the further consideration thereof postponed.

35. In putting any question, no argument or opinion shall be offered, nor any facts stated, except as far as may be necessary to explain such question.

36. In answering any such question, a member of the Joint Board shall not debate the matter to which the same refers.

37. A debate may be adjourned to a later hour of the day, or to another day specified, and the member upon whose motion a debate is adjourned shall be entitled to pre-audience on resumption of the debate.

38. The Joint Board shall vote by show of hands, excepting in cases of elections, when the vote shall be by ballot; any member of the Joint Board may, however, call for a division upon any question, in which case the members voting shall remain in their places until their names be entered in the minutes of the proceedings by the clerk or person officiating for him.

39. No member shall digress from the subject-matter of the question under discussion, or impute improper motives to others; and all personal reflections upon any member shall be considered highly disorderly.

40. Any member who shall use any expressions capable of being applied offensively to any other member shall, if required by the chairman, withdraw such expressions, and make a satisfactory apology to the Joint Board.

41. When any member objects to words used in a debate, and shall desire them to be taken down, the chairman shall direct them to be taken down by the clerk accordingly.

42. Any member may of right require the production of any of the documents of the Joint Board relating to the question or matter under discussion.

43. No discussion shall be allowed on any motion for adjournment of the Joint Board, but if, on the question being put, the motion be negatived, the subject then under consideration, or, if no subject is under discussion, then the next subject on the notice-paper, shall be discussed, or any other that may be allowed precedence, before any subsequent motion for adjournment shall be entertained, but if the motion for adjournment be carried, the business then undisposed of shall have precedence at the next meeting of the Joint Board.

44. If at any time during the sitting of the Joint Board the quorum of members be not present, any member of the Board, or the clerk thereof, may call the attention of the chairman to the fact, who shall thereupon suspend the proceedings of the Joint Board for any time not exceeding thirty minutes, so as to allow a quorum to be present, or adjourn the Board to some future time.

45. Any member of the Joint Board may enter his protest against any resolution of the Joint Board, provided that such protest is not inconsistent with truth or disrespectful to the Joint Board. Notice of intention to protest must, however, in every case be given on the adoption of the resolution protested against, and the protest, signed by the member or members protesting, and specifying the reasons for protesting, must be entered before the next regular meeting of the Joint Board by the protesting member in a book to be kept for that purpose in the clerk's office, and be duly referred to in the minutes of the Joint Board, the same to be considered also part of such minutes; but such protest may be expunged from the minutes if declared by a majority of the Joint Board to be not in accordance with truth or in its terms disrespectful to the Joint Board.

Committees.

46. Every member intending to move for the appointment of a committee shall endeavour to ascertain previously whether each member proposed to be named by him on such committee will give his attendance thereupon.

47. The president, if a member of any of the permanent committees, shall preside, and if not a member, then such boardsmen shall preside as the majority of the members of the committee shall have appointed permanent chairman of the committee, or at any such meeting, in the absence of the president or permanent chairman respectively, such chairman as the members present shall appoint shall preside: provided, however, that when special committees are appointed for a merely temporary purpose, the member proposing such committee shall be the chairman thereof, except when the president is a member of such committee, in which case he shall be the chairman thereof; but if any member of any committee shall fail to attend three regular committee meetings without leave from the Joint Board he shall cease to be a member of such committee, and the Joint Board shall have power to appoint another member in his place.

48. The Joint Board may, for the consideration of any matter, resolve itself into a committee of the whole.

49. The standing orders of the Joint Board shall be observed in committee of the whole Board, except the rule limiting the number of times of speaking.

50. The finance committee shall be at liberty, without the expressed authority of the Joint Board, to authorise disbursements for current expenses, and for any sum passed by the Joint Board, and no matters of account shall be disposed of by the Joint Board until they have been examined and reported upon by the finance committee: provided, however, that in cases of emergency the president, with the consent in writing of any two boardsmen, may authorise the expenditure of any sums not exceeding ten pounds in all, but all such discretionary payments, whether by the finance committee or by the president, shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. With the above exceptions, no payments out of the funds of the Joint Local Authority shall be made but such as are authorised by a vote of the Joint Board.

51. All drafts upon the funds of the Joint Local Authority shall be signed by the president and one member of the Joint Board, and countersigned by the clerk.

52. The committee of works shall examine all accounts against the Joint Board relating to works, and certify the same previously to their being passed to the finance committee.

53. No public works involving an expenditure of more than ten pounds shall be undertaken until the committee of works have reported to the Joint Board an estimate of the cost thereof.

54. All matters which the Joint Board shall think fit to refer to a committee, and which do not fall within the province of any other standing committee, shall be referred to a special committee appointed for that particular purpose.

55. Every report of a committee shall be signed by the chairman thereof, and be fairly written so as to admit of being bound at convenient intervals, and such report shall be made to the Joint Board at the earliest opportunity.

56. The quorum of a committee shall consist of a majority of the whole number of such committee, or a moiety thereof when such whole number is even.

57. The appointment of special committees shall continue until the specific duty for which they are appointed shall have been discharged, provided that such committees may at any time be dissolved by vote of the Joint Board.

58. No business that has been referred by the Joint Board to the consideration and report of any of the permanent committees shall lapse in consequence of any change in the persons composing such committee, but every such committee shall be considered as a perpetual succession to the extent of the powers conferred upon it.

59. Any one or more of the standing orders, comprising clauses 1 to 10, may be suspended pro tempore, provided that a majority of the members present shall deem such suspension necessary or advisable.

BY-LAW No. 2.

Hours for cattle traffic.

1. No person being the owner of, or being the person in charge of or responsible for the same shall, unless by the permission of the president or any two members of the Board, drive or cause or permit to be driven upon or across, or cause or permit to enter upon, the bridges under the control of the Board, any unharnessed horses, or any cattle, sheep, or pigs, except between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 o'clock p.m.: Provided that horses, cattle, sheep, or pigs being driven for the purpose of being impounded are exempted from the operation of this clause.

Notice to be given.

2. Provided also that no person as aforesaid shall drive, or cause or permit to be driven, upon or across the said bridge at any one time a larger number than fifty head of horned cattle, and every such person as aforesaid shall give notice of his intention to cross or drive such horned cattle, horses, sheep, or pigs, to the clerk of the Board, a reasonable time beforehand.

BUNDABERG HOSPITAL.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Brisbane, 14th March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Hospitals Act of 1862," been pleased to approve of the following Rule No. 43, made by the contributors to the Bundaberg Hospital.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Hospitals Act of 1862" it is provided that the committee of any hospital established under the Acts 11 Vic. No. 59 and 13 Vic. No. 20 may frame Rules and Regulations for the election of trustees, treasurers, and other officers of such hospital, and for the general management thereof, and that such Rules and Regulations, when adopted by the duly qualified contributors to such hospital, approved by the Governor in Council, and published in the Government Gazette, shall have the force of law: It is hereby resolved by the duly qualified contributors to the Bundaberg Hospital, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following Rule shall be in force in the said hospital from the date of the publication hereof:—

43. No new permanent appointment under the Committee shall be made to any paid office until an advertisement has been published in one or more of the local newspapers, calling for applications from competent persons to fill such office. All such appointments shall be made by a majority of votes of the Committee of Management, and shall be made subject to the right of a majority of the Committee to terminate the same at one month's notice at any time.

The foregoing Rule, which was framed by the Committee of the Bundaberg Hospital, was adopted by the duly qualified contributors to such Hospital, at a public meeting duly convened, which was held on the twenty-eighth day of August, A.D. 1893.

No. 60.

THE Commandant also especially wishes to thank all those officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the Permanent Staff (as enumerated in General Order No. 48), as well as the Commanding Officers and Staffs of the Camps in the Central and Northern Districts, and the officers who performed various acting staff duties, for their unwearied exertions for the benefit of the troops, and for the loyal and valuable aid they gave to him.

He further wishes particularly to express his approval of the continuous hard work performed by "A" Battery, Permanent Force, who prepared the Lytton Camp, struck the same after it was over, and carried out the whole of the transport work with very scanty means, and without whose aid, owing to lack of funds, the Camp could not have been successfully held.

NOTICE.

SALE BY AUCTION OF CROWN LANDS IN LARGE PORTIONS.

IT is notified for public information, that, under the provisions of "The Special Sales of Land Act of 1891," Country Lands in the Colony of Queensland, distant not less than twenty miles from a navigable river or from a railway or from the surveyed line of a railway for the construction of which money has been raised by loan, may be offered for Sale by Auction, in portions not exceeding 5,120 acres. The upset price will in no case be less than 10s. per acre.

The time for payment may be extended to a period not exceeding three years, instalments payable later than six months from the date of sale bearing interest at five per cent. per annum.

Persons desirous of having Crown lands offered at auction are invited to apply to the Under Secretary for Public Lands, Brisbane, or any Crown Lands Commissioner.

ST. GEORGE HOSPITAL.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 4th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Hospitals Act of 1862," been pleased to approve of the following Rule No. 3, made by the contributors to the St. George Hospital.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Hospitals Act of 1862" it is provided that the committee of any hospital established under the Acts 11 Vic. No. 39 and 13 Vic. No. 20 may frame Rules and Regulations for the election of trustees, treasurer, and other officers of such hospital, and for the general management thereof, and that such Rules and Regulations, when adopted by the duly qualified contributors to such hospital, approved by the Governor in Council, and published in the Government Gazette, shall have the force of law: It is hereby resolved by the duly qualified contributors to the St. George Hospital, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following Rule shall be in force within the said hospital from the date of the publication hereof:—

22. Clause 3 of the Rules of the St. George Hospital, published in the Gazette dated 26th January, 1887, is hereby repealed, and the following clause is substituted therefor:—

Patients.

Patients shall be divided into two classes—free and paying; the latter, when leaving, to pay at the rate of two shillings and sixpence per diem or fifteen shillings per week. Patients, on presenting themselves for treatment, must produce a ticket in Form A, B, or C, hereunder, signed by a subscriber of not less than one pound or by a member of the board of management for the time being, which shall, subject to the approval of the medical officer, enable applicants to obtain the necessary medical assistance. Patients, according to their requirements, will either receive admission to the hospital or be attended daily in the hospital surgery as outdoor cases.

N.B.—The above rule shall not apply in cases of emergency.

FORM A.

To the Medical Officer of the St. George Hospital.

Please admit the bearer

I hereby certify that to the best of my knowledge is a proper object of charity, and that is neither able to pay for maintenance during stay in hospital nor in a position to obtain medical assistance outside.

FORM B.

To the Medical Officer of the St. George Hospital.

In consideration of your admitting the bearer into the St. George Hospital, I hereby promise to pay to the order of the St. George Hospital, on demand, the sum of sterling, payable at .

FORM C.

Ticket.

Please admit the bearer into the St. George Hospital as a paying patient, he having promised to pay while in the hospital at the rate of fifteen shillings per week or two and sixpence per diem.

(Signed) Subscriber.
(Signed) Patient.

The foregoing Rules, which were framed by the committee of the St. George Hospital, were duly adopted by the duly qualified contributors to such hospital on the sixth day of March, A.D. 1894, at a public meeting duly convened.

ALFRED BUSSON, Secretary.

ESK DIVISIONAL BOARD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 14th March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," been pleased to approve of the following By-law, No. 14, made by the Board of the Division of Esk.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887" the Board of any Division is empowered to make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Board of the Esk Division, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Division from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 14.

"Lantana" is hereby declared to be a noxious weed and a nuisance within the meaning of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887."

The foregoing By-law was passed by the Board of the Esk Division on the twenty-seventh day of June, 1893, at a special meeting called for that purpose. The said By-law was duly published, in accordance with "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," and was confirmed at a subsequent special meeting of the said Board on the twentieth day of February, 1894.

PATK. CLIFFORD, Chairman.

CLONCURRY DIVISIONAL BOARD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 21st March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," been pleased to approve of the enclosed By-law, No. 18, made by the Board of the Division of Cloncurry.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887" the Board of any Division is empowered to make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Board of the Cloncurry Division, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Division from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 18.

1. Within one month after notice has been given in writing by any officer of the Board, every owner, landlord, tenant, occupier, or occupiers of any house, warehouse, hotel, store, factory, or other tenement shall discontinue the use of any privy or cesspit, and shall cause the said privy or cesspit to be emptied and the excavation so used for the reception of nightsoil or other filth to be filled in with earth or other deodorising material, and any owner, landlord, tenant, occupier, or occupiers of the said premises who shall fail to discontinue the use of the said privy or cesspit, or other similar convenience of a like nature, and remove the contents thereof as aforesaid according to the notice to that effect, signed by the inspector of nuisances or other officer of the Board, shall, upon conviction, forfeit and pay for such neglect a sum not exceeding five pounds for each separate day's neglect thereof.

Closet-pans to be provided in lieu of cesspits.

2. When no cesspit constructed in accordance with this By-law exists, every owner, landlord, tenant, or occupier of any premises shall provide one or more closet-pans of square or circular form; if square, to be fourteen inches square and fifteen inches deep; if circular, to be fifteen inches in diameter and eighteen inches deep.

Closets to be properly constructed and furnished.

3. Every earth-closet shall be properly supplied with a box for the storage of dry earth, also a tin scoop for the distribution of same, and such box shall always contain sufficient earth or wood-ashes for daily use. Every closet shall be constructed with proper doors and other necessary requirements for securing decency, and shall be at all times in a fit condition for use, and the seats of all such closets shall be supplied with lids.

Details of construction of earth-closets.

4. The construction of dry earth closets shall be on the following general principle:—The building shall be substantially constructed, either of wood, iron, brick, or stone, or a combination of two or more of those materials. Sufficient room must be made underneath the seat to allow of the removal of the pans of the approved size, and without inconvenience; a door to be swung on hinges shall be provided to allow of pans being cleared. The floor underneath the seat shall be either of boards or concrete.

Unlicensed nightmen not permitted.

5. No person shall exercise the calling of a public nightman and scavenger within the Division of Cloncurry without first having obtained a license in that behalf as hereinafter provided.

Nightmen and scavengers' licenses.

6. The charge for a license for every public nightman, scavenger, or person engaged in removing nightsoil shall be one pound per annum, and every such license shall expire on the thirty-first day of December in each year, irrespective of the date of its issue, and every such license may be transferred with the approval of the chairman.

Payment of license fee and form of license.

7. The license fee must be paid to the clerk of the Board of the said Division or other officer acting for him, and such clerk or other officer aforesaid shall thereupon issue a license in the form of Schedule A hereto.

Inspection of drays and carts employed.

8. Every cart intended to be used by any public nightman or scavenger, who has been duly licensed in accordance with the last two preceding clauses, must be submitted for the inspection and approval of the inspector of nuisances, or other officer of the Board appointed in that behalf, and, if approved of, shall be licensed as a public night-cart or public scavenging cart as the case may be.

Pipes or drains from cesspits, &c., disallowed.

9. No person shall have or use any privy that shall have connected therewith or attached thereto any pipes or other appliances capable of being used for the purpose of discharging the contents of such privy upon or under the surface of any adjoining ground or into any stream, watercourse, public well, or dam, or other public water within the Division. Any person offending against the provision of this clause shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and each separate day during which the offence is continued shall constitute a separate offence.

Nightman damaging or misplacing closet-pans.

10. Any licensed nightman who shall negligently damage any closet-pan, or neglect to replace the same in its proper position (after having been emptied) in the closet from which the same was taken, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one pound.

Licenses may be suspended.

11. The license of any nightman or scavenger who is convicted of an offence against any of the provisions of this By-law may be suspended by the chairman and cancelled by the Board.

Removal of nightsoil.

12. The occupier, tenant, landlord, or owner of any premises to which earth-closets are attached shall cause the excrement and filth in such earth-closets to be removed by a licensed nightman once every three weeks, or oftener if required by the inspector of nuisances, and any person as aforesaid failing or neglecting to have such earth-closet cleared as directed by the inspector of nuisances or other officer of the Board shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and each day's neglect shall constitute a separate offence.

Disinfectants.

13. Every owner, landlord, tenant, occupier, or occupiers of any house, warehouse, hotel, store, factory, or other tenement within the Division of Cloncurry shall cause to be kept in each privy a disinfectant authorised by the Board or by any officer of the Board appointed in that behalf.

Offences of nightman against by-laws.

14. Any licensed nightman or scavenger failing to comply with any of the provisions of this By-law shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Hours for removal of nightsoil.

15. No licensed nightman shall empty any earth-closet, nor cause the same to be done, except between the hours of 11 o'clock p.m. and 6 o'clock a.m.

Fine for plying without license.

16. Any person exercising the calling of a nightman or scavenger without being duly licensed, or who shall, for the purpose of such calling, use other than a licensed cart, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Neglecting to pay nightmen's charges.

17. Any person having engaged or employed any licensed nightman or scavenger for the performance of any work under this By-law, and refusing or neglecting, after reasonable demand, to pay therefor, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Nightmen neglecting to comply with orders.

18. Any licensed nightman or scavenger who, being required to do any work for which he is licensed under this By-law, and who, after reasonable notice by the person so requiring him as aforesaid, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to do such work, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds; and every such nightman shall, upon tender of the legal charges for the emptying of any privy, proceed and perform the said work with all reasonable despatch and in accordance with this By-law.

Depositing filth in other than proper depot.

19. No person shall, within the Division of Cloncurry, use or cause to be used any sewage, soil, or human excrement for agricultural or horticultural purposes without the express sanction of the Board so to do, first had and obtained in writing, and then only under the supervision and subject to the approval of the inspector of nuisances or other officer of the Board appointed in that behalf.

Penalty for nightman exceeding authorised charges.

20. Any licensed nightman who shall demand, receive, or take in payment for any work performed by himself or his men more than the respective amounts authorised by this By-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalties where no specific penalty fixed.

21. For every neglect, breach, or offence of or against any of the provisions of this By-law, where no specific penalty is provided for such neglect, breach, or offence, the maximum penalty shall be five pounds.

Yards and premises to be kept clean.

22. Every occupier, or in case there is no occupier, then the landlord or owner of any house, warehouse, hotel, store or factory, or other tenement, premises, or place, shall keep the same and any ground belonging thereto in a clean and healthy condition, and shall not suffer any filth, rubbish, or refuse of any kind whatsoever to be scattered about his yard or ground.

Scale of charges.

23. The scale of charges for emptying night-pans shall not exceed the sum of one shilling and sixpence per pan for each and every time such pan is emptied.

SCHEDULE A.Form of public nightman or scavenger's license.

Cloncurry Division.

No. _____, of _____ street, Cloncurry, is licensed to exercise and perform all and any of the duties of a public nightman and scavenger, under the authority of the By-laws in force or that may be from time to time in force within the Division of Cloncurry. This license to be in force until the thirty-first day of December, 189____.

_____, Clerk.

_____, Chairman.

The foregoing By-laws were passed by the Board of the Cloncurry Division on the eighth day of August, 1893, at a special meeting called for that purpose. The said By-laws were duly published in accordance with "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," and were confirmed at a subsequent special meeting of the said Board on the fourteenth day of February, A.D. 1894.

GRANT B. CHAPMAN, Chairman.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Brisbane, 19th March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," been pleased to approve of the following By-law, No. 12, made by the Board of the Division of Yeerongpilly.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887" it is provided that the Board of any Division may make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Board of the Division of Yeerongpilly, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Division from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 12.

NUISANCES.

Any person who creates or commits a nuisance upon a road or other public place, and any person who pollutes any stream, watercourse, public well, or dam, or other public water, within or bounding the Division, by—

- (1) Depositing thereon or casting therein the carcass of a dead animal, or any refuse or offensive matter whatever;
- (2) Causing or permitting the drainage from a sewer, slaughter-house, closet, or stable to discharge thereon or therein;
- (3) Depositing, without burying or destroying by fire, on any vacant land or in any paddock any dead animal or any matter which by decomposition may cause a nuisance or may cause the pollution of any watercourse or public water; shall be liable to a penalty of five pounds for each offence, and to a further penalty of two pounds for every day during which such nuisance or pollution continues.

The foregoing By-law was passed by the Board of the Division of Yeerongpilly at a special meeting called for that purpose and held on the twenty-first day of November, 1893. The said By-law was duly published in accordance with section 182 of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," and was confirmed at a subsequent special meeting of the said Board on the sixteenth day of January, 1894.

JOHN MOFFATT, Chairman.

MUNICIPALITY OF COOKTOWN.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Brisbane, 14th March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Local Government Act of 1878," "The Local Government Act Amendment Act of 1886," "The Health Act of 1884," and "The Health Act Amendment Act of 1886," been pleased to approve of the following By-law, No. 19, made by the Council of the Municipality of Cooktown.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Local Government Act of 1878," "The Local Government Act Amendment Act of 1886," "The Health Act of 1884," and "The Health Act Amendment Act of 1886," Councils of Municipalities are empowered to make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Acts mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Council of the Municipality of Cooktown, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Municipality from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 19.

Nightmen to be employed for the removal of earth-closet contents.

1. The occupier, tenant, landlord, or owner of all premises to which an earth-closet is attached shall cause the excrement and filth in such earth-closet to be removed by a licensed nightman once a week, or oftener if it shall be necessary, or as directed by the inspector of nuisances, and any person as aforesaid failing or neglecting to have such earth-closet cleaned as herein directed, or directed by the inspector of nuisances as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty in any sum not exceeding five pounds, and each day's neglect shall constitute a separate offence.

Owners of carts for removal of nightsoil to be licensed.

2. No owner or other person shall use or drive any cart, dray, or other vehicle for the removal of nightsoil until and unless the owner or owners of such cart, dray, or other vehicle has or have been duly licensed.

The Council may refuse to grant any license from any cause whatsoever as to them may seem fit.

The license of any nightman or owner of a licensed night-cart may be suspended by the mayor on complaint of improper conduct, or of two or more breaches of this By-law, notice in writing being given to such nightman or owner to show cause why such license should not be absolutely cancelled.

Night-carts to be closely covered and watertight.

3. No person shall use or drive any such cart or vehicle as in the preceding clause mentioned unless the same shall be at all times perfectly watertight and closely covered, and is in the opinion of the inspector of nuisances fit for the purpose aforesaid.

Only persons licensed to remove offensive matter.

4. No person or persons other than those duly licensed for that purpose by the Municipal Council shall remove by cart or vehicle any human excrement or other offensive matter from any privy, closet, or house.

Nightman not to take payment in excess of regulated charges.

5. No licensed nightman shall demand, receive, or take, in payment for work performed by him, more than the several amounts in the scale of charges shown in clause 10 of By-law No. 3, published in the Government Gazette dated 11th September, 1890.

Refusing to pay nightman's charges.

6. Any person having engaged or employed any licensed nightman for the performance of any work under this By-law, and refusing or neglecting after reasonable demand to pay therefor, shall, on conviction before any two justices, forfeit and pay to such nightman such sum for such work, together with such sum for costs and expenses for loss of time or otherwise, as the said justices shall in their discretion determine.

Nightman neglecting to perform work.

7. Any licensed nightman having been employed to do any work for which he is licensed under this By-law, and having agreed to do the same, and who shall fail, neglect, or refuse to do such work, shall, on conviction before any two justices, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each offence, and every such nightman shall, upon tender of the legal charges for emptying any privy, cesspit, or closet, proceed and perform the work with all reasonable despatch, and in accordance with this By-law.

8. This By-law shall be read and construed with and as an amendment of By-law No. 3 of the Municipality of Cooktown, published in the Government Gazette dated 11th September, 1890.

Penalties.

9. For every neglect, breach, or offence of or against any of the provisions of this By-law where no specific penalty is provided for such neglect, breach, or offence, the maximum penalty shall be five pounds.

Certificate.

The foregoing By-law was passed by special order of the Council of the Municipality of Cooktown on the fourteenth day of December, 1893. The said By-law was duly published in accordance with "The Local Government Act of 1878," and was confirmed on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1893.

JNO. LEQUIRE ADAMS, Mayor.
GEORGE WEISS, Alderman.

M. A. LYONS, Town Clerk.

BARCOO DIVISIONAL BOARD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 21st March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," been pleased to approve of the following By-law, No. 5, made by the Board of the Division of Barcoo.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887" it is provided that any Divisional Board may make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Board of the Division of Barcoo, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Division from the date of publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 5.

REPEAL OF CLAUSE 1, BY-LAW No. 3.

Clause 1, By-law No. 3, published in the Government Gazette dated 27th April, 1893, is hereby repealed, and the following clause is substituted therefor:—

Goats.

All goats kept within this Division shall be registered at the Board's office on or before the first day of October in each year. A fee of one shilling shall be charged for the registration of every goat other than entire goats, the fee for which shall be ten shillings.

The foregoing By-law was passed by the Board of the Division of Barcoo at a special meeting called for that purpose, and held on the first day of January, 1894. The said By-law was published in accordance with the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," and was confirmed at a subsequent special meeting held on the twenty-second day of February, 1894.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

VOL. LXI.]

SATURDAY, 14TH APRIL, 1894.

[No. 76.]

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the following Despatch and Enclosure received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Chief Secretary's Office, Brisbane, 10th April, 1894.

HUGH M. NELSON.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to THE GOVERNOR OF QUEENSLAND.

Downing street, 12th February, 1894.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the 29th of January, 1894, for giving effect to the Treaty between Her Majesty and the President of the Argentine Republic, for the mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, signed at Buenos Ayres on the 22nd of May, 1889, the ratifications of which were exchanged at Buenos Ayres on the 15th of December, 1893.

RIPON.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC EXTRADITION.

OSBORNE HOUSE, ISLE OF WIGHT, 29TH JANUARY, 1894.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the twenty-ninth day of January, 1894.

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Steward,
Sir William Vernon Harcourt,
Sir Henry Ponsonby,

Sir John Cowell,
Sir Philip Currie.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer:

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1886, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provision of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the twenty-second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, between Her Majesty and The President of the Argentine Republic, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Excellency the President of the Argentine Republic, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes or offences hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty (that is to say):

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Her Chargé d'Affaires ad interim Mr. George Jenner;

Juzgando conveniente Su Majestad la Reina del Reino Unido de la Gran Bretaña e Irlanda, y su Excelencia el Presidente de la República Argentina, á objeto de una mejor administracion de justicia y de impedir la perpetracion de crímenes dentro de los dos paises y sus jurisdicciones, que los individuos acusados ó convictos de los crímenes ó delitos mas adelante enumerados, y que hayan huido de la justicia, sean reciprocamente entregados en ciertas circunstancias, han nombrado sus Plenipotenciarios para concluir un Tratado, á saber:

Su Majestad la Reina del Reino Unido de la Gran Bretaña e Irlanda á su Encargado Interino de Negocios en la República, Señor Jorge Jenner;

And His Excellency the President of the Argentine Republic, His Excellency Doctor Don Norberto Quirno Costa, Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective Full Powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other, under certain circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty, those persons who, being accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences enumerated in Article II., committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party.

ARTICLE II.

Extradition shall be reciprocally granted for the following crimes or offences:—

1. Murder (including assassination, parricide, infanticide, poisoning), or attempt or conspiracy to murder.

2. Manslaughter.

3. Administering drugs or using instruments with intent to procure the miscarriage of women.

4. Rape.

5. Carnal knowledge or any attempt to have carnal knowledge of a girl under 16 years of age, if the evidence produced justifies committal for those crimes according to the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

6. Indecent assault.

7. Kidnapping and false imprisonment, child-stealing.

8. Abduction.

9. Bigamy.

10. Maliciously wounding or inflicting grievous bodily harm.

11. Assault occasioning actual bodily harm.

12. Threats by letter or otherwise, with intent to extort money or other things of value.

13. Perjury or subornation of perjury.

14. Arson.

15. Burglary or housebreaking, robbery with violence, larceny, or embezzlement.

16. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, director, member, or public officer of any Company, punishable with imprisonment for not less than one year by any law for the time being in force.

17. Obtaining money, valuable security, or goods by false pretences; receiving any money, valuable security, or other property, knowing the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, the value thereof exceeding 1,000 dollars, or £200 sterling.

18. (a.) Counterfeiting or altering money, or bringing into circulation counterfeited or altered money.

(b.) Knowingly making, without lawful authority, any instrument, tool, or engine adapted and intended for the counterfeiting of the coin of the realm.

(c.) Forgery, or uttering what is forged.

19. Crimes against bankruptcy law.

20. Any malicious act done with intent to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being upon a railway.

21. Malicious injury to property, if such offence be indictable.

22. Piracy and other crimes or offences committed at sea against persons or things which, according to the laws of the High Contracting Parties, are extradition offences, and are punishable by more than one year's imprisonment.

23. Dealing in slaves in such manner as to constitute a criminal offence against the laws of both States.

The extradition is also to be granted for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both Contracting Parties.

Extradition may also be granted at the discretion of the State applied to in respect of any other crime for which, according to the laws of both the Contracting Parties for the time being in force, the grant can be made.

ARTICLE III.

Either Government reserves the right to refuse or grant the surrender of its own subjects or citizens to the other Government.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of Her Majesty's Government, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of the Argentine Republic, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial in the territory of the Argentine Republic or in the United Kingdom respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

Y Su Excelencia el Presidente de la República Argentina, á su Ministro Secretario de Estado en el Departamento de Relaciones Exteriores, Doctor Don Norberto Quirno Costa;

Los cuales, despues de haberse comunicado sus respectivos Plenos Poderes, hallados en buena y debida forma, han convenido y concluido los Artículos siguientes:—

ARTICULO I.

Les Altas Partes Contratantes se comprometen á entregarse reciprocamente, en las circunstancias y condiciones expuestas en el presente Tratado, aquellas personas que, acusadas ó convictas de cualquiera de los crímenes ó delitos enumerados en el Artículo II., cometidos en el territorio de una de las Partes, fueran halladas dentro del territorio de la otra.

ARTICULO II.

La extradición se concederá reciprocamente por los siguientes crímenes ó delitos:—

1. Asesinato (incluso el asesinato con violencia, parricidio, infanticidio, ó envenenamiento), ó la tentativa ó conspiracion para asesinar.

2. Homicidio.

3. La administracion de drogas ó el empleo de instrumentos con el proposito de procurar el aborto.

4. Estupro.

5. Conocimiento carnal ó las tentativas de tenerlo con una niña menor de diez y seis años, siempre que el testimonio aducido justifique el enjuiciamiento por esos crímenes, segun las leyes de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes.

6. Atentado contra el pudor.

7. Robo y secuestro de un ser humano, sustraccion de niño.

8. Rapto.

9. Bigamia.

10. Lesiones ó daño corporal grave hecho intencionalmente.

11. Ataque á las personas del que resulte grave daño corporal.

12. Amenazas, ya sea por medio de cartas ó de otra manera, con la intencion de sacar dinero ú otros objetos de valor.

13. Perjurio ó tentativas de conseguirlo.

14. Incendio voluntario.

15. Robo, ú otros crímenes ó sus tentativas cometidas con fractura, robo con violencia, hurto y malversacion de valores publicos ó particulares.

16. Fraude cometido por un depositario, banquero, agente, comisionado, fideicomisario, director, miembro ó empleado publico de qualquiera Compania, siempre que sea considerado como crimen con pena no menor de un año por una ley que esté en vigor.

17. El obtener dinero, garantias de valor, ó mercaderias con pretextos falsos; recibir dinero, garantias de valor ú otros bienes, sabiendo que han sido robados ó habidos indebidamente, y excedido su valor de mil pesos ó 200£. (doscientas).

18.—(a.) Falsificacion ó alteracion de moneda, circulacion de moneda falsificada ó alterada.

(b.) Fabricacion á sabiendas y sin autorizacion legal de cualquier instrumento, herramienta, ó aparato adaptado y destinado á la falsificacion de la moneda nacional.

(c.) Falsificacion ó alteracion de firmas ó valores, ó circulacion de lo falsificado ó alterado.

19. Crímenes contra las leyes de bancarrota.

20. Cualquier acto hecho con intencion criminal, y que tenga por objeto poner en peligro la seguridad de una persona que se encuentre viajando en un ferro-carril, ó que se halle en él.

21. Daño hecho con intencion criminal á la propiedad, siempre que la ofensa sea procesable.

22. Pirateria, y otros crímenes ó delitos cometidos en el mar sobre las personas ó sobre las cosas, y que, segun las leyes respectivas de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes, sean delitos de extradición y tengan mas de un año de pena.

23. Trata de esclavos, de manera tal que constituya una ofensa criminal contra las leyes de ambos Estados.

Debe tambien concederse la extradición por la participacion en cualesquiera de los precitados crímenes, siempre que esa participacion sea punible por las leyes de ambas Partes Contratantes.

Puede tambien concederse la extradición segun lo juzgue conveniente el Estado al que se hiciere el pedido con motivo de cualquier otro crimen que, segun las leyes que esten vigentes á la sazón, dé lugar á ella.

ARTICULO III.

Cada una de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes se reserva el derecho de negar ó conceder la entrega de sus propios súbditos ó ciudadanos.

ARTICULO IV.

La extradición no tendrá lugar si el individuo reclamado por el Gobierno de Su Majestad, ó el individuo reclamado por el Gobierno de la República Argentina, ya hubiese sido enjuiciado y puesto en libertad ó castigado, ó continuará procesado en el territorio de la República Argentina ó en el Reino Unido respectivamente, por el crimen por el que se demande su extradición.

If the person claimed on the part of Her Majesty's Government, or on the part of the Government of the Argentine Republic, should be under examination for any other crime in the territory of the Argentine Republic or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applying or applied to.

It shall likewise not take place when, according to the laws of either country, the maximum punishment for the offence is imprisonment for less than one year.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matters, than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored, or has had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered. This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

ARTICLE X.

A fugitive criminal may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings, as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction: provided, however, that in the United Kingdom the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in the Argentine Republic as in the United Kingdom, if within the term of thirty days a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent of his country in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty. The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE XI.

The extradition shall take place only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the same State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to; and no criminal shall be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his committal to prison to await the warrant for his surrender.

ARTICLE XII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions

Si el individuo reclamado por el Gobierno de Su Majestad ó por el Gobierno de la República Argentina, estuviera detenido por cualquier otro crimen en el territorio de la República Argentina ó en el Reino Unido respectivamente, su extradición será aplazada hasta la terminación del juicio y la completa ejecución del castigo que le fué impuesto.

ARTICULO V.

La extradición no tendrá lugar si, despues de cometido el crimen ó de instituida la acusación criminal ó de condenado el reo, surgiera la prescripción, segun las leyes del Estado requeriente ó requerido.

No tendrá igualmente lugar cuando, segun las leyes de cada país, la mas alta pena del delito sea menor de un año de prisión.

ARTICULO VI.

Un criminal fugado no será entregado si el delito por el cual se solicita su extradición es de carácter político, ó si dicho criminal probase que el pedido de extradición se ha hecho en realidad con la mira de enjuiciarlo ó castigarlo por un delito de carácter político.

ARTICULO VII.

Un individuo entregado no puede en caso alguno ser detenido ni enjuiciado en el Estado al que se haga la entrega, por otro crimen ó por otros asuntos que no sean aquellos que hayan motivado la extradición, hasta tanto haya sido devuelto, ó haya tenido una oportunidad de regresar al Estado que lo entregare. Esta estipulación no se aplica á crímenes cometidos despues de la extradición.

ARTICULO VIII.

La requisitoria de la extradición se hará por los Agentes Diplomáticos de las Altas Partes Contratantes respectivamente.

La requisitoria para la extradición de un individuo acusado ha de ser acompañada de orden de prisión, dada por autoridad competente del Estado que requiera la extradición, y de aquellas pruebas que, segun las leyes del lugar donde sea hallado el acusado, justificarian su prisión si el crimen hubiese sido cometido allí.

Si la requisitoria se relaciona con persona ya condenada, deberá venir acompañada, de la sentencia condenatoria dictada contra la persona condenada por el Tribunal competente del Estado que haga la requisitoria para la extradición.

Una sentencia dictada en rebeldía no ha de reputarse condenatoria; pero á una persona así sentenciada puede tratarse como á persona acusada.

ARTICULO IX.

Si la requisitoria para la extradición está de acuerdo con las precedentes estipulaciones, las autoridades competentes del Estado requerido procederán á la prisión del fugitivo.

ARTICULO X.

Puede aprehenderse á un criminal fugitivo en virtud de un mandato de prisión, dictado por cualquier Juez de Instrucción ó de Paz, ú otra autoridad competente en cualquiera de los dos países, mediante aquellas pruebas, informes ó denuncias, y aquellos procedimientos, que en la opinion de la autoridad que dé el mandato justificarian análogo mandato si el crimen se hubiera cometido ó la persona hubiera sido condenada en aquella parte de los dominios de las dos Partes Contratantes donde ejerza jurisdicción el Juez de Instrucción ó de Paz, ú otra autoridad competente: bajo la condicion, sin embargo, que en el Reino Unido el acusado ha de ser remitido, en tal caso, á la mayor brevedad, á Londres, á disposicion de algun Juez de Instrucción. De conformidad con este Artículo, el acusado será puesto en libertad tanto en la República Argentina como en el Reino Unido, si dentro del plazo de treinta dias no hubiera hecho una requisitoria para la extradición el Agente Diplomático de su país de acuerdo con las estipulaciones de este Tratado. La misma regla se aplicará á los casos de personas acusadas ó condenadas por cualquiera de los crímenes ó delitos especificados en el presente Tratado, y que se hubieran cometido en alta mar abordo de un buque de cualquiera de los dos países que entrase en un puerto del otro.

ARTICULO XI.

Solo tendrá lugar la extradición, en el caso de hallarse suficiente el testimonio, segun las leyes del país requerido, ya sea para justificar el enjuiciamiento en el caso de que se hubiera cometido el crimen en el territorio del mismo Estado, ya sea para comprobar la identidad del preso como la persona condenada por los Tribunales del Estado que hace la requisitoria, y que el crimen por el que se le haya condenado es de aquellos con motivo de los cuales podria, en la época de dicha condenación, haberse concedido la extradición por el Estado requerido; y ningun criminal será entregado hasta despues de pasados quince dias, contados desde la fecha de su encarcelación á esperar la orden para su entrega.

ARTICULO XII.

En los exámenes que deben practicar de conformidad con las precedentes estipulaciones, las autoridades del Estado requerido aceptarán como testimonio válido las deposiciones or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating, the fact of a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State.

2. Depositions, or affirmations, or the copies thereof, must purport to be certified under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State, to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require.

3. A certificate of, or judicial document stating, the fact of a conviction must purport to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State.

4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of the other State; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law of the country where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery of such articles, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XVI.

All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws for the time being in force in such Colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the Chief Consular Officer of the Argentine Republic in such Colony or possession.

Such requisition may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Argentine criminals who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties by a notice not exceeding one year, and not less than six months.

The Treaty, after receiving the approval of the Congress of the Argentine Republic, shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Buenos Ayres as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Buenos Ayres, on the twenty-second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

juramentadas ó las declaraciones de testigos tomadas en el otro Estado, ó copia de ellas, y tambien las ordenes de prision y sentencias allí dictadas y certificados del hecho de una condena ó documentos judiciales que le declaren, con tal que esten autenticados como sigue:—

1. Una orden de prision debe parecer firmada por algun Juez, Magistrado, ó empleado del otro Estado.

2. Las deposiciones ó afirmaciones, ó las copias de estas, deben demostrar que certifican, mediante la firma de algun Juez, Magistrado, ó empleado del otro Estado, ser las deposiciones ó afirmaciones originales, ó copias fieles de ellas, segun lo requiera el caso.

3. Un certificado del hecho de una condena ó documento judicial que la declare, debe demostrar que está otorgada por algun Juez, Magistrado, ó empleado del otro Estado.

4. En todos los casos dicha orden, deposicion, afirmacion, copia, certificado, ó documento judicial debe autenticarse, ya sea mediante juramento de algun testigo, ya sea mediante el sello oficial del Ministro de Justicia, ó de algun otro Ministro del otro Estado; pero cualquiera otro manera de autenticar que esté permitida á la sazón por la ley del país donde se practique el exámen, puede sustituirse á las precedentes.

ARTICULO XIII.

Si el individuo reclamado por una de las Altas Partes Contratantes conforme al presente Tratado tambien lo fuera por otra ú otras Potencias con motivo de otros crímenes ó delitos cometidos en sus respectivos territorios, se concederá la extradición al Estado cuya requisición fuere de fecha mas antigua.

ARTICULO XIV.

Si no se exhibiera testimonio bastante para la extradición dentro de los dos meses despues de la fecha en que se aprehendió al fugitivo, ó dentro del nuevo plazo que designe el Estado requerido ó el correspondiente Tribunal del mismo, el fugitivo será puesto en libertad.

ARTICULO XV.

Todo objeto que esté en posesion del individuo que haya de entregarse y que se le tome al tiempo de aprehenderlo, será entregado al efectuarse la extradición si la autoridad competente del Estado requerido para la extradición ha ordenado la entrega de dichos objetos; y dicha entrega se hará extensiva no solo á los objetos robados, sino á cualquier otro que pueda servir de comprobante del crimen.

ARTICULO XVI.

Todos los gastos conexos á la extradición estarán á cargo del Estado que la requiera.

ARTICULO XVII.

Las estipulaciones del presente Tratado se aplicarán á las Colonias y posesiones exteriores de Su Majestad Británica, en cuanto lo permitan las leyes que esten á la sazón en vigor en dichas Colonias y posesiones exteriores.

La requisitoria para la entrega de un criminal fugitivo, refugiado en alguna de dichas Colonias ó posesiones exteriores, será hecha al Gobernador ó autoridad principal de dicha Colonia ó posesion por el Agente principal Consular de la República Argentina en dicha Colonia ó posesion.

Conocerá de dicha requisitoria (sugetándose siempre, en cuanto le sea dado y en cuanto lo permitan las leyes de dicha Colonia ó posesion exterior, á las prescripciones de este Tratado) dicho Gobernador ó autoridad principal, el cual tendrá, sin embargo, la facultad ó bien de conceder la entrega ó de referir el asunto á su Gobierno.

Su Majestad Británica tendrá, no obstante, la facultad de hacer arreglos especiales en las Colonias y posesiones exteriores Británicas para la entrega de criminales Argentinos que se refugien en dichas Colonias y posesiones exteriores, sobre la base, en cuanto lo permita la ley de dicha Colonia ó posesion exterior, de las estipulaciones del presente Tratado.

Las requisitorias para la entrega de un criminal fugitivo que emanen de alguna Colonia ó posesion exterior de Su Majestad Británica serán regidas por las reglas sentadas en los precedentes Artículos del presente Tratado.

ARTICULO XVIII.

El presente Tratado entrará en vigor diez dias de publicado conforme á las formas prescritas por las leyes de las Altas Partes Contratantes.

Podrá darlo por terminado cualquiera de las Altas Partes Contratantes, previo aviso que no pase de un año y no baje de seis meses.

El Tratado, despues de aprobado por el Congreso de la República Argentina, será ratificado, y las ratificaciones serán cangeadas en Buenos Aires á la posible brevedad.

En fé de lo cual los respectivos Plenipotenciarios lo han firmado, y le han puesto el sello de sus armas.

Hecho en Buenos Aires, á los veintidos dias del mes de Mayo de mil ocho cientos ochento y nueve.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Buenos Ayres on the fifteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the Argentine Republic and of the said Treaty with the Argentine Republic.

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that the operation of the said Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, shall be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so far as relates to the Argentine Republic and to the said Treaty, and so long as the provisions of the Canadian Act aforesaid of 1886 continue in force, and no longer.

C. L. PEEL.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, Brisbane, the fourth day of April, 1894.

Present:

His Excellency the Governor

The Vice-President	Mr. A. J. Thynne
Mr. Attorney-General	The Secretary for Public Lands and Agriculture
The Postmaster-General and Secretary for Public Instruction	The Secretary for Mines and Secretary for Public Works.

WHEREAS by "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1886," it is amongst other things enacted that with respect to land which it is practicable to divide into lots without actual survey, and to indicate the position of such lots by means of maps or plans and by reference to known or marked boundaries or starting points, the Governor in Council, on the recommendation of the Land Board, may at any time suspend the operation of so much of the 43rd section of the Principal Act as requires the land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection, and may require the Surveyor-General to divide the land into lots, and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans:

And whereas it is practicable to divide the land described in the Schedule hereto into lots without actual survey, and to indicate the position of such lots by means of maps or plans and by reference to known or marked boundaries or starting points: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, on the recommendation of the Land Board, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in him by the said Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of the said Principal Act as requires the land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection be suspended with respect to the land described in the said Schedule: And the Surveyor-General is hereby required to divide the said land into lots, and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans.

And the Honourable the Secretary for Public Lands is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. V. DRURY, Clerk of the Council.

THE SCHEDULE.

The Crown lands within the following Land Agents' Districts:—

District.	Locality.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At Government House, Brisbane, the eleventh day of April, 1894.

Present:

His Excellency the Governor

The Vice-President	Mr. A. J. Thynne
Mr. Attorney-General	The Secretary for Public Lands and Agriculture
The Postmaster-General and Secretary for Public Instruction	The Secretary for Mines and Secretary for Public Works.

WHEREAS by "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1886," it is amongst other things enacted that with respect to land which it is practicable to divide into lots without actual survey, and to indicate the position of such lots by means of maps or plans and by reference to known or marked boundaries or starting points, the Governor in Council, on the recommendation of the Land Board, may at any time suspend the operation of so much of the 43rd section of the Principal Act as requires the land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection, and may require the Surveyor-General to divide the land into lots, and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans:

And whereas it is practicable to divide the land described in the Schedule hereto into lots without actual survey, and to indicate the position of such lots by means of maps or plans and by reference to known or marked boundaries or starting points: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, on the recommendation of the Land Board, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in him by the said Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of the said Principal Act as requires the land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection be suspended with respect to the land described in the said Schedule: And the Surveyor-General is hereby required to divide the said land into lots, and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans.

And the Honourable the Secretary for Public Lands is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. V. DRURY, Clerk of the Council.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the fifth day of June, 1889, I did, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Land Board, order that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884" as requires land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection should be suspended with respect to the Country Land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Surveyor-General was, by the said Order in Council, required to divide the said land into lots and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans: And whereas the Surveyor-General has accordingly divided the said land into the lots specified in the said Schedule, and has indicated the position thereof on proper maps or plans: Now, therefore, in pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," and "The Mineral Lands (Sales) Act of 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the said lands specified in the said Schedule hereto, being situated in the INGLEWOOD Land Agent's District, shall be open both for CONDITIONAL and UNCONDITIONAL Selection, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the FOURTH day of JUNE, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said lands shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be 1,280 acres.

Provided always and I do hereby further declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person within Agricultural Area No. 5, in the said District, shall be 320 acres.

And for the purposes of this limitation, I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, further declare the said Agricultural Area No. 5 to be a District for the purposes of the said Acts; but so that for administrative and other purposes it shall nevertheless form part of the said Inglewood Land Agent's District.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this eleventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

NOTICE.

SALE BY AUCTION OF CROWN LANDS IN LARGE PORTIONS.

IT is notified for public information, that, under the provisions of "The Special Sales of Land Act of 1891," Country Lands in the Colony of Queensland, distant not less than twenty miles from a navigable river or from a railway or from the surveyed line of a railway for the construction of which money has been raised by loan, may be offered for Sale by Auction, in portions not exceeding 5,120 acres. The upset price will in no case be less than 10s. per acre.

The time for payment may be extended to a period not exceeding three years, instalments payable later than six months from the date of sale bearing interest at five per cent. per annum.

Persons desirous of having Crown lands offered at auction are invited to apply to the Under Secretary for Public Lands, Brisbane, or any Crown Lands Commissioner.

A. H. BARLOW,
Secretary for Public Lands.

Department of Public Lands,
Brisbane, 1st November, 1889.

EXHIBITION OF MAPS SHOWING LANDS OPEN TO SELECTION.

INTENDING Selectors are informed that Maps of all the Districts of the Colony, showing all land open for Selection, both as Agricultural and Grazing Farms, are now ready for public exhibition in the Map-room in the Brisbane Lands Office.

Maps of the following Districts are on view in their respective Offices, viz.:—Aramac, Banana, Beenleigh, Blackall, Bowen, Brisbane, Bundaberg, Cairns, Charleville, Charters Towers, Clermont, Cooktown, Cunnamulla, Dalby, Gayndah, Gladstone, Goondiwindi, Gympie, Herberton, Hughenden, Ingham, Inglewood, Ipswich, Isisford, Mackay, Maryborough, Mourilyan, Nanango, Normanton, Port Douglas, Ravenswood, Rockhampton, Roma, Springsure, St. George, St. Lawrence, Stanthorpe, Tambo, Taroom, Tenningering, Thargomindah, Toowoomba, and Warwick.

Arrangements have been made by which the Maps at the Head Office in Brisbane are charted up each day, so as to show all land actually open for Selection in each District of the Colony.

Railway Department, Brisbane, 11th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to approve of the following Regulation, having reference to the Travelling Allowances to Officers and other Employees in the Railway Department.

HUGH M. NELSON,
Secretary for Railways.

Office of the Railway Commissioners,
Brisbane, 10th April, 1894.

THE following Scale of Travelling Allowances to Officers and Employees of the Railway Staff shall take effect as from the 1st May, 1894; coach and steamer fares being paid by the Department in addition thereto:—

	When travelling by Land.		When travelling by Water, per diem.
	For each complete Day and Night.	For broken portions of a Day and Night.
The Commissioners' Secretary	1 1 0	...	Actual expenses.
The Chief Engineer
The General Traffic Manager
The Locomotive Engineer
The General Storekeeper
The District Engineers	0 12 6	{ When an officer can conveniently return to his usual place of resi- dence on the same day, actual travelling expenses only will be allowed, not exceeding the above scale in any case, nor exceeding one-fourth the scale for a meal or bed	4s. 6d.
The District Traffic Managers
The District Locomotive Superintendents
The Superintendents of Maintenance
The Station Auditors
Surveyors (when no stated allowance has been fixed, or when travelling outside their own districts)	0 10 0	...	2s. 6d.
The Inspector of Railway Telegraphs
The Locomotive Engineer's Inspector
The General Traffic Manager's Inspector
The Stationmasters in Charge
The Locomotive Foremen
The Draftsmen and Photographers
The District Superintendents of Maintenance (S. and W. R.) ...

Travelling Inspectors (Maintenance, Locomotive, and Traffic), whose duties are principally performed whilst travelling by train, will not be paid expenses unless compelled to sleep away from home, when they will be allowed seven shillings and sixpence per night.

Relieving Stationmasters will receive seven shillings and sixpence per diem for one week, but if more than one week at one place at the rate of thirty shillings per week.

Other officers whose duties require them to reside at a distance from their homes for a period not exceeding two weeks, will be entitled to draw the allowances as shown in the Schedule above. When residence away from home for a longer period is necessary, half the above allowances will be made up to six weeks, but when continuous residence away from home is required for longer than six weeks, then a special reduced allowance is in every case to be recommended by the head of the branch, and submitted for the approval of the Commissioners.

The amount of travelling expenses of any employee, not included in the above list, shall be such as may be allowed by the Commissioners, on the recommendation of the head of his department, full reference to authority being given on each voucher for the information of the Commissioners.

In addition to the foregoing the Regulations dated 21st June, 1893, provide for the payment of night allowances to guards, drivers, and others.

Heads of Branches should carefully examine all accounts for travelling expenses, and, before certifying thereto, should assure themselves that the travelling was necessary, that the time occupied was only such as was required to properly perform the duties upon which the officer was engaged, that the scale of rates is not exceeded, and that the claims made are fair and reasonable.

ALBERT PREWETT, Secretary.

The Treasury,
Brisbane, 10th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Marine Board, has been pleased to make the following Regulation under the provisions of "The Navigation Act of 1876."

HUGH M. NELSON.

REGULATION FOR THE SAFETY AND SAFE NAVIGATION OF VESSELS WITHIN THE LIMITS OF ANY PORT IN QUEENSLAND, MADE IN PURSUANCE OF THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 108 OF "THE NAVIGATION ACT OF 1876."

No punt, vessel used as a lighter, or raft (whether in tow or otherwise) shall be navigated within the limits of any port unless in charge of a person possessing a license, and no such license shall be granted to any person unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Board that he possesses the necessary qualifications, which shall include—

- (1) Sufficient local knowledge and experience in the handling of punts or lighters;
- (2) Acquaintance with the Harbour Regulations and Rule of the Road;
- (3) Passing the test for colour blindness, and producing testimonials certifying to applicant's good character for the twelve months immediately preceding date of application.

Provided that paragraph 1 shall not apply to any person who, prior to this date, has been in charge of any punt or lighter for a period of not less than six months.

The foregoing Regulation shall be applicable to and in force only in such port or ports as may from time to time be brought under its operation by notification in the Government Gazette.

LEASE OF PORTION OF THE GOVERNMENT BOND AND CUSTOMS RESERVE AT TOWNSVILLE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Tenders for a Lease of portion of the Government Bond and Customs Reserve at Townsville will be received at the Custom House, Townsville, until Noon of TUESDAY, the Fifteenth day of May, 1894.

CONDITIONS.

1. The premises to be leased consist of a portion of the Government Warehouse lying between Messrs. Rooney and Co.'s holding and the portion partitioned off as a Queen's Warehouse, together with a portion of the vacant ground at the back. The building extends in front to Flinders street 130 feet or thereby, with a depth of about 68 feet. The vacant ground extends the same distance in length and about 25 feet deep. The premises will be pointed out by the Sub-Collector of Customs, Townsville, and no diminution of rent or other alteration of the contract will be allowed on the ground of any error or misunderstanding in reference to the extent of premises or the condition in which they are.
2. The lease will be for a period of three years from the First day of June, 1894.
3. The Tenderer whose offer may be accepted shall be bound, when called upon, to execute a lease in accordance with these conditions.
4. The Tenderer shall pay three months' rent in advance on acceptance of the Tender, and thereafter the rent shall be paid to the Sub-Collector of Customs at Townsville, monthly, in advance.
5. The lessee shall pay all rates and municipal taxes during the currency of his lease.

6. The lessee will be entitled to the entire use of the subjects leased, but no buildings are to be erected on the vacant ground, and no alterations or additions which will interfere with the building itself will be allowed without the express sanction of the Government.

7. The lessee will be required to keep the premises clean and free from rubbish, and in good repair during the tenancy, reasonable wear and tear only excepted.

8. The lessee will not be at liberty to assign or sublet the whole or any part of the premises without the consent of the Colonial Treasurer in writing.

9. Should the rent at any time be more than three months in arrear, or should the lessee otherwise wilfully infringe the conditions of the lease, the Government shall, in the former case have the right at once to enter upon and take possession of the premises, and in the latter case to enter upon and take possession on the expiry of one month's notice given after such infringement.

T. M. KING, Under Secretary.

The Treasury, Brisbane, 11th April, 1894.

SALE OF LEASE OF GOVERNMENT WHARF AND SHED, MACKAY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Tenders for the Lease of the Government Wharf and Shed, Mackay, will be received at the Custom House, Mackay, up to Ten a.m. on THURSDAY, the 17th May, 1894.

CONDITIONS.

1. The wharf and shed, with a frontage of 200 feet to the Pioneer River, will be leased for a term of three years.

2. The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

3. The tenderer whose tender may be accepted shall be bound, when called upon, to execute a lease for the due performance of these conditions.

4. The successful tenderer shall pay three months' rent in advance on acceptance of the tender, and thereafter the rent shall be paid to the Sub-Collector of Customs at Mackay, monthly, in advance.

5. The rates of wharfage shall be as follow:—

6. All goods, the property of the Government, or for the use of any of the Government Departments, shall be landed or shipped free of any charge for wharfage.

7. The lessee will be entitled to the entire use of the wharf and shed, subject to clause 9 of these conditions, but no buildings are to be erected on the ground leased, or on the wharf, without the express sanction of the Government.

8. The lessee will be required to keep the wharf clean and free from all deposit of rubbish or refuse, and in good and suitable repair during the tenancy, reasonable wear and tear only excepted, and should any damage be done to the wharves by any vessel, or otherwise, such damage shall be made good by the lessee to the satisfaction of the Portmaster.

9. The lessee shall not be at liberty to assign or sub-let the wharf or shed, or any portion thereof, without having previously obtained the written consent of the Colonial Treasurer.

10. The Officers of Customs, the Harbour Master, and other officers in the Public Service, and all persons acting under their orders, shall have free access to the wharf for all purposes connected with their public duties.

11. The Officers of Customs shall have the use of the shed when required for the temporary custody and examination of goods and passengers' luggage landed from vessels discharging at the wharf.

12. Office accommodation will be provided for the Landing Waiters in charge, but the lessee shall provide all materials and labour required by them for examining, weighing, gauging, marking, packing, and repacking goods, in terms of clause 87 of "The Customs Act 1873."

13. Should the rent at any time be more than one month in arrear, or should the lessee wilfully infringe the conditions of the lease, the Government shall, in the former case have the right to at once enter upon and take possession of the wharf and premises, and in the latter case to enter and take possession on the expiration of one month's notice given after such infringement.

T. M. KING, Under Secretary.

NOTICE.

IT is hereby notified, for public information, that the Reverend TOM ELLISON, a Minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Denomination, having removed from Paddington, in the Registry District of Enoggera, to Mount Morgan, in the Registry District of Westwood, has given me due notice thereof, in accordance with the provisions of "The Marriage Act of 1864."

WILLIAM T. BLAKENEY, Registrar-General.

QUEENSLAND GOVERNMENT LABOUR BUREAU

AN Office for the transaction of all business connected with the above is now open in a portion of the Ports and Harbours Office, at the corner of Margaret and Edward streets, Brisbane, and Branch Offices are conducted by the Assistant Immigration Agents at Ipswich, Toowoomba, Maryborough, Bundaberg, Rockhampton, Mackay, and Townsville, and by the Clerks of Petty Sessions at all other towns in the Colony.

Employers of labour should make known their wants to the officers in charge, stating the class of men required, the work to be done, and the wages offered; and applicants seeking work should personally register their names and addresses.

Information respecting the condition of the Labour Market in every district is always obtainable at the Head Office.

J. O'N. BRENAN, Officer in Charge.

Department of Public Instruction,
Brisbane, 5th April, 1894.

TO WATCHMAKERS AND OTHERS.

TENDERS will be received at this Office until Four o'clock p.m. on FRIDAY, the 20th April instant, from persons willing to contract for the Supply of Clocks to Queensland State Schools, including the safe packing of the same and forwarding them to their destination.

Tenders to be endorsed, "Tender for School Clocks, Department of Public Instruction," and to be accompanied in each case by a sample of the clock to be supplied.

Further particulars can be obtained at this Office on application.

The Minister does not guarantee the acceptance of the lowest or any one of the Tenders.

For the Under Secretary,
C. A. J. WOODCOCK.

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

Queensland Government Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

VOL. LXI.]

SATURDAY, 14TH APRIL, 1894.

[No. 77.

QUEENSLAND LAND FORCES.

HEAD-QUARTERS' GENERAL ORDERS.

By Major-General J. F. OWEN, R.A., Commandant.

Brisbane, 10th April, 1894.

No. 74.

THE following remarks as to the Voluntary Camps of Instruction, 1894, held at Lytton in the Southern District, Emu Vale in the Central District, and Mackay and Townsville in the Northern District—work done in connection with the same, are published for the information of those concerned.

GENERAL.

The attendance of the Troops, &c., and the percentage of the same to their nominal strength, were as follow:—

District and Camp.	Force.	ATTENDANCE.			Hours.	Remarks.
		Officers.	Men.	Nominal Strength.
Southern Division, Lytton	Queensland Defence Force ...	76	1,121	85	...	Including Staff.
	Volunteer Force ...	Nil	Nil	...
	Cadets ...	4	68	75
	Total ...	80	1,189	...
Central Division, Emu Vale	Queensland Defence Force ...	11	158	90	...
	Cadets ...	2	28	55
	Total ...	13	186	...
Northern Division, Mackay " " Townsville	Queensland Defence Force ...	7	48	100	...	Including Staff. Including Staff.
	Queensland Defence Force ...	16	229	60
	Cadets ...	Nil	Nil	...
	Total ...	23	277	...
Grand Total ...		116	1,652	...	526

Considering that the Camps were purely voluntary, the existing depression, and that officers and men had to pay for their own rations (and the mounted men for their horse forage), the attendance of the Q.D.F. may be looked upon as satisfactory, being 110 officers and 1,556 men: a total of 1,666, a percentage of 85 per 100 of the nominal strength of that force.

It is not, however, considered that the continuation, through a series of years, of such camps, with so much sacrifice demanded from officers and men, would be in every way advisable from the point of view of discipline.

It is regretted that no Corps of the Volunteer Force attended camp.

The weather was variable, at times wet and at other times very hot, but the health of the troops throughout was very good, their conduct and discipline excellent, and much zeal was shown by all ranks.

LYTTON CAMP.

No organised sub-department for Supply and Transport has ever existed in the Queensland Forces, nor will funds at present admit of this important organisation being formed. The means have always to be improvised for the occasion.

Transport.—From want of proper permanent safe stowage room at Lytton, and of funds, great difficulties were experienced in carrying out this service, especially as, from the number of horses in camp, a considerable amount of forage had to be carted from Wynnum Station, three miles distant.

With a very limited number of officers, men, and horses, "A" Battery, Permanent Force, under Captain L. L. Harper, R.A., carried out the work, only £10 being paid for all transport of baggage, &c., under the different transport officers, with much credit, though having at times to work necessarily at night.

Under the difficulties the transport was creditable, and satisfactorily carried out.

Supply.—Difficulties of want of funds, and the consequent necessity for reducing the staff employed on the work to the lowest possible minimum, were experienced here, but satisfactorily surmounted by the zeal and energy of those concerned.

The rations themselves:—

1½ lb. meat,	} per man	14 lb. of hay or	} per horse
1 lb. bread,		18 lb. of chaff,
2 oz. cheese,		8 lb. of corn,
1 lb. potatoes, and

were ample in amount and good in quality.

From want of experience, however, on the part of Regimental Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, the distribution by the Corps themselves, after the drawing of the rations from the Head-Quarters' Supply Store, was not always satisfactory, and in some cases a needless waste, especially of forage, ensued. This was the case more particularly with the Mounted Infantry, brought together for the first time in one body, and where issues had to be looked to, both for men and horses, by an improvised Regimental Staff, and by Company officers with no previous experience of the same.

The Officer commanding the Mounted Infantry (Major Patterson) in camp states:—

"Any slight hitch (as to supply) that occurred in the portion of the camp under my command was invariably to be found to arise from want of experience in Officers and Non-commissioned Officers carrying out the details, and not from any fault of the Staff Officer for Supply."

Regarding the expense of supply, it has never been so economically conducted as on this occasion; one shilling per diem was stopped from the men's pay as agreed to by them.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Discipline on the whole was, as already mentioned, very good, only one slight disturbance (at a neighbouring hotel) occurring, which necessitated an extra piquet.

Other slight cases which occurred were only such as are to be expected with any partially trained and disciplined forces.

A case of serious neglect of duty occurred on the part of a piquet of the Mounted Infantry, mounted for the purpose of keeping the horses in their lines, in letting thirty horses escape in one night; this, unfortunately, was not reported to the Commandant in sufficient time for the punishment of those guilty.

Camp Fires.—After the work of the day was over, camp fires and "sing-songs" held in the various lines were, judging by the attendance, much appreciated; the way in which they were conducted was creditable, and it was satisfactory to find that they were not unduly prolonged, and that in only one case were they (and that by special permission) continued after the proper time (last post).

The lines of the troops both in camp and at the bivouac were quiet and regular at night (a great improvement on some other occasions when the Commandant has been present), camp fires and lights being extinguished at the proper hours, according to orders.

Newspaper Correspondents.—As it is much to the advantage of the public and the troops to have correct accounts from eye-witnesses based on accurate information, invitations were, as usual, written to the two leading daily papers (Courier and Telegraph) to send accredited representatives to Camp, for whom tents and accommodation at the Head-Quarters' Mess were provided.

The Telegraph sent an accredited representative, and this gentleman was present throughout the whole Camp and the field movements. Unfortunately, no accredited correspondent was sent into Camp (except for the first two days) by the Courier.

The Australian Army, Navy, and Defence Review of Sydney had an accredited representative in Camp present during the whole of the work.

Divine Service.—The heads of the Church of England, Roman Catholic, and Presbyterian bodies were each asked to send a clergyman to conduct divine service on Sunday, the s.s. "Miner" being placed at their disposal.

Owing to an unfortunate mistake as to the time fixed (for which he was not responsible), the Church of England clergyman was not present when the parade was ready. It was not advisable to keep the troops long under the very hot sun, and in his absence the Reverend Mr. McSwaine (Presbyterian chaplain) kindly conducted the service.

The Roman Catholic authorities had already stated that a clergyman could probably not be spared owing to pressure of work in Brisbane. This unfortunately turned out to be the case, no clergyman being able to come, service could not be held.

TACTICAL WORK, MOVEMENTS CARRIED OUT, &c.

Remarks by Colonel E. R. Drury, C.M.G., on the Minor Tactical Operations in the neighbourhood of Wynnum on Friday, 23rd March, 1894.

The idea was that the advanced guard of a force marching from Lytton is encountered near Wynnum by the advanced guard of a defending force consisting of Mounted Infantry with two guns.

The Officer Commanding has instructions to attack the invading force.

The attack by the defending force was on the whole well carried out, but the Officer Commanding should, in the first instance, have proceeded at least two miles along the Wynnum road, according to his instructions.

As it was, a considerable amount of ammunition was wasted and time lost.

The Mounted Infantry, when they were obliged to fall back, retired in too close order down the Wynnum road, and were exposed to the fire of infantry and field guns at about 300 to 400 yards' range.

The Officer Commanding the defending force would have had a better chance of checking the advance of the Infantry by operating through the thick bush on their right flank.

No. 2 Company, Moreton Mounted Infantry, attached to the invading force, retired without orders when their ammunition was exhausted.

The horses of this Company were brought on to the crest of the hill, near the cutting, within short range of the enemy's guns in action, instead of remaining under cover.

The two Companies of the 2nd Battalion, Moreton Regiment, who were ordered up on the left to attack the guns, should have advanced at the double until they were within sufficiently short range (say 300 yards) to open such a fire as would have effectually silenced the guns. They were not under fire when advancing, and short rushes were not required.

The advance of the 1st Battalion, Moreton Regiment, and two Companies, Wide Bay Regiment, was well carried out, but it was noticed that in some cases the section commanders did not keep such control over the fire of their men as they should have done.

The field guns were well handled, but it was a mistake to place the two guns of the defence on the right flank without any escort. I am inclined to the belief that in real warfare these guns would have been captured.

REMARKS BY COMMANDANT AS TO WORK DONE ON THE 25TH AND 26TH MARCH, 1894.

Bivouac—25th March.

In order that the troops should reach the bivouac by daylight and find camp fires already lit, the orders as to leaving Camp were:—

Transport, Cooks, &c.—At 1 p.m.

Troops—At 2.30 p.m.

Owing to neglect of orders as to loading of carts on the part of Corps, the starting of the transport was delayed until 3 p.m.

Portmanteaus and other baggage, buckets and other articles, were loaded in some cases, and the carts had to be sent back for them to be removed; while in many cases the men's blankets, ordered to be taken, were left behind.

The bivouac itself was well carried out, in an orderly manner, but in visiting the lines the Commandant found blankets deficient in many cases, and that in some insufficient rations had been brought (though quantities of bread and meat and forage had been left behind in Camp by many Corps).

More attention ought to be paid to these details by regimental officers for the well-being of their men.

In addition to promulgating orders received from Head-Quarters, it is advisable for Officers Commanding Corps in Camp to assemble their officers on such occasions, and clearly to explain to them the meaning and detail of the orders.

Movements of 26th March.

On this day the hours and space of time allotted to field movements were governed by the necessity of the troops for North Brisbane arriving there by 12.30 p.m., as horses had to be entrained at 1 p.m. at the Railway Station; this time was well kept, the General Post Office being passed at 12.35 p.m.

To meet this necessity, the times to be kept were—

Victoria Bridge, South Brisbane—12 noon.

Woolloongabba, depart—11.30 a.m.

Woolloongabba, arrival—11 a.m.

[At this point the troops entraining at South Brisbane were separated, and paraded in the Drill Reserve until the hour or entraining should arrive.]

Stone's Corner—10:30 a.m.

It being absolutely necessary to keep this time, both defending and attacking forces had orders to rendezvous there at that hour.

The defending force was to march at 7 a.m., but was not really on the road till 7:30 a.m.

The attacking force to move at 7:30 a.m., but marched at 8 a.m.

Field Movements.

The time available for field movements was necessarily very limited; for the attacking force, from 8 to 10:30, including the march of five miles to Stone's Corner.

The field of operations had therefore to be much narrowed down, and as the country was close until Cavendish road was reached, Infantry could not be allowed to move off the road for deployment into points for action until Coorparoo was reached, or they could not have kept the required rendezvous.

The morning turned out exceptionally hot, and it became necessary, to save the Infantry from dangerous fatigue, to direct the Officer Commanding attack to advance along the road farther than he intended to do before extending to his right. This naturally interfered somewhat with the pre-arranged plans of the Officer Commanding Infantry (Major Gartside), but could not be avoided.

General Idea.

The following was the general idea of the field movements in the neighbourhood of Coorparoo on Easter Monday, the 26th ultimo:—

A skeleton force consisting of four companies of Mounted Infantry was representing the rear-guard of a force retiring on Brisbane.

The remainder of the force represented the advance guard of a force which had landed at Cleveland, and was advancing on Brisbane by way of the Cleveland road (old).

On the "Cease fire" being sounded the whole force was to be formed up at Stone's Corner.

Defence.

The defence was conducted well, and retirements were made in good order, but very much too fast. There was no need for the four Companies of Mounted Infantry to retire as they did before an equal force of Mounted Infantry; and they should have held their ground in each successive position until the Infantry of the attacking force had developed their attack, and, by superiority of numbers, compelled them to retire. Their horses being well under cover they had little to fear from the fire of field-guns.

The effect of their very hasty retreat was to make the field day lose much of its interest.

In minor operations of this sort it is, as a rule, better to retire slowly than too fast, otherwise the troops are unable to grasp what is going on.

The Mounted Infantry of the attack, moving the greater part of the time on foot, were, after the first exchange of shots, never able to get within range of the defence, so hasty was the retirement.

Attack.

The attack was on the whole well conducted.

The Officer Commanding the Mounted Infantry carried out the advance satisfactorily, making most of the cover which was available. The advance was fast, owing to the rapid retreat of the enemy, the consequence being that the Infantry (the support) were only able to come into action very late.

The field artillery was well handled, and the positions taken up were good.

The Infantry advance was also carefully carried out, and it was unfortunate that, owing, as before mentioned, to the rapid advance of the Mounted Infantry and Field Artillery, they did not take a more prominent part in the action.

The same remarks apply to the Cadets, though, owing to the excessive heat, it was not considered advisable to work the boys too hard.

Much valuable instruction was no doubt gained, especially by the mistakes made, and pointed out to the officers and men at the time, and now.

[No. 79.]

Railway Department,

Brisbane, 12th April, 1894.

COACHING AND GOODS CLASSIFICATIONS.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to approve of the following By-Law made by the Railway Commissioners under the provisions of "The Railways Act of 1888," for regulating the carriage of Commercial Travellers' Samples, Goods, and Live Stock on the Queensland Railways.

HUGH M. NELSON.

QUEENSLAND RAILWAYS.

BY-LAW No. 21.

IN pursuance of the provisions of "The Railways Act of 1888" the Queensland Railway Commissioners hereby make the following By-law amending "The Railway Goods Traffic By-law of 1893," hereinafter called the "Goods By-law," and "The Railway Coaching Traffic By-law of 1893," hereinafter called the "Coaching By-law."

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS' SAMPLES.

1. Clause 84 of the Coaching By-law is hereby repealed, and the following clause shall be substituted therefor:—

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS' SAMPLES.

84. Commercial travellers' samples will be conveyed by passenger train at parcels rates on the forward journey, provided the owner assists to load and unload if required, and that there is room in the brake-van therefor and that the train will not thereby be delayed. Half parcels rates will be charged on the return journey on presentation of the receipt showing the up carriage to have been paid. Provided that 112lbs. for a 1st Class passenger and 84lbs. for a 2nd Class passenger, including personal luggage, will be carried free on the forward and return journey.

The samples must be marked "Travellers' Samples," with the name or initials of the person or firm whom the traveller represents.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS' SAMPLES.

2. The rates for Commercial Travellers' Samples, appearing in Schedule V. of the Goods By-law, are hereby repealed, and the following rates shall be substituted in lieu thereof:—

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS' SAMPLES.

Commercial Travellers' Samples to up-country stations will be charged at 3rd Class Rates by Goods Trains and parcels rates by Passenger Trains on the forward journey, but will be carried free by Goods Trains and at half parcels rates by Passenger Trains on the return journey on presentation of the receipt showing the up carriage to have been paid.

The samples must be marked "Travellers' Samples," with the name or initials of the person or firm whom the traveller represents.

WHEAT.

3. The following note shall be inserted under the rate for wheat, appearing in Schedule I. of the Goods By-law:—

Wheat sent from Ports over the Southern and Western Railway will be charged at B Class Rates and Conditions.

FLOUR TO PORTS.

4. The rate for flour to Ports appearing in Schedule V. of the Goods By-law is hereby repealed, and the following paragraph shall be inserted in Schedule V. in lieu thereof:—

Flour sent to Ports will be charged at A Class Rates and Conditions. If 4-ton lots are sent 10 per cent. rebate will be allowed. This rate will not apply to flour sent from Brisbane to Ipswich and vice versa.

SALT BEEF AND HIDES.

5. The rate for salt beef and hides appearing in Schedule I. of the Goods By-law is hereby cancelled, and the following paragraph shall be inserted in Schedule V. of the Goods By-law.

The rate for salt beef in casks, and hides, if sent in truck loads, shall be as follows:—

100 miles and under	...	2½d. per ton per mile.
101 to 200 miles	...	2d. per ton per mile added to the rate for 100 miles.
Over 200 miles	...	1d. per ton per mile added to the rate for 200 miles.
Smaller quantities to be charged at 1st Class Rates.

LIVE STOCK.

6. Schedule VI. of the Goods By-law is hereby repealed, and the following schedule shall be substituted therefor—

SCHEDULE VI.

(See Clauses 53 to 58.)

SCALE OF RATES FOR LIVE STOCK TRAFFIC.

* A Cow and its Calf at foot will be counted as one. Pigs, Calves, Goats, or Sheep in crates, cases, sacks, or otherwise secured, will be charged at second-class rates.

† When narrow 4-wheeled Vans are used 15 per cent. will be deducted from these rates.

‡ Half 4-wheeled Vans on Central Railway will be charged two-thirds of these rates.

NOTE.—For estimated carrying capacity of each class of Vehicle, see Table at end of this Schedule.

TABLE SHOWING THE ESTIMATED CARRYING CAPACITY OF EACH CLASS OF CATTLE WAGON AND SHEEP VAN.

Description of Wagon.	Class.	Carrying Capacity, Horses or Cattle.	Description of Van.	Class.	Sheep, &c.
4-Wheeled Wagon—Northern Railway	I	8 head ...	Half 4-Wheeled Van—Central Railway	L	43 head

8-Wheeled Wagon (Small)—Northern Railway ...	KJ	12 head ...	4-Wheeled Vans—All other Lines	L	70 head
8-Wheeled Wagon (Large)—All Lines	K	16 head ...	6-Wheeled Vans—All Lines	M	140 head
			8-Wheeled Vans (Small)—Northern Railway ...	NM	150 head
			8-Wheeled Vans (Large)—All Lines	N	180 head

NOTE.—It must be clearly understood that the carrying capacity of the several classes of vehicles, as shown in the above table, is liable to variation according to the size of the stock carried, and is merely given as a guide to intending consignors in estimating the probable cost of conveyance. In estimating the capacity of each class of vehicle, the average size of stock has been taken. Intending consignors, in applying for vehicles, should ask for the particular class they desire; but, to avoid delay and disappointment, should also state the number and description of stock to be conveyed, as the class of vehicles desired may not be available at the time, and it may be necessary therefore to supply others. The Commissioners do not undertake to supply any particular class of vehicle.

JNO. MATHIESON,
Chief Commissioner.

R. J. GRAY,
Commissioner.

A. JOHNSTON,
Commissioner.

Sealed with the corporate seal of the Queensland Railway Commissioners this eleventh day of April, 1894, in the presence of

E. FROST,
For Secretary.

Provided that the expression "general orders" in this section shall not include Her Majesty's regulations and orders for the Army or any similar order in the nature of a regulation published for the general information and guidance of the Army.

Desertion, Fraudulent Enlistment, and Absence without Leave.

Desertion.

12. (1.) Every person subject to military law who commits any of the following offences ; that is to say,

- (a) Deserts or attempts to desert Her Majesty's service ; or
- (b) Persuades, endeavours to persuade, procures or attempts to procure, any person subject to military law to desert from Her Majesty's service, shall, on conviction by court-martial—if he committed such offence when on active service or under orders for active service, be liable to suffer death, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned ; and if he committed such offence under any other circumstances, be liable for the first offence to suffer imprisonment, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned ; and for the second or any subsequent offence to suffer penal servitude, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

(2.) Where an offender has fraudulently enlisted once or oftener, he may, for the purposes of trial for the offence of deserting or attempting to desert Her Majesty's service, be deemed to belong to any one or more of the corps to which he has been appointed or transferred as well as to the corps to which he properly belongs ; and it shall be lawful to charge an offender with any number of offences against this section at the same time, and to give evidence of such offences against him, and if he be convicted thereof to punish him accordingly ; and further it shall be lawful on conviction of a person for two or more such offences to award him the higher punishment allowed by this section for a second offence as if he had been convicted by a previous court-martial of one of such offences.

(3.) For the purposes of the liability under this section to the higher punishment for a second offence, a previous offence of fraudulent enlistment may be reckoned as a previous offence under this section.

Fraudulent
enlistment.

13. (1.) Every person subject to military law who commits any of the following offences ; that is to say,

- (4) If he is convicted of rape, be liable to suffer penal servitude, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned; and
- (5) If he is convicted of any offence not before in this section particularly specified which when committed in England is punishable by the law of England, be liable, whether the offence is committed in England or elsewhere, either to suffer such punishment as might be awarded to him in pursuance of this Act in respect of an act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, or to suffer any punishment assigned for such offence by the law of England.

Provided as follows:—

- (a) A person subject to military law shall not be tried by court-martial for treason, murder, manslaughter, treason-felony, or rape committed in the United Kingdom, and shall not be tried by court-martial for treason, murder, manslaughter, treason-felony, or rape committed in any place within Her Majesty's dominions, other than the United Kingdom and Gibraltar, unless such person at the time he committed the offence was on active service, or such place is more than one hundred miles as measured in a straight line from any city or town in which the offender can be tried for such offence by a competent civil court.
- (b) A person subject to military law when in Her Majesty's dominions may be tried by any competent civil court for any offence for which he would be triable if he were not subject to military law.

Redress of Wrongs.

42. If an officer thinks himself wronged by his commanding officer, and on due application made to him does not receive the redress to which he may consider himself entitled, he may complain to the Commander-in-Chief in order to obtain justice, who is hereby required to examine into such complaint, and through a Secretary of State make his report to Her Majesty in order to receive the directions of Her Majesty thereon.

officer.

43. If any soldier thinks himself wronged in any matter by any officer other than his captain, or by any soldier, he may complain thereof to his captain, and if he thinks himself wronged by his captain, either in respect of his complaint not being redressed or in respect of any other matter, he may complain thereof to his commanding officer, and if he thinks himself wronged by his commanding officer, either in respect of his complaint not being redressed or in respect of any other matter, he may complain thereof to the general or other officer commanding the district or station where the soldier is serving; and every officer to whom a complaint is made in pursuance of this section shall cause such complaint to be inquired into, and shall, if on inquiry he is satisfied of the justice of the complaint so made, take such steps as may be necessary for giving full redress to the complainant in respect of the matter complained of.

soldier.

Punishments.

44. Punishments may be inflicted in respect of offences committed by persons subject to military law and convicted by courts-martial,—

Scale of punishments by courts-martial.

In the case of officers, according to the scale following:

- (a) Death.
- (b) Penal servitude for a term not less than three years.
- (c) Imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years.
- (d) cashiering.
- (e) Dismissal from Her Majesty's service.
- (f) Forfeiture in the prescribed manner of seniority of rank, either in the Army or in the corps to which the offender belongs, or in both.
- (g) Reprimand, or severe reprimand.

In the case of soldiers, according to the scale following:

- (h) Death.
- (i) Penal servitude for a term not less than three years.
- (k) Imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years.
- (l) Discharge with ignominy from Her Majesty's service.
- (m) Reduction in the case of a non-commissioned officer to a lower grade, or to the ranks.
- (n) Forfeitures, fines, and stoppages.

Provided that—

- (1) Where in respect of any offence under this Act there is specified a particular punishment, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned, there may be awarded in respect of that offence, instead of such particular punishment (but subject to the other regulations of this Act as to punishments, and regard being had to the nature and degree of the offence) any one punishment lower in the above scales than the particular punishment.
- (2) An officer shall be sentenced to be cashiered before he is sentenced to penal servitude or imprisonment.
- (3) An officer when sentenced to forfeiture of seniority of rank may also be sentenced to reprimand or severe reprimand.
- (4) A soldier when sentenced to penal servitude or imprisonment may, in addition thereto, be sentenced to be discharged with ignominy from Her Majesty's service.
- (5) Where a soldier on active service is guilty of an aggravated offence of drunkenness, or of an offence of disgraceful conduct, or of any offence punishable with death or penal servitude, it shall be lawful for a court-martial to award for that offence such summary punishment other than flogging as may be directed by rules to be made from time to time by a Secretary of State; and such summary punishment shall be of the character of personal restraint or of hard labour, but shall not be of a nature to cause injury to life or limb, and shall not be inflicted where the confirming officer is of opinion that imprisonment can with due regard to the public service be carried into execution.
- (6) The said summary punishment shall not be inflicted upon a non-commissioned officer, or upon a reduced non-commissioned officer, for any offence committed while holding the rank of non-commissioned officer.

- (7) "An aggravated offence of drunkenness" for the purposes of this section means drunkenness committed on the march or otherwise on duty, or after the offender was warned for duty, or when by reason of the drunkenness the offender was found unfit for duty; and notwithstanding anything in this Act it shall not be incumbent on the commanding officer to deal summarily with such aggravated offence of drunkenness.
- (8) "An offence of disgraceful conduct" for the purposes of this section means any offence specified in section eighteen of this Act.
- (9) All rules with respect to summary punishment made in pursuance of this section shall be laid before Parliament as soon as practicable after they are made, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, as soon as practicable after the beginning of the then next session of Parliament.
- (10) For the purpose of commutation of punishment the summary punishment above mentioned shall be deemed to stand in the scale of punishments next below imprisonment.
- (11) In addition to or without any other punishment in respect of any offence, an offender convicted by court-martial may be subject to forfeiture of any deferred pay, service towards pension, military decoration or military reward, in such manner as may for the time being be provided by Royal Warrant, but shall not, save as may be provided by Royal Warrant, be liable to any forfeiture under the Regimental Debts Act, 1863, or under any Act relating to the military savings banks, or any regulations made in pursuance of either of the above-mentioned Acts.
- (12) In addition to or without any other punishment in respect of any offence, an offender may be sentenced by court-martial to any deduction authorised by this Act to be made from his ordinary pay.
- (13) No officer or non-commissioned officer shall, under or by virtue of any power or authority derived from any foreign potentate or ruler, inflict or cause to be inflicted on any person subject to military law under this Act, for or in respect of any offence against such law, any punishment not authorised by this Act.

ARREST AND TRIAL.

Arrest.

Custody of persons charged with offences.

45. The following regulations shall be enacted with respect to persons subject to military law when charged with offences punishable under this Act:

- (1) Every person subject to military law when so charged may be taken into military custody: Provided, that in every case where any officer or soldier not on active service remains in such military custody for a longer period than eight days without a court-martial for his trial being ordered to assemble, a special report of the necessity for further delay shall be made by his commanding officer in manner prescribed; and a similar report shall be forwarded every eight days until a court-martial is assembled or the officer or soldier is released from custody:
- (2) Military custody means, according to the usages of the service, the putting the offender under arrest or the putting him in confinement:
- (3) An officer may order into military custody an officer of inferior rank or any soldier, and any non-commissioned officer may order into military custody any soldier, and an officer may order into military custody any officer (though he be of higher rank) engaged in a quarrel, fray, or disorder; and any such order shall be obeyed, notwithstanding the person giving the order and the person in respect of whom the order is given do not belong to the same corps, arm, or branch of the service:
- (4) An officer or non-commissioned officer commanding a guard, or a provost-marshal or assistant provost-marshal, shall not refuse to receive or keep any person who is committed to his custody by any officer or non-commissioned officer, but it shall be the duty of the officer or non-commissioned officer who commits any person into custody to deliver at the time of such committal, or as soon as practicable, and in every case within twenty-four hours thereafter, to the officer, non-commissioned officer, provost-marshal, or assistant provost-marshal into whose custody the person is committed, an account in writing, signed by himself, of the offence with which the person so committed is charged:
- (5) The charge made against every person taken into military custody shall without unnecessary delay be investigated by the proper military authority, and, as soon as may be, either proceedings shall be taken for punishing the offence, or such persons shall be discharged from custody.

Power of Commanding Officer.

Power of
officer.

46. (1.) The commanding officer shall, upon an investigation being had of a charge made against a person subject to military law under his command of having committed an offence under this Act, dismiss the charge, if he in his discretion thinks that it ought not to be proceeded with, but where he thinks the charge ought to be proceeded with, he may take steps for bringing the offender to a court-martial, or in the case of a soldier may deal with the case summarily.

(2.) Where he deals with a case summarily, he may,—

- (a) Award to the offender imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding fourteen days; and
- (b) In the case of the offence of drunkenness, may order the offender to pay a fine not exceeding ten shillings, either in addition to or without imprisonment, with or without hard labour; and
- (c) In addition to or without any other punishment, may order the offender to suffer any deduction from his ordinary pay authorised by this Act to be made by the commanding officer.

(3.) Where the charge is against a soldier for drunkenness not on duty, and it is not an aggravated offence of drunkenness within the meaning of section forty-four of this Act, the commanding officer shall deal with the case summarily unless the soldier has been guilty of drunkenness on not less than four occasions in the preceding twelve months; but nothing in this subsection shall affect the jurisdiction of any court-martial or the right of the soldier to be tried by a district court-martial.

(4.) In the case of absence without leave, the commanding officer may award imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding twenty-one days.

(5.) Provided that where imprisonment is awarded for absence without leave the commanding officer shall have regard to the number of days during which the offender has been absent, and in no case shall the term of imprisonment awarded, if exceeding seven days, exceed the term of absence.

(6.) Provided that in every case where the power of summary award by a commanding officer exceeds a sentence of seven days' imprisonment, the accused person may demand that the evidence against him should be taken on oath, and the same oath or solemn declaration as that required to be taken by witnesses before a court-martial shall be administered to each witness in such case.

(7.) An offender shall not be liable to be tried by court-martial for any offence which has been dealt with summarily by his commanding officer, and shall not be liable to be punished by his commanding officer for any offence of which he has been acquitted or convicted by a competent civil court or by a court-martial.

(8.) Where a commanding officer has power to deal with a case summarily under this section, and, after hearing the evidence, considers that he may so deal with the case, he shall, unless he awards one of the minor punishments referred to in this section, ask the soldier charged whether he desires to be dealt with summarily or to be tried by a district court-martial, and if the soldier elects to be tried by a district court-martial, the commanding officer shall take steps for bringing him to trial by a district court-martial, but otherwise shall proceed to deal with the case summarily.

(9.) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the power of a commanding officer to award such minor punishments as he is for the time being authorised to award, so, however, that a minor punishment shall not be awarded for any offence for which imprisonment exceeding seven days is awarded.

Courts-martial.

47. (1.) Any officer authorised by or in pursuance of this Act to convene general and district courts-martial or either of them, also any commanding officer of a rank not below the rank of captain, also any officer of a rank not below the rank of captain when in command of two or more corps or portions of two or more corps, also on board a ship, a commanding officer of any rank may, without warrant and by virtue of this Act, convene a regimental court-martial for the trial of offences committed by soldiers under his command. Regimental courts-martial.

(2.) Such court-martial shall consist of not less than three officers, each of whom must have held a commission during not less than one whole year.

(3.) The convening officer shall appoint the president.

(4.) The president of a regimental court-martial shall not be under the rank of captain, unless where the court-martial is held on the line of march, or on board any ship, or unless, in the opinion of the convening officer, such opinion to be expressed in the order convening the court and to be conclusive, a captain is not, with due regard to the public service, available, in any of which cases an officer of any rank may be president.

(5.) A regimental court-martial shall not try an officer, nor award the punishment of death or penal servitude, or of imprisonment in excess of forty-two days, or of discharge with ignominy; but, subject as aforesaid, and save as in this Act specially mentioned, any offence under this Act committed by a person subject to military law, and triable by court-martial, may be tried and punished by a regimental court-martial.

48. The following rules are enacted with respect to general courts-martial and district courts-martial: General and district courts-martial.

- (1) A general court-martial shall be convened by Her Majesty, or some officer deriving authority to convene a general court-martial immediately or mediately from Her Majesty;
- (2) A district court-martial shall be convened by an officer authorised to convene general courts-martial, or some officer deriving authority to convene a district court-martial from an officer authorised to convene general courts-martial;
- (3) A general court-martial shall consist in the United Kingdom, India, Malta, and Gibraltar of not less than nine and elsewhere of not less than five officers, each of whom must have held a commission during not less than three whole years, and of whom not less than five must be of a rank not below that of captain;
- (4) A district court-martial shall consist of not less than three officers, each of whom must have held a commission during not less than two whole years;
- (5) The minimum number mentioned in this section for a general or a district court-martial shall be the legal minimum for that court-martial;
- (6) A district court-martial shall not try a person subject to military law as an officer, nor award the punishment of death or penal servitude; but, subject as aforesaid, any offence under this Act committed by a person subject to military law, and triable by court-martial, may be tried and punished by either a general or district court-martial;
- (7) An officer under the rank of captain shall not be a member of a court-martial for the trial of a field officer;
- (8) Sentence of death shall not be passed on any prisoner without the concurrence of two-thirds at the least of the officers serving on the court-martial by which he is tried;
- (9) The president of a court-martial, whether general or district, shall be appointed by order of the authority convening the court, but he shall not be under the rank of field officer unless the officer convening the court is under that rank, or unless in the opinion of the officer who convenes the court, such opinion to be expressed in the order convening the court, and to be conclusive, a field officer is not, with due regard to the public service, available, in either of which cases an officer not below the rank of captain may be the president of such court-martial, and he shall not be under the rank of captain, except in the case of a district court-martial, where in the opinion of the officer who convenes the court, such opinion to be expressed in the order convening the court, and to be conclusive, a captain is not, having due regard to the public service, available.

49. (1.) Where a complaint is made to any officer in command of any detachment or portion of troops in any country beyond the seas, or to the commanding officer of any corps or portion of a corps on active service, or to any officer in immediate command of a body of forces on active service, that an offence has been committed by any person subject to military law, then, if in the opinion of such officer it is not practicable that such offence should be tried by an ordinary general court-martial, it shall be lawful for him, although not authorised to convene general Field general courts-martial.

courts-martial, to convene a court-martial, in this Act referred to as a field general court-martial, for the trial of the person charged with such offence, provided as follows:

- (a) An officer in command of a detachment or portion of troops not on active service shall not convene a field general court-martial for the trial of any person, unless that person is under his command, nor unless the offence with which the person is charged is an offence against the property or person of an inhabitant of, or resident in, the country in which the offence is alleged to have been committed;
- (b) A field general court-martial shall consist of not less than three officers, unless the officer convening the same is of opinion that three officers are not available, having due regard to the public service, in which case the court-martial may consist of two officers;
- (c) The convening officer may preside, but he shall, whenever he deems it practicable, appoint another officer as president, who may be of any rank, but shall, if practicable in the opinion of the convening officer, be not below the rank of captain;
- (d) Where a field general court-martial consists of less than three officers, the sentence shall not exceed such summary punishment as is allowed by this Act, or imprisonment.

(2.) Section forty-eight of this Act shall not apply to a field general court-martial, but sentence of death shall not be passed on any prisoner by a field general court-martial without the concurrence of all the members.

(3.) A field general court-martial may, notwithstanding the restrictions enacted by this Act in respect of the trial by court-martial of civil offences within the meaning of this Act, try any person subject to military law who is under the command of the convening officer, and is charged with any such offence as is mentioned in this section, and may award for such offence any sentence which a general court-martial is competent to award for such offence: Provided always, that no sentence of any such court-martial shall be executed until confirmed, as provided by this Act.

Courts-martial
in general.

50. (1.) The officers sitting on a court-martial may belong to the same or different corps, or may be unattached to any corps, and may try persons belonging or attached to any corps.

(2.) The officer who convened a court-martial shall not, save as is otherwise expressly provided by this Act, sit on that court-martial.

(3.) Any of the following persons, that is to say, a prosecutor or witness for the prosecution of any prisoner, or the commanding officer of the prisoner within the meaning of the provisions of this Act which relate to dealing with a case summarily, or the officer who investigated the charges on which a prisoner is arraigned, shall not, save in the case of a field general court-martial, sit on the court-martial for the trial of such prisoner, nor shall he act as judge advocate at such court-martial.

Challenges by prisoner.

51. (1.) A prisoner about to be tried by any court-martial may object, for any reasonable cause, to any member of the court, including the president, whether appointed to serve thereon originally or to fill a vacancy caused by the retirement of an officer objected to, so that the court may be constituted of officers to whom the prisoner makes no reasonable objection.

(2.) Every objection made by a prisoner to any officer shall be submitted to the other officers appointed to form the court.

(3.) If the objection is to the president, such objection, if allowed by one-third or more of the other officers appointed to form the court, shall be allowed, and the court shall adjourn for the purpose of the appointment of another president.

(4.) If an objection to the president is allowed, the authority convening the court shall appoint another president, subject to the same right of the prisoner to object.

(5.) If the objection is to a member other than the president, and is allowed by one-half or more of the votes of the officers entitled to vote, the objection shall be allowed, and the member objected to shall retire, and his vacancy may be filled in the prescribed manner by another officer, subject to the same right of the prisoner to object.

(6.) In order to enable a prisoner to avail himself of his privilege of objecting to any officer, the names of the officers appointed to form the court shall be read over in the hearing of the prisoner on their first assembling, and before they are sworn, and he shall be asked whether he objects to any of such officers, and a like question shall be repeated in respect of any officer appointed to serve in lieu of a retiring officer.

Administration of oaths.

52. (1.) An oath shall be administered by the prescribed person to every member of every court-martial before the commencement of the trial in the following form; that is to say,

"You do swear, that you will well and truly try the prisoner [or prisoners]
"before the court according to the evidence, and that you will duly administer justice
"according to the Army Act now in force, without partiality, favour, or affection, and you do "further swear that you will not divulge the sentence of the court until it is duly confirmed,
"and you do further swear that you will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose "or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless there-
"unto required in due course of law. So help you GOD."

(2.) An oath in the prescribed form or forms shall be administered by the prescribed person to the judge advocate or person officiating as judge advocate (if any), and also to every officer in attendance on a court-martial for the purpose of instruction (if any), and also to every shorthand writer (if any) in attendance on the court-martial.

(3.) Every witness before a court-martial shall be examined on oath, which the president or other prescribed person shall administer in the prescribed form.

(4.) If a person by this Act required either as a member of, or person in attendance on, or witness before a court-martial, or otherwise in respect of a court-martial, to take an oath, objects to take an oath, or is objected to as incompetent to take an oath, the court, if satisfied of the sincerity of the objection, or, where the competence of the person to take an oath is objected to, of the oath having no binding effect on the conscience of such person, shall permit such person instead of being sworn to make a solemn declaration in the prescribed form, and for the purposes of this Act such solemn declaration shall be deemed to be an oath.

53. (1.) If a court-martial after the commencement of the trial is, by death or otherwise, reduced Procedure. below the legal minimum, it shall be dissolved.

(2.) If after the commencement of the trial the president dies or is otherwise unable to attend, and the court is not reduced below the legal minimum, the convening authority may appoint the senior member of the court, if of sufficient rank, to be president, and the trial shall proceed accordingly; but if he is not of sufficient rank the court shall be dissolved.

(3.) If, on account of the illness of the prisoner before the finding, it is impossible to continue the trial, a court-martial shall be dissolved.

(4.) Where a court-martial is dissolved under the foregoing provisions of this section, the prisoner may be tried again.

(5.) The president of any court-martial may, on any deliberation amongst the members, cause the court to be cleared of all other persons.

(6.) The court may adjourn from time to time.

(7.) The court may also, where necessary, view any place.

(8.) In the case of an equality of votes on the finding, the prisoner shall be deemed to be acquitted. In the case of an equality of votes on the sentence, or any question arising after the commencement of the trial except the finding, the president shall have a second or casting vote.

(9.) When a court-martial recommend a prisoner to mercy, such recommendation shall be attached to and form part of the proceedings of the court, and shall be promulgated and communicated to the prisoner, together with the finding and sentence.

54. (1.) The following authorities shall have power to confirm the findings and sentences of courts-martial; that is to say, Confirmation, revision, and approval of sentences.

(a) In the case of a regimental court-martial, the convening officer or officer having authority to convene such a court-martial at the date of the submission of the finding and sentence thereof;

(b) In the case of a general court-martial, Her Majesty, or some officer deriving authority to confirm the findings and sentences of general courts-martial immediately or mediately from Her Majesty;

(c) In the case of a district court-martial, an officer authorised to convene general courts-martial, or some officer deriving authority to confirm the findings and sentences of district courts-martial from an officer authorised to convene general courts-martial;

(d) In the case of a field general court-martial, an officer authorised to confirm the findings and sentences of general courts-martial for the trial of offences in the force of which the detachment or portion of troops under the command of the convening officer forms part, or, where the offence was committed on active service, any such officer as may under the rules made in pursuance of this Act be authorised to confirm the findings and sentences of the field general court-martial awarding the sentence: Provided that a sentence of death or penal servitude awarded by a field general court-martial shall not be carried into effect, unless or until it has been confirmed by the general or field officer commanding the force with which the prisoner is present at the date of his sentence.

(2.) The authority having power to confirm the finding and sentence of a court-martial may send back such finding and sentence, or either of them, for revision once, but not more than once, and it shall not be lawful for the court on any revision to receive any additional evidence; and where the finding only is sent back for revision, the court shall have power without any direction to revise the sentence also. In no case shall the authority recommend the increase of a sentence, nor shall the court-martial on revival of the sentence, either in obedience to the recommendation of an authority, or for any other reason, have the power to increase the sentence awarded.

(3.) The finding of acquittal, whether on all or some of the offences with which the prisoner is charged, shall not require confirmation or be subject to be revised, and if it relates to the whole of the offences shall be pronounced at once in open court, and the prisoner shall be discharged.

(4.) A member of a court-martial shall not have authority to confirm the finding or sentence of that court-martial, and where a member of a court-martial becomes confirming officer he shall refer the finding and sentence of the court-martial to a superior authority competent to confirm the findings and sentences of the like description of courts-martial, and that authority shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be in that instance the confirming authority; and where a court-martial is held in a colony, and there is no such superior authority in that colony, the governor of that colony shall have power to confirm the finding and sentence of such court-martial in like manner in all respects as if he were such superior authority as above mentioned: Provided that where a member of a field general court-martial trying a prisoner would but for his being a member of the court have power to confirm the finding and sentence of the court, and is of opinion that it is not practicable, having due regard to the public service, to delay the case for the purpose of referring it to any other officer, he may confirm the finding and sentence.

(5.) An officer having authority to confirm the finding and sentence of a court-martial may withhold his confirmation wholly or partly, and refer such finding and sentence or the part not confirmed to any superior authority competent to confirm the findings and sentences of the like description of courts-martial, and that authority shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be in that instance and to the extent of such reference the confirming authority.

(6.) Subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the finding of acquittal, the finding and sentence of a court-martial shall not be valid except in so far as the same may be confirmed by an authority authorised to confirm the same.

(7.) Sentence of death when passed in a colony shall not, unless passed in respect of an offence committed on active service, be carried into effect, unless, in addition to the confirmation otherwise required by this Act, it is approved by the governor of the colony.

(8.) Sentence of death when passed in India in respect of the offence of treason or murder shall not (except where the offence was committed on active service) be carried into effect, unless, in addition to the confirmation otherwise required by this Act, it is approved by the Governor-General.

(9.) When a person subject to military law is convicted of manslaughter, or rape, or any other civil offence under the section of this Act relating to the trial by court-martial of civil offences, and is sentenced to penal servitude, such sentence shall not be carried into execution unless, in addition to the confirmation otherwise required by this Act, it is approved, if the offender has been tried in India, by the Governor-General, or, if he has been tried in a colony, by the governor of the colony.

Conviction of less offence permissible on charge of greater.

56. (1.) A prisoner charged before a court-martial with stealing may be found guilty of embezzlement or of fraudulently misapplying money or property.

(2.) A prisoner charged before a court-martial with embezzlement may be found guilty of stealing or fraudulently misapplying money or property.

(3.) A prisoner charged before a court-martial with desertion may be found guilty of attempting to desert or of being absent without leave.

(4.) A prisoner charged before a court-martial with attempting to desert may be found guilty of desertion or of being absent without leave.

(5.) A prisoner charged before a court-martial with any other offence under this Act may, on failure of proof of an offence being committed under circumstances involving a higher degree of punishment, be found guilty of the same offence as being committed under circumstances involving a less degree of punishment.

EXECUTION OF SENTENCE.

Commutation and remission of sentences.

57. (1.) The confirming authority may, when confirming the sentence of any court-martial, mitigate or remit the punishment thereby awarded, or commute such punishment for any less punishment or punishments to which the offender might have been sentenced by the said court-martial, or if such punishment is death, awarded for the offence of murder, then for penal servitude or such less punishment, as in this Act mentioned. The confirming authority may also suspend for such time as seems expedient the execution of a sentence.

(2.) When a sentence passed by a court-martial has been confirmed, the following authorities shall have power to mitigate or remit the punishment thereby awarded, or to commute such punishment for any less punishment or punishments to which the offender might have been sentenced by the said court-martial, or, if such punishment is death, awarded for the offence of murder, then for penal servitude or such less punishment as in this Act mentioned; that is to say,

(a) As respects persons undergoing sentence in any place whatever, Her Majesty or the Commander-in-Chief or the officer commanding the district or station where the prisoner subject to such punishment may for the time be, or any prescribed officer; and

(b) As respects persons undergoing sentences in India, the Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India; and

(c) As respects persons undergoing sentences in any colony, the officer commanding the forces in that colony; and

(d) As respects persons undergoing sentences in any place not in the United Kingdom, India or a colony, the officer commanding the forces in such place.

(3.) Provided that the power given by this section shall not be exercised by an officer holding a command inferior to that of the authority confirming the sentence, unless such officer is authorised by such confirming authority or other superior military authority to exercise such power.

(4.) An authority having power under this section to mitigate, remit, or commute any punishment may, if it seem fit, do all or any of those things in respect of a person subject to such punishment.

(5.) The provisions of this Act with respect to an original sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment shall apply to a sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment imposed by way of commutation.

Effect of sentence of penal servitude.

58. When a person subject to military law is convicted by a court-martial, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, either within or without Her Majesty's dominions, and is sentenced to penal servitude, such conviction and sentence shall be of the same effect as if such person (in this Act referred to as a military convict) had been convicted in the United Kingdom of an offence punishable by penal servitude and sentenced to penal servitude by a competent civil court, and all enactments relating to a person sentenced to penal servitude by a competent civil court shall, so far as circumstances admit, apply accordingly.

Execution of sentences of penal servitude passed in the United Kingdom.

59. (1.) Where a sentence of penal servitude is passed by a court-martial in the United Kingdom, the military convict on whom such sentence has been passed shall, as soon as practicable, be transferred to a penal servitude prison to undergo his sentence according to law, and until so transferred shall be kept in military custody.

(2.) The order of the committing authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) shall be a sufficient warrant for his transfer to a penal servitude prison.

(3.) At any time before his arrival at a penal servitude prison the discharging authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) may by order discharge the military convict.

(4.) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the committing authority for the purposes of this section, namely,—

(a) The Commander-in-Chief,

(b) The Adjutant-General,

(c) The commanding officer of the military convict, and

(d) Any other prescribed officer.

(5.) Any one of the following officers shall be the discharging authority for the purposes of this section, namely,—

(a) The Commander-in-Chief,

(b) The Adjutant-General, and

(c) Any other prescribed officer.

Execution of sentences of penal servitude passed in India or a colony.

60. (1.) Where a sentence of penal servitude is passed by a court-martial in India or any colony, the military convict on whom such sentence has been passed shall, as soon as practicable, be transferred to a penal servitude prison to undergo his sentence according to law.

(2.) The order of the committing authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) shall be a sufficient warrant for his transfer to a penal servitude prison.

(3.) The military convict during the period which intervenes between the passing of his sentence and his arrival at the penal servitude prison (in this section referred to as the term of his intermediate custody) shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

(4.) The military convict during his term of intermediate custody may be kept in military custody or in civil custody, or partly in one description of custody and partly in the other, and may from time to time be transferred from military custody to civil custody and from civil custody to military custody as occasion may require, and may, during his conveyance from place to place, or when on board ship or otherwise, be subjected to such restraint as is necessary for his detention and removal.

(5.) "Civil custody," for the purposes of this section, means custody in any authorised prison; nevertheless, where it is not practicable to place the military convict in an authorised prison, he may, by way of civil custody, be confined temporarily in any other prison with the assent of the authority having jurisdiction over that prison.

(6.) The military convict whilst in any prison in which he may legally be placed may be dealt with, in respect of hard labour and otherwise, according to the rules of that prison.

(7.) An order of the removing authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) shall be a sufficient authority for the transfer of the military convict from military custody to civil custody and from civil custody to military custody, and his removal from place to place, and for his detention in civil custody, and generally for dealing with such convict in such manner as may be thought expedient during the term of his intermediate custody.

(8.) The removing authority during the term of the intermediate custody of the military convict may from time to time by order provide for his being brought before a court-martial, or any civil court, either as a witness or for trial or otherwise, and an order of such authority shall be a sufficient warrant for the delivering him into military custody, and detaining him in custody until he can be returned, and for returning him to the place from whence he is brought, or to such other place as may be determined by the removing authority.

(9.) Any directions of the removing authority relating to the mode in which the military convict is to be dealt with during the term of his intermediate custody may be contained in the same order or in several orders; and if the orders are more than one, they may be by different officers and at different times.

(10.) At any time before the military convict arrives at a penal servitude prison the discharging authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) may by order discharge the military convict.

(11.) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the committing authority for the purposes of this section; that is to say,

(a.) In India—

(i.) The Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India;

* * * * *

(iii.) The Adjutant-General in India; and

* * * * *

(b.) In a colony, the officer commanding the forces in that colony; and

(c.) In any case, whether in India or in a colony, the prescribed officer.

(12.) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the removing authority for the purposes of this section; that is to say,

(a.) Any officer in this section named as the committing authority; also

(b.) The officer commanding the military district or station where the military convict may for the time being be; also

(c.) Any other prescribed officer.

(13.) Any of the following officers shall be the discharging authority for the purposes of this section; that is to say,

(a.) The officer who confirmed the sentence; also

(b.) Any officer in this section named as the committing authority; also

(c.) Any other prescribed officer.

61. (1.) Where a sentence of penal servitude is passed by a court-martial in any foreign country, the military convict on whom such sentence has been passed shall as soon as practicable be transferred to a penal servitude prison for the purpose of undergoing his sentence according to law, and, until so transferred, may be kept in military custody. Execution of sentences of penal servitude passed in a foreign country.

(2.) The order of the committing authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) shall be a sufficient warrant for the transfer of the military convict to a penal servitude prison.

(3.) If at any time before his arrival in the United Kingdom the military convict is brought into India or any colony, he may be dealt with by the competent military authority in India or such colony in the same manner in all respects as if he had been there sentenced by court-martial to penal servitude.

(4.) The military convict may at any time before he arrives at any place in the United Kingdom, India, or any colony, be discharged by the discharging authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) having jurisdiction in any place where the military convict may for the time being be.

(5.) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the committing authority for the purposes of this section; that is to say,

(a.) The officer commanding the army or force with which the military convict was serving at the time of his being sentenced;

(b.) The officer who confirmed the sentence of the court;

(c.) Any other prescribed officer.

(6.) Any committing authority under this section shall also be the discharging authority for the purposes of this section.

62. (1.) A penal servitude prison for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to penal servitude means any prison or place in which a prisoner sentenced to penal servitude by a civil court in the United Kingdom can for the time being be confined, either permanently or temporarily. General provisions applicable to penal servitude.

(2.) An "authorised prison" for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to penal servitude means any prison in India or any colony which the Governor-General of India or the governor of such colony may, with the concurrence of a Secretary of State, have appointed as a prison in which military convicts may, during the period of their intermediate custody, be confined.

(3.) After a military convict has arrived at the penal servitude prison to undergo his sentence, he shall be dealt with in the like manner as an ordinary civil prisoner under sentence of penal servitude.

63. (1.) Where a sentence of imprisonment is passed by court-martial or a commanding officer, the person on whom such sentence has been passed (in the provisions of this Act relating to imprisonment referred to as a military prisoner) shall undergo the term of his imprisonment either in military custody or in a public prison, or partly in one way and partly in the other. Execution of sentences of imprisonment.

(2.) The order of the committing authority hereafter mentioned shall be a sufficient warrant for the transfer of a military prisoner to a public prison.

(3.) A military prisoner while in a public prison shall be confined, kept to hard labour, and otherwise dealt with in the like manner as an ordinary prisoner under a like sentence of imprisonment; and where the hospital or place for the reception of sick prisoners in such prison is detached from the prison may be detained in such hospital or place and conveyed to and from the same as circumstances require.

(4.) A military prisoner during his conveyance from place to place, or when on board ship or otherwise, may be subjected to such restraint as is necessary for his detention and removal.

(5.) The discharging authority hereafter mentioned may, at any time during the period of a military prisoner undergoing his imprisonment, by order discharge the prisoner.

(6.) The committing authority or any other prescribed authority may at any time by order remove a military prisoner from one public prison to another, so that he be not removed from a prison in the United Kingdom to a prison elsewhere.

(7.) The removing authority hereafter mentioned may, at any time during the period of the military prisoner undergoing his sentence in a public prison, from time to time, by order provide for his being brought before a court-martial, or any civil court, either as a witness, or for trial or otherwise, and an order of such authority shall be a sufficient warrant for delivering him into military custody and detaining him in custody until he can be returned and for returning him to the place from whence he is brought, or to such other place as may be determined by the removing authority.

Supplemental provisions as to sentences of imprisonment passed or being undergone in the United Kingdom.

64. Where a sentence of imprisonment is passed or is being undergone in the United Kingdom, then for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to imprisonment—

(1) The expression "public prison" means any prison in the United Kingdom in which offenders sentenced by a civil court to imprisonment can for the time being be confined:

(2) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the committing authority:

- (a) The Commander-in-Chief;
- (b) The Adjutant-General;
- (c) The officer who confirmed the sentence;
- (d) The commanding officer of the military prisoner; and
- (e) Any other prescribed officer:

(3) Any one of the following officers shall be the discharging authority:

- (a) The Commander-in-Chief;
- (b) The Adjutant-General;
- (c) The officer commanding the military district in which the prisoner may be;
- (d) The officer who confirmed the sentence;
- (e) Any other prescribed officer; also,
- (f) Where the sentence was passed by the commanding officer, the commanding officer:

(4) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the removing authority:

- (a) The Commander-in-Chief;
- (b) The Adjutant-General;
- (c) The officer commanding the military district in which the prisoner may be;
- (d) Any other prescribed officer; also,
- (e) Where the sentence was passed by the commanding officer, the commanding officer.

Supplemental provision as to sentences of imprisonment passed or being undergone in India or a colony.

65. Where a sentence of imprisonment is passed or being undergone in India or any colony, then, for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to imprisonment—

(1) The expression "public prison" means any of the following prisons; that is to say—

- (a) where the sentence was passed in India, any authorised prison in India;
- (b) where the sentence was passed in a colony, any authorised prison in that colony;
- (c) any such authorised prison in any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than that in which the sentence was passed as may be prescribed; and
- (d) any public prison in the United Kingdom as above defined for the purpose of the provisions of this Act relating to imprisonment in the United Kingdom:

(2) "Authorised prison" means any prison in India or any Colony which the Governor-General of India or the Governor of such colony, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, may have appointed as a prison in which military prisoners may be confined:

(3) A military prisoner may temporarily be confined in a prison not a public prison, with the assent of the authority having jurisdiction over such prison. And a military prisoner, who is to undergo his sentence in the United Kingdom until he reaches a prison in the United Kingdom, in which he is to undergo his sentence, may be kept in military custody or in civil custody, and partly in one description of custody and partly in the other, and may from time to time be transferred from military custody to civil custody, and from civil custody to military custody, as occasion may require.

(4) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the committing authority; that is to say,

(a) In India—

(i.) The Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India;

* * * * *

(iii.) The Adjutant-General in India; and

* * * * *

(b) In a colony, the officer commanding the forces in that colony; and

(c) In any case, whether in India or in a colony—

- (i.) The officer who confirmed the sentence;
- (ii.) The commanding officer of the military prisoner; and
- (iii.) Any other prescribed officer:

(5) Any of the following officers shall be the discharging authority:

- (a) The officer commanding the military district or station in which the prisoner may be;
- (b) Any officer in this section named as a committing authority, with this exception, that the commanding officer shall only be a discharging authority where the sentence was passed by a commanding officer; and
- (c) Any other prescribed officer:

(6) Any one or more of the following officers shall be the removing authority:

- (a) Any officer in this section named as a committing authority;
- (b) The officer commanding the military district or station where the prisoner may be; and
- (c) Any other prescribed officer. *

66. Where a sentence of imprisonment is passed by a court-martial or commanding officer in any foreign country, then if and as soon as the military prisoner on whom such sentence has been passed is brought into the United Kingdom or India, or any colony, the provisions of this Act shall apply in the same manner in all respects as if the sentence of imprisonment had been passed in the United Kingdom, India, or any colony, as the case may be, with this addition, that the officer commanding the army or force to which the military prisoner belonged at the time of his being sentenced shall also be deemed to be a committing authority.

Supplemental provision as to sentences of imprisonment passed in a foreign country.

67. (1.) The competent military authority (hereafter in this section mentioned) may give directions for the delivery into military custody of any military prisoner for the time being undergoing his sentence of imprisonment, and the removal of such prisoner, whether with his corps or separately, to any place beyond the seas where the corps, or any part thereof, to which for the time being he belongs, is serving or under orders to serve.

Removal of prisoner to place where corps is serving.

(2.) The directions of such competent military authority, or an order of the removing authority issued in pursuance of such directions, shall be sufficient authority for the removal of such prisoner from the prison in which he is confined, and for his conveyance in military custody to any place designated, and for his intermediate custody during such removal and conveyance.

(3.) The competent military authority may further give directions for the discharge of the prisoner either conditionally or unconditionally at any time while he is in military custody under this section.

(4.) For the purposes of this section any one or more of the following officers shall be the competent military authority:

(a) In the United Kingdom—

- (i.) The Commander-in-Chief;
- (ii.) The Adjutant-General; and
- (iii.) Any other prescribed officer:

(b) In India—

- (i.) The Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India;

* * * * *

- (iii.) The Adjutant-General in India; and

* * * * *

(c) In a colony, the officer commanding the forces in that colony; and

(d) In any case, whether in India or in a colony, the prescribed officer.

68. (1.) The term of penal servitude or imprisonment to which a person is sentenced by court-martial, whether the sentence has been revised or not, and whether the prisoner is already undergoing sentence or not, shall be reckoned to commence on the day on which the original sentence and proceedings were signed by the president of the court-martial.

Commencement of term of penal servitude or imprisonment.

(2.) An offender under this Act shall not be subject to imprisonment for more than two consecutive years, whether under one or more sentences.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Articles of War and Rules of Procedure.

69. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to make Articles of War for the better government of officers and soldiers, and such Articles shall be judicially taken notice of by all judges and in all courts whatsoever: Provided that no person shall, by such Articles of War, be subject to suffer any punishment extending to life or limb, or to be kept in penal servitude, except for crimes which are by this Act expressly made liable to such punishment as aforesaid, or be subject, with reference to any crimes made punishable by this Act, to be punished in any manner which does not accord with the provisions of this Act.

Power of Her Majesty to make Articles of War.

70. (1.) Subject to the provisions of this Act Her Majesty may, by rules to be signified under the hand of a Secretary of State, from time to time make, and when made repeal, alter, or add to, provisions in respect of the following matters or any of them; that is to say,

Power of Her Majesty to make rules of procedure.

- (a) The assembly and procedure of courts of inquiry;
- (b) The convening and constituting of courts-martial;
- (c) The adjournment, dissolution, and sittings of courts-martial;
- (d) The procedure to be observed in trials by court-martial;
- (e) The confirmation and revision of the findings and sentences of courts-martial, and enabling the authority having power under section fifty-seven of this Act to commute sentences to substitute a valid sentence for an invalid sentence of a court-martial;
- (f) The carrying into effect sentences of courts-martial;
- (g) The forms of orders to be made under the provisions of this Act relating to courts-martial, penal servitude, or imprisonment;
- (h) Any matter in this Act directed to be prescribed;
- (i) Any other matter or thing expedient or necessary for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution so far as relates to the investigation, trial, and punishment of offences triable or punishable by military law.

(2.) Provided always, that no such rules shall contain anything contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

(3.) All rules made in pursuance of this section shall be judicially noticed.

(4.) All rules made in pursuance of this section shall be laid before Parliament as soon as practicable after they are made, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, as soon as practicable after the beginning of the then next session of Parliament.

Command.

71. (1.) For the purpose of removing doubts as to the powers of command vested or to be vested in officers and others belonging to Her Majesty's forces, it is hereby declared that Her Majesty may, in such manner as to Her Majesty may from time to time seem meet, make regulations as to the persons to be invested as officers, or otherwise, with command over Her Majesty's forces, or any part thereof, or any person belonging thereto, and as to the mode in which such command is to be exercised; provided that command shall not be given to any person over a person superior in rank to himself.

Removal of doubts as to military command.

(2.) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to be in derogation of any power otherwise vested in Her Majesty.

Inquiry as to and Confession of Desertion.

Inquiry by court on absence of
soldier.

72. (1.) When any soldier has been absent without leave from his duty for a period of twenty-one days, a court of inquiry may as soon as practicable be assembled, and inquire in the prescribed manner on oath or solemn declaration (which such court is hereby authorised to administer) respecting the fact of such absence, and the deficiency (if any) in the arms, ammunition, equipments, instruments, regimental necessaries, or clothing of the soldier, and if satisfied of the fact of such soldier having absented himself without leave or other sufficient cause, the court shall declare such absence and the period thereof, and the said deficiency, if any, and the commanding officer of the absent soldier shall enter in the regimental books a record of the declaration of such court.

(2.) If the absent soldier does not afterwards surrender or is not apprehended, such record shall have the legal effect of a conviction by court-martial for desertion.

Confession by
desertion or
enlistment.

73. (1.) Where a soldier signs a confession that he has been guilty of desertion or of fraudulent enlistment, a competent military authority may, by the order dispensing with his trial by a court-martial, or by any subsequent order, award the same forfeitures and the same deductions from pay (if any) as a court-martial could award for the said offence, or as are consequential upon conviction by a court-martial for the said offence, except such of them as may be mentioned in the order.

(2.) If upon any such confession, evidence of the truth or falsehood of such confession cannot then be conveniently obtained, the record of such confession, countersigned by the commanding officer of the soldier, shall be entered in the regimental books, and such soldier shall continue to do duty in the corps in which he may then be serving, or in any other corps to which he may be transferred, until he is discharged or transferred to the reserve, or until legal proof can be obtained of the truth or falsehood of such confession.

(3.) The competent military authority for the purposes of this section means the Commander-in-Chief or Adjutant-General, or any general or other officer commanding a military district or, in the case of India, the Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India, and in the case of a colony and elsewhere the general or other officer commanding the forces, subject in the case of India, or a colony, or elsewhere, to any directions given by the Commander-in-Chief.

Provost-marshal.

marshal.

74. (1.) For the prompt repression of all offences which may be committed abroad, provost-marshals with assistants may from time to time be appointed by the general order of the general officer commanding a body of forces.

(2.) A provost-marshal or his assistants may at any time arrest and detain for trial persons subject to military law committing offences, and may also carry into execution any punishments to be inflicted in pursuance of a court-martial, but shall not inflict any punishment of his or their own authority.

Restitution of Stolen Property.

Power as to
stolen property.

75. (1.) Where a person has been convicted by court-martial of having stolen, embezzled, received, knowing it to be stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained, any property, and the property or any part thereof is found in the possession of the offender, the authority confirming the finding and sentence of such court-martial, or the Commander-in-Chief, may order the property so found to be restored to the person appearing to be the lawful owner thereof.

(2.) A like order may be made with respect to any property found in the possession of such offender, which appears to the confirming authority or Commander-in-Chief to have been obtained by the conversion or exchange of any of the property stolen, embezzled, received, or unlawfully obtained.

(3.) Moreover where it appears to the confirming authority or Commander-in-Chief from the evidence given before the court-martial, that any part of the property stolen, embezzled, received, or unlawfully obtained was sold to or pawned with any person without any guilty knowledge on the part of the person purchasing or taking in pawn the property, the authority or Commander-in-Chief may, on the application of that person, and on the restitution of the said property to the owner thereof, order that out of the money (if any) found in the possession of the offender, a sum not exceeding the amount of the proceeds of the said sale or pawning shall be paid to the said person purchasing or taking in pawn.

(4.) An order under this section shall not bar the right of any person, other than the offender, or any one claiming through him, to recover any property or money delivered or paid in pursuance of an order under this section from the person to whom the same is so delivered or paid.

PART II.—ENLISTMENT.Period of Service.

Limit of original enlistment.

76. A person may be enlisted to serve Her Majesty as a soldier of the regular forces for a period of twelve years, or for such less period as may be from time to time fixed by Her Majesty, but not for any longer period, and the period for which a person enlists is in this Act referred to as the term of his original enlistment.

Terms of
enlistment.

77. The original enlistment of a person under this Act shall be as follows, either—

- (1) For the whole of the term of his original enlistment in army service; or
- (2) For such portion of the term of his original enlistment as may be from time to time fixed by a Secretary of State, and specified in the attestation paper, in army service, and for the residue of the said term in the reserve.

Change of
service.

78. (1.) A Secretary of State may from time to time, by general or special regulations, vary the conditions of service, so as to permit a soldier of the regular forces in army service, with his assent, either—

- (a) To enter the reserve at once for the residue unexpired of the term of his original enlistment; or
- (b) To extend his army service for all or any part of the residue unexpired of such term; or
- (c) To extend the term of his original enlistment up to the period of twelve years.

(2.) A Secretary of State may from time to time, by general or special regulations, vary the conditions of service so as to permit a man in the reserve, with his assent, to re-enter upon army service for all or any part of the residue unexpired of the term of his original enlistment, or for any period of time not exceeding twelve years in the whole from the date of his original enlistment.

79. In reckoning the service of a soldier of the regular forces for the purpose of discharge or of transfer to the reserve—

Reckoning and forfeiture of service.

- (1.) The service shall begin to reckon from the date of his attestation; but
- (2.) Where a soldier of the regular forces has been guilty of any of the following offences:
 - (a) Desertion from Her Majesty's service, or
 - (b) Fraudulent enlistment, then either upon his conviction by court-martial of the offence, or (if, having confessed the offence, he is liable to be tried) upon his trial being dispensed with by order of the competent military authority, the whole of his prior service shall be forfeited, and he shall be liable to serve as a soldier of the regular forces for the term of his original enlistment, reckoned from the date of such conviction or such order dispensing with trial, in like manner as if he had been originally attested at that date:

Provided that a Secretary of State may restore all or any part of the service forfeited under this section to any soldier who may perform good and faithful service, or may otherwise be deemed by such Secretary of State to merit such restoration of service, or may be recommended for such restoration of service by a court-martial.

Proceedings for Enlistment.

80. (1.) Every person authorised to enlist recruits in the regular forces (in this Act referred to as the "recruiter") shall give to every person offering to enlist a notice in the form for the time being authorised by a Secretary of State, stating the general requirements of attestation and the general conditions of the contract to be entered into by the recruit, and directing such person to appear before a justice of the peace either forthwith or at the time and place therein mentioned.

Mode of enlistment and attestation.

(2.) Upon the appearance before a justice of the peace of a person offering to enlist, the justice shall ask him whether he has been served with and understands the notice and whether he assents to be enlisted, and shall not proceed with the enlistment if he considers the recruit under the influence of liquor.

(3.) If he does not appear before a justice, or on appearing does not assent to be enlisted, no further proceedings shall be taken.

(4.) If he assents to be enlisted—

- (a) The justice, after cautioning such person that if he makes any false answer to the questions read to him he will be liable to be punished as provided by this Act, shall read or cause to be read to him the questions set forth in the attestation paper for the time being authorised by a Secretary of State, and shall take care that such person understands each question so read, and after ascertaining that the answer of such person to each question has been duly recorded opposite the same in the attestation paper, shall require him to make and sign the declaration as to the truth of those answers set forth in the said paper, and shall then administer to him the oath of allegiance contained in the said paper:
- (b) Upon signing the declaration and taking the oath, such person shall be deemed to be enlisted as a soldier of Her Majesty's regular forces:
- (c) The justice shall attest by his signature, in manner required by the said paper, the fulfilment of the requirements as to attesting a recruit, and shall deliver the attestation paper, duly dated, to the recruiter:
- (d) The fee for the attestation of a recruit, and for all acts and things incidental thereto, shall be one shilling and no more, and shall be paid to the clerk of the justice:
- (e) The officer who finally approves of a recruit for service shall, at his request, furnish him with a certified copy of his attestation paper.

(5.) The date at which the recruit signs the declaration and takes the oath in this section in that behalf mentioned shall be deemed to be the date of the attestation of such recruit.

(6.) The competent military authority, if satisfied that there is any error in the attestation paper of a recruit, may cause the recruit to attend before some justice of the peace, and that justice, if satisfied that such error exists, and is not so material as to render it just that the recruit should be discharged, may amend the error in the attestation paper, and the paper as amended shall thereupon be deemed as valid as if the matter of the amendment had formed part of the original matter of such paper.

(7.) Where the regulations of a Secretary of State under this part of this Act require duplicate attestation papers to be signed and attested, this section shall apply to both such duplicates, and in the event of any amendment of an attestation paper the amendment shall be made in both of the duplicate attestation papers.

81. If a recruit within three months after the date of his attestation pays for the use of Her Majesty a sum not exceeding ten pounds, he shall be discharged with all convenient speed, unless he claims such discharge during a period when soldiers in army service who otherwise would be transferred to the reserve are required by a proclamation of Her Majesty in pursuance of this Act to continue in army service, in which case he may be retained in Her Majesty's service during that period, and at the termination thereof shall, if he so require it, on the payment then of the said sum, be discharged.

Power of recruit to purchase discharge.

Appointment to Corps and Transfers.

82. (1.) Recruits may, in pursuance of any general or special regulations from time to time made by a Secretary of State, be enlisted for service in particular corps of the regular forces, but save as is provided by such regulations, if any, recruits shall be enlisted for general service.

Enlistment for general service and appointment to corps.

(2.) The competent military authority shall as soon as practicable appoint a recruit, if enlisted for service in a particular corps, to that corps, and if enlisted for general service, to some corps of the regular forces.

83. A soldier of the regular forces, whether enlisted for general service or not, when once appointed to a corps, shall serve in that corps for the period of his army service, whether during the term of his original enlistment or during the period of such re-engagement as is in this Act mentioned, unless transferred under the following provisions:

Effect of appointment to a corps and provision for transfer.

(1.) A soldier of the regular forces enlisted for general service may within three months after the date of his attestation be transferred to any corps of the regular forces of the same arm or branch of the service by order of the competent military authority.

(2.) A soldier of the regular forces may at any time with his own consent be transferred by order of the competent military authority to any corps of the regular forces.

(3.) Where a soldier of the regular forces is in pursuance of any of the foregoing provisions transferred to a corps in an arm or branch different from that in which he was previously serving, the competent military authority may by order vary the conditions of his service so as to correspond with the general conditions of service in the arm or branch to which he is transferred.

(4.) A soldier of the regular forces in any branch of the service may be transferred by order of the competent military authority to any corps of the same branch which is serving in the United Kingdom in either of the following cases:

(a) When he has been invalided from service beyond the seas; or

(b) When, in the case of his corps or the part thereof in which he is serving being ordered on service beyond the seas, he is either unfit for such service by reason of his health, or is within two years from the end either of the period of his army service in the term of his original enlistment, or of such re-engagement as is in this Act mentioned.

(5.) Where a soldier of the regular forces in any branch of the service, who was enlisted to serve part of the term of his original enlistment in the reserve, and has not extended his army service for the whole of that time, is on service beyond the seas, and at the time of his corps or the part thereof in which he is serving being ordered to another station or to return home has more than two years of his army service in the term of his original enlistment unexpired, he may be transferred by order of the competent military authority to any corps of the same branch which or a part of which is on service beyond the seas.

(6.) Where a soldier of the regular forces has been transferred to serve, either as a warrant officer not holding an honorary commission, or in the corps of armourer sergeants, or in the army hospital corps, or in the army service corps, or on the staff, or in the corps of mounted military police, or in any corps not being a corps of infantry, cavalry, artillery, or engineers, he may by order of the competent military authority, either during the term of his original enlistment or during the period of his re-engagement, be removed from such service and transferred to any corps of the regular forces serving in the United Kingdom, or to any corps of the regular forces serving on the station beyond the seas on which he is serving at the time of his removal, or to the corps of the regular forces in which he was serving prior to such first-mentioned transfer, either in the rank he holds at the time of his removal or any lower rank.

(7.) Where a soldier of the regular forces—

(a) Has been guilty of the offence of desertion from Her Majesty's service or of fraudulent enlistment, and has either been convicted of the same by a court-martial, or, having confessed the offence, is liable to be tried, but his trial has been dispensed with by order of the competent military authority; or

(b) Has been sentenced by a court-martial for any offence to a punishment not less than imprisonment for a term of six months, such soldier shall be liable, in commutation wholly or partly of other punishment, to general service and may from time to time be transferred to such corps of the regular forces as the competent military authority may from time to time order.

(8.) A soldier of the regular forces delivered into military custody or committed by a court of summary jurisdiction in any part of Her Majesty's dominions as a deserter shall be liable to be transferred by order of the competent military authority to any corps of the regular forces near to the place where he is delivered or committed, or to any other corps to which the competent military authority think it desirable to transfer him, and to serve in the corps to which he is so transferred without prejudice to his subsequent trial and punishment.

Re-engagement and Prolongation of Service.

Re-engagement of soldiers.

84. (1.) Subject to any general or special regulations from time to time made by a Secretary of State, a soldier of the regular forces, if in army service, and after the expiration of nine years from the date of his original term of enlistment, may on the recommendation of his commanding officer, and with the approval of the competent military authority, be re-engaged for such further period of army service as will make up a total continuous period of twenty-one years of army service, reckoned from the date of his attestation, and inclusive of any period previously served in the reserve.

(2.) A soldier of the regular forces during his period of re-engagement shall be liable to forfeit his previous service during such period of re-engagement in like manner as he is liable under this part of this Act during the term of his original enlistment.

(3.) A soldier of the regular forces who so re-engages shall make before his commanding officer a declaration in accordance with the said regulations.

Continuance in service after twenty-one years' service.

85. A soldier of the regular forces who has completed, or will within one year complete, a total period of twenty-one years' service, inclusive of any period served in the reserve, may give notice to his commanding officer of his desire to continue in Her Majesty's service in the regular forces; and if the competent military authority approve he may be continued as a soldier of the regular forces in the same manner in all respects as if his term of service were still unexpired, except that he may claim his discharge at the expiration of any period of three months after he has given notice to his commanding officer of his wish to be discharged.

Re-engagement and continuance of service of non-commissioned officers.

86. The regulations from time to time made in pursuance of this part of this Act may, if it seems expedient, provide that a non-commissioned officer of the regular forces who extends his army service for the residue unexpired of his original term of enlistment shall have the right at his option to re-engage, under section eighty-four, and to continue his service, under section eighty-five of this Act, or to do either of such things, subject, nevertheless, to the veto of the Secretary of State or other authority mentioned in the regulations, and to such other conditions as are specified in the regulations.

Prolongation of
certain cases.

87. (1.) Where the time at which a soldier of the regular forces would otherwise be entitled to be discharged occurs while a state of war exists between Her Majesty and any foreign power, or while such soldier is on service beyond the seas, or while soldiers in the reserve are required by a proclamation, in pursuance of the enactments relating to the calling out of the reserve on permanent service, to continue in or re-enter upon army service, the soldier may be detained, and his service may be prolonged for such further period, not exceeding twelve months, as the competent military authority may order; but at the expiration of that period, or any earlier period at which the competent military authority considers his services can be dispensed with, the soldier shall, as provided by this Act, be discharged with all convenient speed.

(2.) Where the time at which a soldier of the regular forces would otherwise be entitled to be transferred to the reserve occurs while a state of war exists between Her Majesty and any foreign power, the soldier may be detained in army service for such further period, not exceeding twelve months, as the competent military authority may order, but at the expiration of that period, or any earlier period at which the competent military authority considers his services can be dispensed with, the soldier shall with all convenient speed be sent to the United Kingdom for the purpose of being transferred to the reserve.

(3.) If a soldier required under this section to be discharged or sent to the United Kingdom desires, while a state of war exists between Her Majesty and any foreign power, to continue in Her Majesty's service, and the competent military authority approve, he may agree to continue as a soldier of the regular forces in the same manner in all respects as if his term of service were still unexpired, except that he may claim his discharge at the end of such state of war, or, if it is so provided by such agreement, at the expiration of any period of three months after he has given notice to his commanding officer of his wish to be discharged.

(4.) A soldier who so agrees to continue shall make before his commanding officer a declaration in accordance with any general or special regulations from time to time made by a Secretary of State.

88. (1.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council in case of imminent national danger or of great emergency, by proclamation, the occasion being first communicated to Parliament if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting declared by the proclamation, to order that the soldiers who would otherwise be entitled in pursuance of the terms of their enlistment to be transferred to the reserve shall continue in army service.

In imminent national danger, Her Majesty may continue soldiers in army service or call out reserve for permanent service.

(2.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty by any such proclamation to order a Secretary of State from time to time to give, and when given to revoke or vary, such directions as may seem necessary or proper for causing all or any of the soldiers mentioned in the proclamation to continue in army service.

(3.) Every soldier for the time being required by or in pursuance of such directions to continue in army service shall continue to serve in army service for the same period for which he might be required to serve, if he had been transferred to the reserve and called out for permanent service by a proclamation of Her Majesty under the enactments relating to the reserve.

(4.) Any man who has entered the reserve in pursuance of the terms of his enlistment may be called out for permanent service by a proclamation of Her Majesty under the enactments relating to the calling out of the reserve on permanent service.

Discharge and Transfer to Reserve Force.

89. In the following cases; that is to say,

(1.) Where a soldier of the regular forces has been invalided from service beyond the seas; or

(2.) Where a corps to which a soldier of the regular forces belongs, or the part thereof in which he is serving, is ordered on service beyond the seas, and the soldier is either unfit for such service by reason of his health, or is within two years of the end of the period of his army service in the term of his original enlistment, Transfer of soldier to reserve when corps ordered abroad.

the competent military authority may by order transfer him to the reserve in like manner as if the period of his actual service were specified in his attestation paper as the portion of the term of his original enlistment which was to be spent in army service.

90. (1.) Save as otherwise provided by this Act or the Acts relating to the reserve forces, every soldier of the regular forces upon the completion of the term of his original enlistment, or of the period of his re-engagement, shall be discharged with all convenient speed, but until so discharged shall be subject to this Act as a soldier of the regular forces.

Discharged or transferred to reserve.

(2.) Where a soldier of the regular forces enlisted in the United Kingdom is, when entitled to be discharged, serving beyond the seas, he shall, if he so requires, be sent to the United Kingdom, and in such case shall, with all convenient speed, be sent there free of expense, and on his arrival be discharged. If such soldier is permitted, at his request, to stay at the place where he is serving, he shall not afterwards have any claim to be sent at the public expense to the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

(3.) Every soldier of the regular forces upon the completion of the period of his army service, if shorter than the term of his original enlistment, shall be transferred to the reserve, but until so transferred shall be subject to this Act as a soldier of the regular forces.

(4.) Where a soldier of the regular forces, when entitled to be transferred to the reserve, is serving beyond the seas, he shall be sent to the United Kingdom free of expense with all convenient speed, and on his arrival shall be transferred to the reserve.

(5.) A soldier of the regular forces who is discharged on the completion of the term of his original enlistment or his re-engagement, as mentioned in the second subsection of this section, or is transferred to the reserve, shall be entitled to be conveyed free of cost from the place in the United Kingdom where he is discharged or transferred to the place in which he appears from his attestation paper to have been attested, or to any place to which he may at the time of his discharge or transfer decide to take up his residence, and to which he can be conveyed without greater cost. Provided that in the case of transfer to the reserve he shall not be entitled to be so conveyed to any place out of the United Kingdom.

91. (1.) A Secretary of State may, if he think proper, on account of a soldier's lunacy, cause any soldier of the regular forces on his discharge, and his wife and child, or any of them, to be sent to the parish or union to which under the statutes for the time being in force he appears, from the statements made in his attestation paper and other available information, to be chargeable; and such soldier, wife, or child, if delivered after reasonable notice, in England or Ireland at the workhouse in which persons settled in such parish or union are received, and in Scotland to the inspector of poor of such parish, shall be received by the master or other proper officer of such workhouse, or such inspector of poor as the case may be.

Delivery of lunatic soldier on discharge with his wife or child at workhouse or of dangerous lunatic at asylum.

(2.) Provided that a Secretary of State, where it appears to him that any such soldier is a dangerous lunatic, and is in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by his removal, may, by order signified under his hand or under the hand of an under-secretary, send such lunatic direct to an asylum, registered hospital, licensed house, or other place in which pauper lunatics can legally be confined, and for the purpose of the said order the above-mentioned parish or union shall be deemed to be the parish or union from which such lunatic is sent.

c. 5.

(3.) In England the lunatic shall be sent to the asylum, hospital, house, or place to which a person in the workhouse aforesaid, on becoming a dangerous lunatic, can by law be removed, and an order of the Secretary of State under this section shall be of the same effect as a summary reception order within the meaning of the Lunacy Act, 1890, and the like proceedings shall be taken thereon as on an order under that section.

25 & 26 Vict.
c. 54.

(4.) The Secretary of State, before making the said order in respect of a lunatic who is liable to be delivered to the inspector of poor of a parish in Scotland, may require the inspector of poor of that parish to specify the asylum to which such lunatic, if in the parish, would be sent, and it shall be the duty of such inspector forthwith to specify such asylum, and thereupon the Secretary of State may make the said order for sending the lunatic to that asylum, and such order shall be of the same effect as an order by the sheriff within the meaning of section fifteen of the Lunacy (Scotland) Act, 1862, and the like proceeding shall be taken thereon as on an order under that section.

(5.) In the case of any such lunatic, who is liable to be delivered at a workhouse in Ireland, at which persons settled in the said union are received, a Secretary of State may, by order under his hand, send such lunatic to the asylum of the district in which such union is situate, and such order shall be of the same effect as a warrant under the hands and seals of two justices given under the provisions of the tenth section of the Act of the session of the thirtieth and thirty-first years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and eighteen, intituled "An Act to provide for the appointment of the officers and servants of district lunatic asylums in Ireland, and to alter and amend the law relating to the custody of dangerous lunatics and dangerous idiots in Ireland."

Regulations as
soldiers.

92. (1.) A soldier of the regular forces shall not be discharged from those forces, unless by sentence of court-martial with ignominy, or by order of the competent military authority, or by authority direct from Her Majesty, and until duly discharged in manner provided by this Act and by regulations of the Secretary of State under this Act shall be subject to this Act.

(2.) To every soldier of the regular forces who is discharged, for whatever reason he is discharged, there shall be given a certificate of discharge, stating such particulars as may be from time to time required by regulations of a Secretary of State under this Act.

Authorities to enlist and attest Recruits.

Regulations as to persons to enlist and enlistment of soldiers.

93. A Secretary of State may from time to time make and when made revoke and alter a general or special order making such regulations, giving such directions, and issuing such forms as he may think necessary or expedient respecting the persons authorised to enlist recruits for Her Majesty's regular forces, and for the purpose of such enlistment, and generally for carrying this part of this Act into effect; and any such order shall be of the same effect as if enacted in this Act.

Justices of the
purposes of enlistment.

94. For the purposes of the attestation of soldiers in pursuance of this part of this Act—

An officer in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, if authorised in that behalf under the regulations of a Secretary of State, also every person exercising the office of a magistrate in India or a colony, and also each of the following persons, shall have the authority of a justice of the peace, and be deemed to be included in the expression "justice of the peace" wherever used in this part of this Act in relation to the attestation of soldiers; that is to say,

In India, any person duly authorised in that behalf by the Governor-General; and in the territories of any native state in India, the person performing the duties of the office of British resident or political agent therein, or any other person authorised in that behalf by the Governor-General of India; and

In a colony, any person duly authorised in that behalf by the governor of the colony; and

Beyond the limits of the United Kingdom, India, and a colony, any British consul-general, consul, or vice-consul, or person duly exercising the authority of a British consul.

Special Provisions as to Persons to be enlisted.

Enlistment of aliens, negroes,
&c.

95. (1.) Any person who is for the time being an alien may, if Her Majesty think fit to signify her consent through a Secretary of State, be enlisted in Her Majesty's regular forces, so however that the number of aliens serving together at any one time in any corps of the regular forces shall not exceed the proportion of one alien to every fifty British subjects, and that an alien so enlisted shall not be capable of holding any higher rank in Her Majesty's regular forces than that of a warrant officer or non-commissioned officer:

(2.) Provided that notwithstanding the above provisions of this section any negro or person of colour, although an alien, may voluntarily enlist in pursuance of this part of this Act, and when so enlisted shall while serving in Her Majesty's regular forces be deemed to be entitled to all the privileges of a natural-born British subject.

Claims of
apprentices.

96. The master of an apprentice in the United Kingdom who has been attested as a soldier of the regular forces may claim him while under the age of twenty-one years as follows, and not otherwise:

(1) The master, within one month after the apprentice left his service, must take before a justice of the peace the oath in that behalf specified in the First Schedule to this Act, and obtain from the justice a certificate of having taken such oath, which certificate the justice shall give in the form in the said schedule, or to the like effect:

(2) A court of summary jurisdiction within whose jurisdiction the apprentice may be, if satisfied on complaint by the master that he is entitled to have the apprentice delivered up to him, may order the officer under whose command the apprentice is to deliver him to the master, but if satisfied that the apprentice stated on his attestation that he was not an apprentice may, and if required by or on behalf of the said commanding officer shall, try the apprentice for the offence of making such false statement, and if need be may adjourn the case for the purpose:

(3) Except in pursuance of an order of a court of summary jurisdiction, an apprentice shall not be taken from Her Majesty's service:

(4) An apprentice shall not be claimed in pursuance of this section unless he was bound for at least four years by a regular indenture, and was under the age of sixteen years when so bound:

- (5) A master who gives up the indenture of his apprentice within one month after the attestation of such apprentice shall be entitled to receive to his own use so much of the bounty (if any) payable to such apprentice on enlistment as has not been paid to the apprentice before notice was given of his being an apprentice.

97. The provisions of this part of this Act with respect to apprentices shall apply to a person who at the time of his attestation is an indentured labourer in a colony, with these qualifications, that such indentured labourer, if imported at the expense of the employer or of the colony in consideration of the indenture under which he is serving, may be claimed although above the age of twenty-one years, and though bound for a less period or at an older age than is above specified.

Offences as to Enlistment.

98. If a person without due authority—

- (1) Publishes or causes to be published notices or advertisements for the purpose of procuring recruits for Her Majesty's regular forces, or in relation to recruits for such forces; or
- (2) Opens or keeps any house, place of rendezvous, or office as connected with the recruiting of such forces; or
- (3) Receives any person under any such advertisement as aforesaid; or
- (4) Directly or indirectly interferes with the recruiting service of such forces, Penalty on unlawful recruiting.

he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

99. (1.) If a person knowingly makes a false answer to any question contained in the attestation paper, which has been put to him by or by direction of the justice before whom he appears for the purpose of being attested, he shall be liable on summary conviction to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding three months.

Recruits punishable for false answers.

(2.) If a person guilty of an offence under this section has been attested as a soldier of the regular forces, he shall be liable, at the discretion of the competent military authority, to be proceeded against before a court of summary jurisdiction, or to be tried by court-martial for the offence.

Miscellaneous as to Enlistment.

100. (1.) Where a person after his attestation on his enlistment or the making of his declaration on re-engagement, has received pay as a soldier of the regular forces during three months, he shall be deemed to have been duly attested and enlisted or duly re-engaged, as the case may be, and shall not be entitled to claim his discharge on the ground of any error or illegality in his enlistment, attestation, or re-engagement, or on any other ground whatsoever, save as authorised by this Act, and if within the said three months such person claims his discharge, any such error or illegality or other ground shall not until such person is discharged in pursuance of his claim affect his position as a soldier in Her Majesty's service, or invalidate any proceedings, act, or thing taken or done prior to such discharge.

Validity of attestation and enlistment or re-engagement.

(2.) Where a person is in pay as a soldier in any corps of Her Majesty's regular forces, such person shall be deemed for all the purposes of this Act to be a soldier of the regular forces, with this qualification, that he may at any time claim his discharge, but until he so claims and is discharged in pursuance of that claim he shall be subject to this Act as a soldier of the regular forces legally enlisted and duly attested under this Act.

(3.) Where a person claims his discharge on the ground that he has not been attested or re-engaged, or not duly attested or re-engaged, his commanding officer shall forthwith forward such claim to the competent military authority, who shall as soon as practicable submit it to a Secretary of State, and if the claim appears well grounded the claimant shall be discharged with all convenient speed.

101. (1.) Any act authorised or required by this part of this Act to be done by, to, or before the competent military authority may be done by, to, or before the commander-in-chief or the adjutant-general, or any officer prescribed in that behalf.

Definition for purposes of Part Two of competent military authority and reserve.

(2.) For the purposes of this part of this Act the expression "reserve" means the first class of the army reserve force.

PART III.—BILLETING AND IMPRESSMENT OF CARRIAGES.

Billeting of Officers and Soldiers.

102. During the continuance in force of this Act, so much of any law as prohibits, restricts, or regulates the quartering or billeting of officers and soldiers on any inhabitant of this realm without his consent is hereby suspended, so far as such quartering or billeting is authorised by this Act.

Suspension of 3 Chas 1 c. 1; 31 Chas. 2 c. 1; 6 Anne (I.) c. 14, as to billeting.

103. (1.) Every constable for the time being in charge at any place in the United Kingdom mentioned in the route issued to the commanding officer of any portion of Her Majesty's regular forces shall, on the demand of such commanding officer, or of an officer or soldier authorised by him, and on production of such route, billet on the occupiers of victualling houses and other premises specified in this Act as victualling houses in that place such number of officers, soldiers, and horses entitled under this Act to be billeted as are mentioned in the route and stated to require quarters.

Obligation of constable to provide billets for officers, soldiers, and horses.

(2.) A route for the purposes of this part of this Act shall be issued under the authority of Her Majesty, signified through a Secretary of State, and shall state the forces to be moved in pursuance of the route, and that statement shall be signed by such officer as the commander-in-chief may from time to time order in that behalf.

(3.) A route purporting to be issued and signed as required by this section shall be evidence until the contrary is proved of its having been duly issued and signed in pursuance of this Act, and if delivered to an officer or soldier by his commanding officer shall be a sufficient authority to such officer or soldier to demand billets, and when produced by an officer or soldier to a constable shall be conclusive evidence to such constable of the authority of the officer or soldier producing the same to demand billets in accordance with such route.

104. (1.) The provisions of this part of this Act with respect to victualling houses shall extend to all inns, hotels, livery stables, or ale houses, also to the houses of sellers of wine by retail, whether British or foreign, to be drunk in their own houses or places thereunto belonging, and to all houses of persons selling brandy, spirits, strong waters, cider, or metheglin by retail; and the occupier of a victualling house, inn, hotel, livery stable, ale house, or any such house as aforesaid shall be subject to billets under this Act, and is in this Act included under the expression "keeper of a victualling house," and the inn, hotel, house, stables, and premises of such occupier are in this Act included under the expression "victualling house."

Liability to provide billets.

(2.) Provided that an officer or soldier shall not be billeted—

- (a) In any private house; nor
- (b) In any canteen held or occupied under the authority of a Secretary of State; nor
- (c) On persons who keep taverns only, being vintners of the City of London admitted to their freedom of the said company in right of patrimony or apprenticeship, notwithstanding the persons who keep such taverns have taken out licenses for the sale of any intoxicating liquor; nor
- (d) In the house of any distiller kept for distilling brandy and strong waters, so as such distiller does not permit tipping in such house; nor
- (e) In the house of any shopkeeper whose principal dealing is more in other goods and merchandise than in brandy and strong waters, so as such shopkeeper does not permit tipping in such house; nor
- (f) In a house of a person licensed only to sell beer or cider not to be consumed on the premises; nor
- (g) In the house of residence of any foreign consul duly accredited as such.

Officers, soldiers, and horses entitled to be billeted.

105. (1.) All officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's regular forces; and

(2.) All horses belonging to Her Majesty's regular forces; and

(3.) All horses belonging to the officers of such forces for which forage is for the time being allowed by Her Majesty's regulations, shall be entitled to be billeted.

Accommodation and payment on billet.

106. (1.) The keeper of a victualling house upon whom any officer, soldier, or horse is billeted shall receive such officer, soldier, or horse in his victualling house, and furnish there the accommodation following; that is to say, lodging and attendance for the officer; and lodging, attendance, and food for the soldier; and stable room and forage for the horse, in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule to this Act.

(2.) Where the keeper of a victualling house on whom any officer, soldier, or horse is billeted desires, by reason of his want of accommodation or of his victualling house being full or otherwise, to be relieved from the liability to receive such officer, soldier, or horse in his victualling house, and provides for such officer, soldier, or horse in the immediate neighbourhood such good and sufficient accommodation as he is required by this Act to provide, and as is approved by the constable issuing the billets, he shall be relieved from providing the same in his victualling house.

(3.) There shall be paid to the keeper of a victualling house for the accommodation furnished by him in pursuance of this Act the prices for the time being authorised in this behalf by Parliament.

(4.) An officer or soldier demanding billets in pursuance of this Act shall, before he departs, and if he remains longer than four days, at least once in every four days, pay the just demands of every keeper of a victualling house on whom he and any officers and soldiers under his command, and his or their horses (if any) have been billeted.

(5.) If by reason of a sudden order to march, or otherwise, an officer or soldier is not able to make such payment to any keeper of a victualling house as is above required, he shall before he departs make up with such keeper of a victualling house an account of the amount due to him, and sign the same, and forthwith transmit the account so signed to a Secretary of State, who shall forthwith cause the amount named in such account as due to be paid.

Annual list of keepers of victualling
billets.

107. (1.) The police authority for any place may cause annually a list to be made out of all keepers of victualling houses within the meaning of this Act in such place, or any particular part thereof, liable to billets under this Act, specifying the situation and character of each victualling house, and the number of soldiers and horses who may be billeted on the keeper thereof.

(2.) The police authority shall cause such list to be kept at some convenient place open for inspection at all reasonable times by persons interested, and any person who feels aggrieved either by being entered in such list, or by being entered to receive an undue proportion of officers, soldiers, or horses, may complain to a court of summary jurisdiction, and the court, after such notice as the court think necessary to persons interested, may order the list to be amended in such manner as the court may think just.

to grant of billets.

108. The following regulations shall be observed with respect to billeting in pursuance of this Act; that is to say,

- (1) No more billets shall at any time be ordered than there are effective officers, soldiers, and horses present to be billeted:
- (2) All billets, when made out by the constable, shall be delivered into the hands of the commanding officer or non-commissioned officer who demanded the billets, or of some officer authorised by such commanding officer.
- (3) If a keeper of a victualling house feels aggrieved by having an undue proportion of officers, soldiers, or horses billeted on him, he may apply to a justice of the peace, or if the billets have been made out by a justice may complain to a court of summary jurisdiction, and the justice or court may order such of the officers, soldiers, or horses to be removed and to be billeted elsewhere as may seem just:
- (4) A constable having authority in a place mentioned in the route may act for the purposes of billeting in any locality within one mile from such place, unless some constable ordinarily having authority in such locality is present and undertakes to billet therein the due proportion of officers, soldiers, and horses:
- (5) The regulations with respect to billets contained in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be duly observed by the constable:
- (6) A justice of the peace on the request of an officer or non-commissioned officer authorised to demand billets, may vary a route by adding any place or omitting any place, and also may direct billets to be given above one mile from a place mentioned in the route:
- (7) A justice of the peace may require a constable to give an account in writing of the number of officers, soldiers, and horses billeted by such constable, together with the names of the keepers of victualling houses on whom such officers, soldiers, and horses are billeted, and the locality of such victualling houses.

Offences in relation to Billeting.

109. If a constable commits any of the offences following; that is to say,

Offences by constables.

- (1) Billets any officer, soldier, or horse, on any person not liable to billets without the consent of such person; or
- (2) Receives, demands, or agrees for any money or reward whatsoever to excuse or relieve a person from being entered in a list as liable, or from his liability to billets, or from any part of such liability; or
- (3) Billets or quarters on any person or premises, without the consent of such person or the occupier of such premises, any person or horse not entitled to be billeted; or
- (4) Neglects or refuses after sufficient notice is given to give billets demanded for any officer, soldier, or horse entitled to be billeted;

he shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than forty shillings and not exceeding ten pounds.

110. If a keeper of a victualling house commits any of the offences following; that is to say,

Offences by keepers of victualling
houses.

- (1) Refuses or neglects to receive any officer, soldier, or horse billeted upon him in pursuance of this Act, or to furnish such accommodation as is required by this Act; or
- (2) Gives or agrees to give any money or reward to a constable to excuse or relieve him from being entered in a list as liable, or from his liability to billets, or any part of such liability; or
- (3) Gives or agrees to give to any officer or soldier billeted upon him in pursuance of this Act any money or reward in lieu of receiving an officer, soldier, or horse, or furnishing the said accommodation;

he shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than forty shillings and not exceeding five pounds.

111. (1.) If any officer quarters or causes to be billeted any officer, soldier, or horse, otherwise than is allowed by this Act upon any person, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Offences by officers or soldiers.

(2.) If any officer or soldier commits any offence in relation to billeting for which he is liable to be punished under Part One of this Act, other than an offence in respect of which any other remedy is given by this part of this Act to the person aggrieved, he shall, upon summary conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

(3.) A certificate of a conviction for an offence under this section shall be transmitted by the court making such conviction to a Secretary of State.

Impressment of Carriages.

112. (1) Every justice of the peace in the United Kingdom having jurisdiction in any place mentioned in a route issued to the commanding officer of any portion of Her Majesty's regular forces shall, on the demand of such commanding officer, or of an officer or non-commissioned officer authorised by him, and on production of such route, issue his warrant requiring some constable or constables having authority in such place to provide, within a reasonable time to be named in the warrant, such carriages, animals, and drivers as are stated to be required for the purpose of moving the regimental baggage and regimental stores of the forces mentioned in the route in accordance with the route; and the constable or constables shall execute such warrant, and persons having carriages and animals suitable for the said purpose shall, when ordered by a constable in pursuance of such warrant, furnish the same in a state fit for use for the aforesaid purpose.

Supply of
for regimental baggage and stores on the march.

(2.) The route for the purpose of this section shall be such route as is mentioned in the foregoing provisions of this part of this Act with respect to billeting.

(3.) A route purporting to be issued and signed as required by those provisions, if delivered to an officer or non-commissioned officer by his commanding officer, shall be a sufficient authority to such officer or non-commissioned officer to demand carriages and animals in pursuance of this Act, and when produced by an officer or non-commissioned officer shall be conclusive evidence to a justice and constable of the authority of the officer or non-commissioned officer producing the same to demand carriages and animals in accordance with such route.

(4.) The warrant ordering carriages, animals, and drivers to be provided shall specify the number and description of the carriages, and also the places from and to which the same are to travel, and the distances between such places.

(5.) When sufficient carriages or animals cannot be procured within the jurisdiction of the said justice, any justice having jurisdiction in the next adjoining place shall, by a like course of proceeding, supply the deficiency.

(6.) A fee of one shilling and no more shall be paid for the warrant by the officer or non-commissioned officer applying for the same, and shall be paid to the clerk of the justice.

113. (1.) There shall be paid in respect of the carriages and animals furnished in pursuance of this part of this Act the rates specified in the Third Schedule to this Act, and the regulations contained in that schedule with respect to the carriages and animals furnished shall be duly observed.

Payment for and regulations as to carriages,
animals, &c.

(2.) The following authorities; that is to say,

- (a) In England the court of general or quarter sessions of a county or of a borough subject to the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882; and
- (b) In Scotland, the commissioners of supply of a county, or the magistrates of a Royal or Parliamentary burgh; and
- (c) In Ireland, the grand jury for a county, a county of a city, a county of a town and city, or a city or town and county, also any council of any such county, town, or city having by law the fiscal powers of a grand jury,

c. 50.

may from time to time, as respects places within their jurisdiction, by order increase the rates authorised in the said schedule by such amount in respect of each rate, not exceeding one third, as may seem reasonable, and the amount of such increase shall be notified in writing by the justice granting a warrant in pursuance of this Act to the person demanding the warrant.

(3.) The order shall specify the average price of hay and oats at the nearest market town at the time of fixing such increased rates, and the order shall not be in force for more than ten days beyond the next meeting of such authority, but may be renewed from time to time by a fresh order or orders, and while in force shall have effect as part of the said schedule.

(4.) A copy of every such order, duly authenticated, shall be transmitted to a Secretary of State within three days after the making thereof.

(5.) The officer or non-commissioned officer who demands carriages or animals in pursuance of this part of this Act shall pay the sums due in respect of the same to the owners or drivers of the carriages or animals, and one third part of such payment shall in each case, if required, be made before the carriage is loaded; and such payments shall be made, if required, in the presence of a justice or constable.

(6.) If an officer or non-commissioned officer is from any cause unable to pay the amount due to the owner or driver of any carriage or animal, he shall make up with such owner or driver and sign an account of the amount due to him, and forthwith transmit the account so signed to a Secretary of State, who shall forthwith cause the amount named therein to be paid to such owner or driver.

Annual list of persons liable to supply carriages.

114. (1.) The police authority for any place may cause annually a list to be made out of all persons in such place, or any particular part thereof, liable to furnish carriages and animals under this Act, and of the number and description of the carriages and animals of such persons; and where a list is so made, any justice may by warrant require any constable or constables having authority within such place to give from time to time, on demand by an officer or non-commissioned officer under this Act, orders to furnish carriages and animals, and such warrant shall be executed as if it were a special warrant issued in pursuance of this Act on such demand, and the orders shall specify the like particulars as such special warrant.

(2.) The police authority shall cause such list to be kept at some convenient place open for inspection at all reasonable times by persons interested, and any person who feels aggrieved either by being entered in such list, or by being entered to furnish any number or description of carriages or animals which he is not liable to furnish, may complain to a court of summary jurisdiction, and the court, after such notice as the court think necessary to persons interested, may order the list to be amended in such manner as the court may think just.

(3.) All orders given by constables for furnishing carriages and animals shall, as far as possible, be made from such list in regular rotation.

Supply of carriages and vessels in case of emergency.

115. (1.) Her Majesty by order, distinctly stating that a case of emergency exists, and signified by a Secretary of State, and also in Ireland the Lord Lieutenant by a like order, signified by the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, may authorise any general or field officer commanding Her Majesty's regular forces in any military district or place in the United Kingdom to issue a requisition under this section (hereinafter referred to as a requisition of emergency).

(2.) The officer so authorised may issue a requisition of emergency under his hand, reciting the said order, and requiring justices of the peace to issue their warrants for the provision, for the purpose mentioned in the requisition, of such carriages and animals as may be provided under the foregoing provisions, and also of carriages of every description, and of horses of every description, whether kept for saddle or draught, and also of vessels (whether boats, barges, or other) used for the transport of any commodities whatsoever upon any canal or navigable river.

(3.) A justice of the peace, on demand by an officer of the portion of Her Majesty's forces mentioned in a requisition of emergency, or by an officer of a Secretary of State authorised in this behalf, and on production of the requisition, shall issue his warrant for the provision of such carriages, animals, and vessels as are stated by the officer producing the requisition of emergency to be required for the purpose mentioned in the requisition; the warrant shall be executed in the like manner, and all the provisions of this Act as to the provision or furnishing of carriages and animals, including those respecting fines on officers, non-commissioned officers, justices, constables, or owners of carriages or animals, shall apply in like manner as in the case where a justice issues, in pursuance of the foregoing provisions of this Act, a warrant for the provision of carriages and animals, and shall apply to vessels as if the expression carriages included vessels.

(4.) A Secretary of State shall cause due payment to be made for carriages, animals, and vessels furnished in pursuance of this section, and any difference respecting the amount of payment for any carriage, animal, or vessel shall be determined by a county court judge having jurisdiction in any place in which such carriage, animal, or vessel was furnished or through which it travelled in pursuance of the requisition.

(5.) Canal, river, or lock tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable for vessels while employed in any service in pursuance of this section or returning therefrom. And any toll collector who demands or receives toll in contravention of this exemption shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds nor less than ten shillings.

(6.) A requisition of emergency, purporting to be issued in pursuance of this section and to be signed by an officer therein stated to be authorised in accordance with this section, shall be evidence, until the contrary is proved, of its being duly issued and signed in pursuance of this Act, and if delivered to an officer of Her Majesty's forces or of a Secretary of State shall be a sufficient authority to such officer to demand carriages, animals, and vessels in pursuance of this section, and when produced by such officer shall be conclusive evidence to a justice and constable of the authority of such officer to demand carriages, animals, and vessels in accordance with such requisition; and it shall be lawful to convey on such carriages, animals, and vessels, not only the baggage, provisions, and military stores of the troops mentioned in the requisition of emergency, but also the officer, soldiers, servants, women, children, and other persons of and belonging to the same.

(7.) Whenever an order for the embodiment of the militia is in force, the order of Her Majesty authorising an officer to issue a requisition of emergency may authorise him to extend such requisition to the provision of carriages, animals, and vessels for the purpose of being purchased, as well as of being hired, on behalf of the Crown.

(8.) Where a justice, on demand by an officer and on production of a requisition of emergency, has issued his warrant for the provision of any carriages, animals, or vessels, and any person ordered in pursuance of such warrant to furnish a carriage, animal, or vessel refuses or neglects to furnish the same according to the order, then, if an order for the embodiment of the militia is in force, the said officer may seize (and if need be by force) the said carriage, animal, or vessel, and may use the same in like manner as if it had been furnished in pursuance of the order, but the said person shall be entitled to payment for the same in like manner as if he had duly furnished the same according to the order.

*Offences in relation to the Impressment of Carriages.116. Any constable who—Offences by constables.

- (1) Neglects or refuses to execute any warrant of a justice requiring him to provide carriages, animals, or vessels; or
- (2) Receives, demands, or agrees for any money or reward whatsoever to excuse or relieve any person from being entered in a list as liable to furnish, or from being required to furnish, or from furnishing any carriage, animal, or vessel; or
- (3) Orders any carriage, animal, or vessel to be furnished for any person or purpose or on any occasion for and on which it is not required by this Act to be furnished, shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than twenty shillings nor more than twenty pounds.

117. A person ordered by any constable in pursuance of this Act to furnish a carriage, animal, or vessel who—Offences by persons ordered to furnish carriages, animals, or vessels

- (1) Refuses or neglects to furnish the same according to the orders of such constable and this Act; or
- (2) Gives or agrees to give to a constable or to any officer or non-commissioned officer any money or reward whatsoever to be excused from being entered in a list as liable to furnish, or from being required to furnish, or from furnishing, or in lieu of furnishing, any carriage, animal, or vessel in pursuance of this Act; or
- (3) Does any act or thing by which the execution of any warrant or order for providing or furnishing carriages, animals, or vessels is hindered, shall, on summary conviction, be liable to pay a fine of not less than forty shillings nor more than ten pounds.

118. (1.) Any officer or soldier who commits any offence in relation to the impressment of carriages for which he is liable to be punished under Part One of this Act, other than an offence in respect of which any other remedy is given by this part of this Act to the person aggrieved, shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds nor less than forty shillings.

Offences by officers or soldiers.

(2.) A certificate of a conviction for an offence under this section shall be transmitted by the court making such conviction to a Secretary of State.

*Supplemental Provisions as to Billeting and Impressment of Carriages.119. (1.) The following persons; that is to say,Application to court of summary jurisdiction
respecting sums due to keepers of victualling houses or owners of carriages, &c.

- (a) If any officer or soldier fails to comply with the provisions of this part of this Act with respect to the payment of a sum due to a keeper of a victualling house or in respect of carriages or animals, or to the making up of an account of the sum due, the person to whom the sum is due; or
- (b) If a keeper of a victualling house suffers any ill-treatment by violence, extortion, or making disturbance in billets from any officer or soldier billeted upon him, or if the owner or driver of any carriage, animal, or vessel furnished in pursuance of this part of this Act suffers any ill-treatment from any officer or soldier, the person suffering such ill-treatment, but, when there is an officer commanding such officer or soldier present at the place only after first making due complaint, if practicable to such commanding officer, may apply to a court of summary jurisdiction, and such court, if satisfied on oath of such failure or such ill-treatment, and of the amount fairly due to the applicant, including the costs of his application to the court of summary jurisdiction, shall certify the same to a Secretary of State, who shall forthwith cause the amount due to be paid.

(2.) Provided that the Secretary of State, if it appear to him that the amount named in such certificate is not justly due, or is in excess of the amount justly due, may direct a complaint to be made to a court of summary jurisdiction for the county, borough, or place for which the court giving the certificate acted, and the court after hearing the case may by order confirm the said certificate, or vary it in such manner as to the court seems just.

120. (1.) A constable shall observe the directions given to him for the due execution of this part of this Act by the police authority; and the police authority, or any member thereof, and every justice of the peace may, if it seem necessary, and in the absence of a constable shall, themselves or himself exercise the powers and perform the duties by this part of this Act vested in or imposed on a constable, and in such case every such person is in this part of this Act included in the expression "constable."

Provisions as to constables, police authorities, and justices.

(2.) A person having or executing any military office or commission in any part of the United Kingdom shall not, directly or indirectly, be concerned, as a justice or constable, in the billeting of or appointing quarters for any officer or soldier or horse of the corps, or part of a corps, under his immediate command, and all warrants, acts, and things made, done, and appointed by such person for or concerning the same shall be void.

121. If any person—Fraudulent

carriages,
animals, &c.

- (1) Forges or counterfeits any route or requisition of emergency, or knowingly produces to a justice or constable any route or requisition of emergency so forged or counterfeited; or
- (2) Personates or represents himself to be an officer or soldier authorised to demand any billet, or any carriage, animal, or vessel, or to be entitled to be billeted, or to have his horse billeted; or
- (3) Produces to a justice or constable a route or requisition which he is not authorised to produce, or a document falsely purporting to be a route or requisition, he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour, or to a fine not less than twenty shillings and not more than five pounds.

PART IV.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.Supplemental Provisions as to Courts-martial.

122. (1.) Her Majesty may, subject to the provisions of this Act, by any warrant or warrants under Her Sign Manual, in such form as Her Majesty may from time to time direct, from time to time—

Royal warrant required for convening and confirming
courts-martial.

- (a) Convene or authorise any qualified officer to convene a general court-martial for the trial under this Act of any person subject to military law; and

- (b) Give a general authority to any qualified officer to convene general courts-martial for the trial, under this Act, of such persons subject to military law as may for the time being be under or within the territorial limits of his command; and
- (c) Empower any qualified officer to delegate to any officer under his command, not below the degree of field officer, a general authority to convene general courts-martial for the trial, under this Act, of such persons subject to military law, as are for the time being under or within the territorial limits of his command; and
- (d) Reserve for confirmation by Her Majesty, or empower any qualified officer to confirm, the findings and sentences of general courts-martial; and
- (e) Empower any officer for the time being authorised to confirm the findings and sentences of general courts-martial to reserve for confirmation findings or sentences of general courts-martial, or to delegate a power of confirming such findings or sentences to any officer under his command not below the degree of field officer; and
- (f) Revoke any warrant for the time being in force, or any part of any warrant, leaving the remainder in full force:

Provided that where it appears to Her Majesty that, in any place out of the United Kingdom, where no field officer is for the time being in command, hardship would be inflicted on persons accused of offences by reason of there being no means of speedily trying such persons for offences, a warrant under this section may empower an officer to delegate to an officer not below the degree of captain any authority and power authorised under this section to be delegated to a field officer.

(2.) The same officer may or may not be appointed convening and confirming officer.

(3.) The power of convening general courts-martial, and of confirming the findings and sentences of general courts-martial, or either of such powers, may be granted subject to such restrictions, reservations, exceptions, and conditions as to Her Majesty may seem meet, and when delegated by any officer empowered in that behalf may, subject to the provisions of any warrant granting him such power, be delegated subject to such restrictions, reservations, exceptions, and conditions as to such officer may seem fit.

(4.) Warrants under this section may be addressed to officers by name or by designation of their offices, or partly in one way and partly in the other, and any warrant may or may not, according to the terms of such warrant and the mode in which the same is addressed, be limited to an officer named, or be extended to a person for the time being performing the duties of the office named, or be extended to the successors in command of an officer.

(5.) Any warrant of Her Majesty issued in pursuance of this section shall be of the same force as if the provisions thereof were enacted by this Act.

(6.) "Qualified officer" for the purposes of this Act, in so far as it relates to convening or confirming the findings and sentences of general courts-martial, means the Commander-in-Chief and any officer not below the rank of a field officer commanding for the time being any body of the regular forces either within or without Her Majesty's dominions; it also includes the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, the Governor-General of India, and a Governor of any colony on whom the command of any body of regular forces may be conferred by Her Majesty.

Authority of officer empowered to convene general courts-martial required for convening and confirming district courts-martial.

123. (1.) Any officer or person authorised to convene general courts-martial may—

- (a) Convene a district court-martial for the trial under this Act of any person under his command who is subject to military law; and
- (b) Empower any person under his command not below the rank of captain to convene a district court-martial for the trial under this Act of any person under the command of such last-mentioned officer who is subject to military law; and
- (c) Confirm the finding and sentence of any district court-martial, or empower any officer whom he has power to authorise to convene district courts-martial to confirm the finding and sentence of any district court-martial.

(2.) The same officer may or may not be appointed convening and confirming officer under this section.

(3.) The power of convening, and of confirming the findings and sentences of, district courts-martial, or either of such powers, may be granted under this section, subject to such restrictions, reservations, exceptions, and conditions as to the officer granting such power may seem meet.

(4.) Any authority under this section for convening district courts-martial may be addressed to an officer by name or by designation of his office, or partly in one way and partly in the other, and may or may not, according to the terms thereof and the mode in which the same is addressed, be limited to an officer named, or be extended to a person holding for the time being or performing the duties of the office, or be extended to the successors in command of such officer.

Right of person tried to copy of proceedings of court-martial.

124. Any person tried by a court-martial shall be entitled on demand, at any time in the case of a general court-martial within seven years, and in the case of any other court-martial within three years, after the confirmation of the finding and sentence of the court, to obtain from the officer or person having the custody of proceedings of such court a copy thereof, including the proceedings with respect to the revision and confirmation thereof, upon payment for the same at the prescribed rate, not exceeding twopence for every folio of seventy-two words, and for the purposes of this section the proceedings of courts-martial shall be preserved in the prescribed manner.

Summoning and privilege of witnesses at courts-martial.

125. (1.) Every person required to give evidence before a court-martial may be summoned or ordered to attend in the prescribed manner.

(2.) Every person attending in pursuance of such summons or order as a witness before any court-martial shall, during his necessary attendance in or on such court, and in going to and returning from the same, have the same privilege from arrest as he would have if he were a witness before a superior court of civil jurisdiction.

Misconduct of civilian at court-martial.

126. (1.) Where any person who is not subject to military law commits any of the following offences; that is to say,

- (a) On being duly summoned as a witness before a court-martial, and after payment or tender of the reasonable expenses of his attendance, makes default in attending; or

(b) Being in attendance as a witness—

- (i.) Refuses to take an oath legally required by a court-martial to be taken; or
- (ii.) Refuses to produce any document in his power or control legally required by a court-martial to be produced by him; or
- (iii.) Refuses to answer any question to which a court-martial may legally require an answer, the president of the court-martial may certify the offence of such person under his hand to any court of law in the part of Her Majesty's dominions where the offence is committed which has power to punish witnesses if guilty of like offences in that court, and that court may thereupon inquire into such alleged offence, and after examination of any witnesses that may be produced against or for the person so accused, and after hearing any statement that may be offered in defence, if it seem just, punish such witness in like manner as if he had committed such offence in a proceeding in that court.

(2.) Where a person not subject to military law when examined on oath or solemn declaration before a court-martial wilfully gives false evidence, he shall be liable on indictment or information to be convicted of and punished for the offence of perjury, or the offence by whatever name called in the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which the offence is tried which, if committed in England, would be perjury.

(3.) Where a person not subject to military law is guilty of any contempt towards a court-martial, by using insulting or threatening language, or by causing any interruption or disturbance in its proceedings, or by printing observations or using words calculated to influence the members of or witnesses before such court, or to bring such court into disrepute, the president of the court-martial may certify the offence of such person, under his hand, to any court of law in the part of Her Majesty's dominions where the offence is committed which has power to commit for contempt, and that court may thereupon inquire into such alleged offence, and after hearing any witnesses that may be produced against or on behalf of the person so accused, and after hearing any statement that may be offered in defence, punish or take steps for the punishment of such person in like manner as if he had been guilty of contempt of that court.

127. A court-martial under this Act shall not, as respects the conduct of its proceedings, or the reception or rejection of evidence, or as respects any other matter or thing whatsoever, be subject to the provisions of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, or to any Act, law, or ordinance of any legislature whatsoever other than the Parliament of the United Kingdom. Court-martial governed by English law only.

128. The rules of evidence to be adopted in proceedings before courts-martial shall be the same as those which are followed in civil courts in England, and no person shall be required to answer any question or to produce any document which he could not be required to answer or produce in similar proceedings before a civil court. Rules of evidence to be the same as in civil courts.

129. Whereas it is expedient to make provision respecting the conduct of counsel when appearing on behalf of the prosecution or defence at general courts-martial in pursuance of rules under this Act, be it therefore enacted as follows: Position of counsel at courts-martial.

(1.) Any conduct of a counsel which would be liable to censure, or a contempt of court, if it took place before Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England, shall likewise be deemed liable to censure, or a contempt of court, in the case of a court-martial; and the rules laid down for the practice of courts-martial and the guidance of counsel shall be binding on counsel appearing before such courts-martial, and any wilful disobedience of such rules shall be professional misconduct, and, if persevered in, be deemed a contempt of court.

(2.) Where a counsel is guilty of conduct liable to censure, or a contempt of court, such offence shall be deemed to be an offence within the meaning of section one hundred and twenty-six of this Act, and the president of the court-martial may certify the same to a court of law accordingly; and the court of law to which the same is certified shall deal with such offence in the same manner as if it had been committed in a proceeding before that court.

(3.) A court-martial may, by order under the hand of the president, cause a counsel to be removed from the court who is guilty of such an offence as may, in the opinion of the court-martial, require his removal from court, but in every such case the president shall certify the offence committed to a court of law in manner provided by the above-mentioned section.

130. (1.) Where it appears on the trial by court-martial of a person charged with an offence that such person is by reason of insanity unfit to take his trial, the court shall find specially that fact; and such person shall be kept in custody in the prescribed manner until the directions of Her Majesty thereon are known, or until any earlier time at which such person is fit to take his trial. Provision in case of insane persons.

(2.) Where on the trial by court-martial of a person charged with an offence it appears that such person committed the offence, but that he was insane at the time of the commission thereof, the court shall find specially the fact of his insanity, and such person shall be kept in custody in the prescribed manner until the directions of Her Majesty thereon are known.

(3.) In either of the above cases Her Majesty may give orders for the safe custody of such person during her pleasure, in such place and in such manner as Her Majesty thinks fit.

(4.) A finding under this section shall be subject to confirmation in like manner as any other finding.

(5.) If a person imprisoned by virtue of this Act becomes insane, then, without prejudice to any other provision for dealing with such insane prisoner, a Secretary of State in any case, and in the case of a prisoner confined in India the Governor-General of India, or the Governor of any presidency in which the person is confined, and in the case of a prisoner confined in a colony the Governor of that colony, may, upon a certificate of such insanity by two qualified medical practitioners, order the removal of such prisoner to an asylum or other proper place for the reception of insane persons in the United Kingdom, India, or the colony, according as the prisoner is confined in the United Kingdom, India, or the colony, there to remain for the unexpired term of his imprisonment, and upon such person being certified in the like manner to be again of sound mind, may order his removal to any prison in which he might have been confined if he had not become insane, there to undergo the remainder of such punishment.

* NOTE.—So much of subsection (5) as relates to a person imprisoned in England is repealed by the Criminal Lunatics Act, 1884 (47 & 48 Vict. c. 64, s. 17).

General Provisions as to Prisons.

Arrangements with Indian and Colonial
to prisons.

131. (1.) A Secretary of State may from time to time make arrangements with the Governor-General of India or the Governor of a colony for the reception in any prison in India or in such colony of prisoners under this Act, and of deserters or absentees without leave from Her Majesty's service, on payment of such sums as are provided by the arrangement, and the governor of any prison to which any such arrangement relates shall be under the same obligation as the governor of a prison in the United Kingdom to receive and detain such prisoners, deserters, and absentees without leave.

(2.) Provided that where a prisoner has been sentenced in India or in a colony to a term of imprisonment exceeding twelve months or to a term of penal servitude, he shall be transferred as soon as practicable to a prison or convict establishment within the United Kingdom, unless in the case of imprisonment the court shall for special reasons otherwise order, there to undergo his sentence; or unless he belongs to a class with respect to which a Secretary of State has declared that, by reason of the climate or place of his birth or the place of his enlistment, or otherwise, it is not beneficial to the prisoner to transfer him to the United Kingdom; every such declaration shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

(3.) Any order which can be made under this section by the court may be made by the confirming authority in confirming the finding and sentence, and in the case of any commutation or remission of sentence may be made by the authority commuting or remitting the sentence.

Duty of governor of prison to receive prisoners, deserters, and
without leave.

132. (1.) The governor of every prison in the United Kingdom, and the governor of every prison in India or a colony who is under the same obligation as the governor of a prison in the United Kingdom, shall receive and confine, until discharged or delivered over in due course of law, all prisoners sent to such prison in pursuance of this Act, and every person delivered into his custody as a deserter or absentee without leave by any person conveying him under legal authority, on production of the warrant of a court of summary jurisdiction on which such deserter or absentee without leave has been taken or committed, or of some order from a Secretary of State, or from the Governor-General of India, or the governor of a colony, which order shall continue in force until the deserter or absentee without leave has arrived at his destination.

(2.) Every such governor shall also receive into his custody for a period not exceeding seven days any soldier in military custody upon delivery to him of a written order purporting to be signed by the commanding officer of such soldier.

(3.) The provisions of this section with respect to the governor of a prison in the United Kingdom shall apply to a person having charge of any police station or other place, in which prisoners may legally be confined.

Military Prisons.

Establishment and regulation

133. (1.) It shall be lawful for a Secretary of State, and in India for the Governor-General, to set apart any building or part of a building under the control of the Secretary of State or Governor-General as a military prison, or as a public prison for the imprisonment of military prisoners, and to declare that any such building or part of a building shall be a military prison, or a public prison, as the case may be, and every military prison so declared shall be deemed to be a public prison within the meaning of the provisions of this Act relating to imprisonment, and if such prison is in India shall be deemed to be an authorised prison.

(2.) It shall be lawful for a Secretary of State, and in India for the Governor-General, from time to time to make, alter, and repeal rules for the government, management, and regulation of military prisons, and for the appointment and removal and powers of inspectors, visitors, governors, and officers thereof, and for the labour of military prisoners therein, and for the safe custody of such prisoners, and for the maintenance of discipline among them, and for the punishment by personal correction, not exceeding twenty-five lashes in the case of corporal punishment, restraint, or otherwise of offences committed by such prisoners, so, however, that such rules shall not authorise corporal punishment to be inflicted for any offence in addition to the offences for which such punishment can be inflicted in pursuance of the Prison Act, 1865, and the Prison Act, 1877, nor render the imprisonment more severe than it is under the law in force for the time being in any public prison in England, subject to the Prison Act, 1877, and provided that all the regulations in the Prison Act, 1865, and in the Prison Act, 1877, as to the duties of gaolers, medical officers, and coroners shall be contained in such rules, so far as the same can be made applicable.

(3.) On all occasions of death by violence or attended with suspicious circumstances in any military prison in India an inquest is to be held, to make inquiry into the cause of death. The commanding officer shall cause notice to be given to the nearest magistrate, duly authorised to hold inquests, and such magistrate shall hold an inquest into the cause of any such death, in the manner and with the powers provided in the case of similar inquiries held under the law for the time being in force in India for regulating criminal procedure.

(4.) Where from any cause there is no competent civil authority available, the commanding officer shall convene a court of inquest. Such court shall be convened and shall hold the inquest in such manner as may be prescribed.

(5.) Such rules may apply to such prisons any enactments of the Prison Act, 1865, imposing punishments on any persons not prisoners.

(6.) All rules made by a Secretary of State in pursuance of this section shall be laid before Parliament as soon as practicable after they are made; if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament.

28 & 29 Vict.
c. 126.
40 & 41 Vict.
c. 21.

28 & 29 Vict.
c. 126.

Restrictions on confinement in prisons in India or colonies, not being military
prisons.

134. No soldiers shall be confined, longer than is absolutely necessary, in prisons other than military prisons in India and the colonies where the rules for the government and management of such prisons differ from those made by the Governor-General of India and a Secretary of State in the case of India and the colonies respectively.

Classification of prisoners.

135. Whereas it is expedient that a clear difference should be made between the treatment of prisoners convicted of breaches of discipline and the treatment of prisoners convicted of offences of an immoral, dishonest, shameful, or criminal character, or sentenced to be discharged from the service with ignominy, a Secretary of State shall from time to time make rules for the classification and treatment of such prisoners.

Pay.

136. The pay of an officer or soldier of Her Majesty's regular forces shall be paid without any deduction other than the deductions authorised by this or any other Act or by any royal warrant for the time being. Authorised deductions only to be made from pay

137. The following penal deductions may be made from the ordinary pay due to an officer of the regular forces: Penal stoppages from ordinary pay of officers.

- (1) All ordinary pay due to an officer who absents himself without leave or overstays the period for which leave of absence has been granted him, unless a satisfactory explanation has been given through the commanding officer of such officer, and has been notified as satisfactory by the Commander-in-Chief to a Secretary of State;
- (2) The sum required to make good such compensation for any expenses, loss, damage, or destruction occasioned by the commission of any offence as may be awarded by the court-martial by whom he is convicted of such offence;
- (3) The sum required to make good the pay of any officer or soldier which he has unlawfully retained or unlawfully refused to pay.

138. The following penal deductions may be made from the ordinary pay due to a soldier of the regular forces: Penal stoppages from ordinary pay of soldiers.

- (1) All ordinary pay for every day of absence either on desertion or without leave, or as prisoner of war, and for every day of imprisonment either under sentence for an offence awarded by a civil court or court-martial, or by his commanding officer, or if he is on board one of Her Majesty's ships by the commanding officer of that ship, or under detention on the charge for an offence of which he is afterwards convicted by a civil court or court-martial, or under detention on the charge for absence without leave for which he is afterwards awarded imprisonment by his commanding officer;
- (2) All ordinary pay for every day on which he is in hospital on account of sickness certified by the proper medical officer attending on him at the hospital to have been caused by an offence under this Act committed by him;
- (3) The sum required to make good such compensation for any expenses, loss, damage, or destruction occasioned by the commission of any offence as may be awarded by the court-martial by whom he is convicted of such offence, or if he is on board of one of Her Majesty's ships by the commanding officer of that ship, or where he has confessed the offence and his trial is dispensed with by order under section seventy-three of this Act, as may be awarded by that order or by any other order of a competent military authority under that section;
- (4) The sum required to make good such compensation for any expenses caused by him, or for any loss of or damage or destruction done by him to any arms, ammunition, equipment, clothing, instruments, or regimental necessaries or military decoration, or to any buildings or property, as may be awarded by his commanding officer, or, in case he requires to be tried by a court-martial, by that court-martial, or if he is on board one of Her Majesty's ships, by the commanding officer of that ship;
- (5) Where a soldier at the time of his enlistment belonged to any part of the auxiliary forces, the sum required to make good any compensation for which at the time of his enlistment he was under stoppage of pay as a member of the auxiliary forces, and any sum which he is liable to pay by reason of his quitting the said part of the auxiliary forces upon his enlistment;
- (6) Where a soldier's liquor ration is stopped by his commanding officer on board any ship, whether commissioned by Her Majesty or not, the sum equivalent to such ration, whether previously drawn by the soldier or not, not exceeding one penny a day for twenty-eight days;
- (7) The sum required to pay a fine awarded by a court-martial, his commanding officer, or a civil court; and
- (8) The sum required to pay any sum ordered by a Secretary of State to be paid as mentioned in this Act for the maintenance of his wife or child, or of any bastard child, or towards the cost of any relief given by way of loan to his wife or child:

Provided that—

- (a) the total amount of deductions from the ordinary pay due to a soldier in respect of the sums required to pay any compensation, fine, or sum awarded or ordered to be paid as aforesaid by a court-martial, commanding officer, or Secretary of State shall not exceed such sum as will leave to the soldier, after paying for his messing and washing, less than one penny a day; and
- (b) a person shall not be subjected in respect of any compensation, fine, or sum awarded or ordered to be paid as aforesaid to any deductions greater than is sufficient to make good the expenses, loss, damage, or destruction for which such compensation is awarded, or to pay the said sum.

139. Any deduction of pay authorised by this Act may be remitted in such manner and by such authority as may be from time to time provided by Royal Warrant, and subject to the provisions of any such warrant may be remitted by the Secretary of State. How deduction of pay may be remitted.

140. (1.) Any sum authorised by this Act to be deducted from the ordinary pay of an officer or soldier may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovering the same, be deducted from the ordinary pay or from any sums due to such officer or soldier, in such manner, and when deducted or recovered may be appropriated in such manner, as may be from time to time directed by any regulation or order of the Secretary of State. Supplemental as to deductions from ordinary pay.

(2.) And any such regulation or order may from time to time declare what shall be deemed for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to deductions from pay to constitute a day of absence or a day of imprisonment, so, however, that no time shall be so reckoned as a day unless the absence or imprisonment has lasted for six hours or upwards, whether wholly in one day or partly in one day and partly in another, or unless such absence prevented the absentee from fulfilling any military duty which was thereby thrown upon some other person.

(3.) In cases of doubt as to the proper issue of pay or the proper deduction from pay due to any officer or soldier, the pay may be withheld until Her Majesty's order respecting it has been signified through a Secretary of State, which order shall be final.

Prohibition of assignment of military pay,
pensions, &c.

141. Every assignment of, and every charge on, and every agreement to assign or charge, any deferred pay, or military reward payable to any officer or soldier of any of Her Majesty's forces, or any pension, allowance, or relief payable to any such officer or soldier, or his widow, child, or other relative, or to any person in respect of any military service, shall, except so far as the same is made in pursuance of a Royal Warrant for the benefit of the family of the person entitled thereto, or as may be authorised by any Act for the time being in force, be void.

Punishment of
personation.

142. (1.) Where any regulations made by the Secretary of State or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, with respect to the payment of any military reward, pension, or allowance, or any sum payable in respect of military service, or with respect to the payment of money or delivery of property in the possession of the military authorities, provide for proving, whether on oath or by statutory declaration, the identity of the recipient or any other matter in connexion with such payment, such oath may be administered and declaration taken by the persons specified in the regulations, and any person who in such oath or declaration wilfully makes any false statement shall be liable to the punishment of perjury.

(2.) Any person who falsely represents himself to any military, naval, or civil authority to belong to, or to be a particular man in, the regular reserve or auxiliary forces shall be deemed to be guilty of personation.

37 & 38 Vict.
c. 36.

(3.) Any person who is guilty of an offence under the False Personation Act, 1874, in relation to any military pay, reward, pension, or allowance, or to any sum payable in respect of military service, or to any money or property in the possession of the military authorities, or is guilty of personation under this section, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds.

(4.) Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any person from being proceeded against and punished under any other enactment or at common law in respect of any offence, so that he be not punished twice for the same offence.

Exemptions of Officers and Soldiers.

Exemptions of officers and soldiers from tolls.

143. (1.) All officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's regular forces on duty or on the march; and

Their horses and baggage; and

All prisoners under military escort; and

All carriages and horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in her military service, when conveying any such persons as above in this section mentioned, or baggage or stores, or returning from conveying the same, shall be exempted from payment of any duties or tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any pier, wharf, quay, or landing-place, or in passing along or over any turnpike or other road or bridge, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act of Parliament already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any Act, Ordinance, order, or direction of the legislature or other authority in India or any colony:

Provided that nothing in this section shall exempt any boats, barges, or other vessels employed in conveying the said persons, horses, baggage, or stores along any canal from payment of tolls in like manner as other boats, barges, and vessels.

(2.) When any soldiers have occasion in their march by route to pass regular ferries in Scotland, the officer commanding may, at his option, pass over with his soldiers as passengers, and shall pay for himself and each soldier one half only of the ordinary rate payable by single persons, or may hire the ferry boat for himself and his party, debarring others for that time, and shall in all such cases pay only half the ordinary rate for such boat.

(3.) Any person who demands and receives any duty, toll, or rate in contravention of this section shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds nor less than ten shillings.

Exemption of soldiers in respect of civil process.

144. (1.) A soldier of Her Majesty's regular forces shall not be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's service by any process, execution, or order of any court of law or otherwise, or to be compelled to appear in person before any court of law, except in respect of the following matters, or one of them; that is to say,

(a) On account of a charge of or conviction for crime; or

(b) On account of any debt, damages, or sum of money, when the amount exceeds thirty pounds over and above all costs of suit.

(2.) For the purposes of this section a crime shall mean a felony, misdemeanor, or other crime or offence punishable, according to the law in force in that part of Her Majesty's dominions in which such soldier is, with fine or imprisonment or some greater punishment, and shall not include the offence of a person absenting himself from his service, or neglecting to fulfil his contract, or otherwise misconducting himself respecting his contract.

(3.) For the purposes of this section a court of law shall be deemed to include a court of summary jurisdiction and any magistrate.

(4.) The amount of the debt, damages, or sum shall be proved for the purpose of any process issued before the court has adjudicated on the case by an affidavit of the person seeking to recover the same or of some one on his behalf, and such affidavit shall be sworn, without payment of any fee, in the manner in which affidavits are sworn in the court in which proceedings are taken for the recovery of the sum, and a memorandum of such affidavit shall, without fee, be indorsed upon any process or order issued against a soldier.

(5.) All proceedings and documents in or incidental to a process, execution, or order in contravention of this section shall be void; and where complaint is made by a soldier or his commanding officer that such soldier is dealt with in contravention of this section by any process, execution, or order issued out of any court, and is made to that court or to any court superior to it, the court or some judge thereof shall examine into the complaint, and shall, if necessary, discharge such soldier without fee, and may award reasonable costs to the complainant, which may be recovered as if costs had been awarded in his favour in any action or other proceeding in such court.

Provided that—

- (1) Any person having cause of action or suit against a soldier of the regular forces may, notwithstanding anything in this section, after due notice in writing given to the soldier, or left at his last quarters, proceed in such action or suit to judgment, and have execution other than against the person, pay, arms, ammunition, equipments, regimental necessaries, or clothing of such soldier; and
- (2) This section shall not prevent such proceeding with respect to apprentices and indentured labourers as is authorised by this Act.

145. (1.) A soldier of the regular forces shall be liable to contribute to the maintenance of his wife and of his children, and also to the maintenance of any bastard child of which he may be proved to be the father, to the same extent as if he were not a soldier; but execution in respect of any such liability or of any order or decree in respect of such maintenance shall not issue against his person, pay, arms, ammunition, equipments, instruments, regimental necessaries, or clothing; nor shall he be liable to be punished for the offence of deserting or neglecting to maintain his wife or family, or any member thereof, or of leaving her or them chargeable to any union, parish, or place.

Liability of soldier to maintain wife and children.

(2.) When any order or decree is made under any Act or at common law for payment by a man who is or subsequently becomes a soldier of the regular forces either of the cost of the maintenance of his wife or child, or of any bastard child of whom he is the putative father, or of the cost of any relief given to his wife or child by way of loan, a copy of such order or decree shall be sent to a Secretary of State, and in the case—

- (a) Of such order or decree being so sent; or
- (b) Of it appearing to the satisfaction of a Secretary of State that a soldier of the regular forces has deserted or left in destitute circumstances, without reasonable cause, his wife or any of his legitimate children under fourteen years of age, the Secretary of State shall order a portion not exceeding sixpence of the daily pay of a non-commissioned officer who is not below the rank of sergeant, and not exceeding threepence of the daily pay of any other soldier, to be deducted from such daily pay, and to be appropriated, in the first case, in liquidation of the sum adjudged to be paid by such order or decree, and in the second case, towards the maintenance of such wife or children, in such manner as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

(3.) Where a proceeding is instituted against a soldier of the regular forces under any Act, or at common law, for the purpose of enforcing against him any such liability as above in this section mentioned, and such soldier is quartered out of the jurisdiction of the court, or, if the proceeding is before a court of summary jurisdiction, out of the petty sessional division in which the proceeding is instituted, the process shall be served on the commanding officer of such soldier, and such service shall not be valid unless there be left therewith, in the hands of the commanding officer, a sum of money (to be judged as costs incurred in obtaining the order or decree, if made against the soldier) sufficient to enable him to attend the hearing of the case and return to his quarters, and such sum may be expended by the commanding officer for that purpose; and no process whatever under any Act or at common law in any proceeding in this section mentioned shall be valid against a soldier of the regular forces if served after such soldier is under orders for service beyond the seas.

146. An officer of the regular forces on the active list within the meaning of any Royal Warrant for regulating the pay and promotion of the regular forces shall not be capable of being nominated or elected to be sheriff of any county, borough, or other place, or to be mayor or alderman of, or to hold any office in, any municipal corporation in any city, borough, or place in the United Kingdom: Provided that nothing in this section shall disqualify any officer for being elected to or being a member of a county council.

Officers not to be sheriffs or mayors.

147. Every soldier in Her Majesty's regular forces shall be exempt from serving on any jury.

Exemption from jury.

Court of Requests in India.

[Ss. 148-150 rep. 51 & 52 Vic. c. 4, s. 6.]

151. (1.) In India all actions of debt and personal actions against persons subject to military law, other than soldiers of the regular forces, where the persons so subject are resident within the local jurisdiction of any court of small causes, shall be cognizable by such court to the extent of its powers.

Courts of small causes and civil courts in India

* * * * *

(3.) A civil court or court of small causes, upon adjudging payment of any sum by any person subject to military law other than a soldier of the regular forces, may either award execution thereof generally, or may direct specially that the amount named in the direction, being the whole or any part of the said sum, shall be paid by instalments or otherwise out of any pay or other public money payable to the debtor, and the amount named in the direction, not exceeding one half of such pay and public money, shall, while the debtor is in India, be stopped and paid in conformity with the direction.

(4.) In regard to award of execution generally, a civil court or court of small causes shall proceed in accordance with the rules of procedure of such court in India.

Legal Penalties in Matters respecting Forces.

152. Any person who falsely represents himself to any military, naval, or civil authority to be a deserter from Her Majesty's regular forces shall on summary conviction be sentenced to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

Punishment for pretending to be a deserter.

153. Any person who in the United Kingdom or elsewhere by any means whatsoever—

- (1) Procures or persuades any soldier to desert, or attempts to procure or persuade any soldier to desert; or
- (2) Knowing that a soldier is about to desert, aids or assists him in deserting; or
- (3) Knowing any soldier to be a deserter, conceals such soldier, or aids or assists him in concealing himself, or aids or assists in his rescue, shall be liable on summary conviction to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months.

Punishment for inducing soldiers to desert.

Apprehension of deserters.

154. With respect to deserters the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1) Upon reasonable suspicion that a person is a deserter, it shall be lawful for any constable, or if no constable can be immediately met with, then for any officer or soldier or other person, to apprehend such suspected person, and forthwith to bring him before a court of summary jurisdiction:
- (2) A justice of the peace, magistrate, or other person having authority to issue a warrant for the apprehension of a person charged with crime may, if satisfied by evidence on oath that a deserter is or is reasonably suspected to be within his jurisdiction, issue a warrant authorising such deserter to be apprehended and brought forthwith before a court of summary jurisdiction:
- (3) Where a person is brought before a court of summary jurisdiction charged with being a deserter under this Act, such court may deal with the case in like manner as if such person were brought before the court charged with an indictable offence, or in Scotland an offence:
- (4) The court, if satisfied either by evidence on oath or by the confession of such person that he is a deserter, shall forthwith, as it may seem to the court most expedient with regard to his safe custody, cause him either to be delivered into military custody in such manner as the court may deem most expedient, or, until he can be so delivered, to be committed to some prison, police station, or other place legally provided for the confinement of persons in custody, for such reasonable time as appears to the court reasonably necessary for the purpose of delivering him into military custody:
- (5) Where the person confessed himself to be a deserter, and evidence of the truth or falsehood of such confession is not then forthcoming, the court shall remand such person for the purpose of obtaining information as to the truth or falsehood of the said confession, and for that purpose the court shall transmit, if sitting in the United Kingdom to a Secretary of State, and if in India to the general or other officer commanding the forces in the military district or station where the court sits, and if in a colony to the general or other officer commanding the forces in that colony, a return (in this Act referred to as a descriptive return) containing such particulars and being in such form as is specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, or as may be from time to time directed by a Secretary of State:
- (6) The court may from time to time remand the said person for a period not exceeding eight days in each instance and not exceeding in the whole such period as appears to the court reasonably necessary for the purpose of obtaining the said information:
- (7) Where the court cause a person either to be delivered into military custody or to be committed as a deserter, the court shall send, if in the United Kingdom to a Secretary of State, and if in India or a colony to the general or other officer commanding as aforesaid, a descriptive return in relation to such deserter, for which the clerk of the court shall be entitled to a fee of two shillings:
- (8) A Secretary of State shall direct payment of the said fee.

Penalty on trafficking in commissions.
34 & 35 Vict.
c. 86.

155. Every person (except the Army Purchase Commissioners and persons acting under their authority by virtue of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871,) who negotiates, acts as agent for, or otherwise aids or connives at—

- (1) The sale or purchase of any commission in Her Majesty's regular forces; or
- (2) The giving or receiving of any valuable consideration in respect of any promotion in or retirement from such forces, or any employment therein; or
- (3) Any exchange which is made in manner not authorised by regulations made in pursuance of the Regimental Exchanges Act, 1875, and in respect of which any sum of money or other consideration is given or received,

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 16.

shall be liable on conviction on indictment or information to a fine of one hundred pounds, or to imprisonment for any period not exceeding six months, and if an officer, on conviction by court-martial, to be dismissed the service.

purchasing from
regimental necessaries, equipments, stores, &c.

156. (1.) Every person who—

- (a) Buys, exchanges, takes in pawn, detains, or receives from a soldier, or any person acting on his behalf, on any pretence whatsoever; or
- (b) Solicits or entices any soldier to sell, exchange, pawn, or give away; or
- (c) Assists or acts for a soldier in selling, exchanging, pawning, or making away with, any of the property following; namely, any arms, ammunition, equipments, instruments, regimental necessaries, or clothing, or any military decorations of an officer or soldier, or any furniture, bedding, blankets, sheets, utensils, and stores in regimental charge, or any provisions or forage issued for the use of an officer or soldier, or his horse, or of any horse employed in Her Majesty's service, shall, unless he proves either that he acted in ignorance of the same being such property as aforesaid, or of the person with whom he dealt being or acting for a soldier, or that the same was sold by order of a Secretary of State or some competent military authority, be liable on summary conviction, in the case of the first offence, to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, together with treble the value of any property of which such offender has become possessed by means of his offence; and in the case of a second offence, to a fine not less than five pounds, and not exceeding twenty pounds, together with treble the value of any property of which such offender has become possessed by means of his offence, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months.

(2.) Where any such property as above in this section mentioned is found in the possession or keeping of any person, such person may be taken or summoned before a court of summary jurisdiction, and if such court have reasonable ground to believe that the property so found was stolen, or was bought, exchanged, taken in pawn, obtained or received in contravention of this section, then if such person does not satisfy the court that he came by the property so found lawfully and without any contravention of this Act, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

(3.) A person charged with an offence against this section, and the wife or husband of such person, may, if he or she think fit, be sworn and examined as an ordinary witness in the case.

(4.) A person found committing an offence against this section may be apprehended without warrant, and taken, together with the property which is the subject of the offence, before a court of summary jurisdiction; and any person to whom any such property as above mentioned is offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered, who has reasonable cause to suppose that the same is offered in contravention of this section, may, and if he has the power shall, apprehend the person offering such property, and forthwith take him, together with such property, before a court of summary jurisdiction.

(5.) A court of summary jurisdiction, if satisfied on oath that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any person has in his possession, or on his premises, any property on or with respect to which any offence in this section mentioned has been committed, may grant a warrant to search for such property, as in the case of stolen goods; and any property found on such search shall be seized by the officer charged with the execution of such warrant, who shall bring the person in whose possession the same is found before some court of summary jurisdiction, to be dealt with according to law.

(6.) For the purposes of this section property shall be deemed to be in the possession or keeping of a person if he knowingly has it in the actual possession or keeping of any other person, or in any house, building, lodging, apartment, field, or place, open or enclosed, whether occupied by himself or not, and whether the same is so had for his own use or benefit, or for the use or benefit of another.

(7.) Articles which are public stores within the meaning of the Public Stores Act, 1875, and are not included in the foregoing description, shall not be deemed to be stores issued as regimental necessities or otherwise within the meaning of section thirteen of that Act. 38 & 39 Vict. c. 25.

(8.) It shall be lawful for the Governor-General of India or for the legislature of any colony, on the recommendation of the governor thereof, but not otherwise, by any law or ordinance to reduce a minimum fine under this section to such amount as may to such Governor-General or legislature appear to be better adapted to the pecuniary means of the inhabitants.

(9.) Every person who receives, detains, or has in his possession the identity certificate or life certificate of a person entitled to a military pension or to reserve pay as a pledge or security for a debt, or with a view to obtain payment from the pensioner or person entitled to the pay of a debt due either to himself or to any other person, shall be liable on summary conviction to the like penalty as for an offence under sub-section one of this section, and the certificate shall be deemed to be property within the meaning of this section.

Jurisdiction.

157. Where a person subject to military law has been acquitted or convicted of an offence by a court-martial, he shall not be liable to be tried again by a court-martial in respect of that offence. Person not to be tried twice.

158. (1.) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by any person while subject to military law, such person may be taken into and kept in military custody, and tried and punished for such offence, although he, or the corps or battalion to which he belongs, has ceased to be subject to military law, in like manner as he might have been taken into and kept in military custody, tried or punished, if he or such corps or battalion had continued so subject: Liability to military law in respect of status.

Provided that where a person has since the commission of an offence ceased to be subject to military law, he shall not be tried for such offence, except in the case of the offence of mutiny, desertion, or fraudulent enlistment, unless his trial commences within three months after he has ceased to be subject to military law; but this section shall not affect the jurisdiction of a civil court in the case of any offence triable by such court as well as by court-martial.

(2.) Where a person subject to military law is sentenced by court-martial to penal servitude or imprisonment, this Act shall apply to him during the term of his sentence, notwithstanding that he is discharged or dismissed from Her Majesty's service, or has otherwise ceased to be subject to military law, and he may be kept, removed, imprisoned, and punished accordingly as if he continued to be subject to military law.

159. Any person subject to military law who within or without Her Majesty's dominions commits any offence for which he is liable to be tried by court-martial may be tried and punished for such offence at any place (either within or without Her Majesty's dominions) which is within the jurisdiction of an officer authorised to convene general courts-martial, and in which the offender may for the time being be, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed where the trial by court-martial takes place, and the offender were under the command of the officer convening such court-martial. Liability to military law in respect of place of commission of offence.

160. No person shall be subject to any punishment or penalties under the provisions of this Act other than those which could have been inflicted if he had been tried in the place where the offence was committed. Punishment not increased by trial elsewhere than offence committed.

161. A person shall not in pursuance of this Act be tried or punished for any offence triable by court-martial committed more than three years before the date at which his trial begins, except in the case of the offence of mutiny, desertion, or fraudulent enlistment; but this section shall not affect the jurisdiction of a civil court in the case of any offence triable by such court, as well as by court-martial; and where a soldier has served continuously in an exemplary manner for not less than three years in any corps of Her Majesty's regular forces he shall not be tried for any such offence of desertion (other than desertion on active service), or of fraudulent enlistment, as was committed before the commencement of such three years, but where such offence was fraudulent enlistment all service prior to such enlistment shall be forfeited. Liability to military law in respect of time for trial of offences.

162. (1.) If a person sentenced by a court-martial in pursuance of this Act to punishment for an offence is afterwards tried by a civil court for the same offence, that court shall, in awarding punishment, have regard to the military punishment he may have already undergone. Adjustment of military and civil law.

(2.) Save as aforesaid, nothing in this Act shall exempt an officer or soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary course of law, when accused or convicted of any offence, except such an offence as is declared not to be a crime for the purpose of the provisions of this Act relating to taking a soldier out of Her Majesty's service.

(3.) If an officer—

(a) Neglects or refuses on application to deliver over to the civil magistrate any officer or soldier under his command, who is so accused or convicted as aforesaid; or

(b) Wilfully obstructs or neglects or refuses to assist constables or other ministers of justice in apprehending any such officer or soldier, such commanding officer shall, on conviction in any of Her Majesty's superior courts in the United Kingdom, or in a supreme court in India, be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(4.) A certificate of a conviction of an officer under this section, with the judgment of the court thereon in such form as may be directed by a Secretary of State, shall be transmitted to such Secretary of State.

(5.) Any offence committed by any such commanding officer out of the United Kingdom shall for the purpose of the apprehension, trial, and punishment of the offender be deemed to have been committed within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England; and such court shall have jurisdiction as if the place where the offence was committed or the offender may for the time being be were in England.

(6.) Where a person subject to military law has been acquitted or convicted of an offence by a competent civil court, he shall not be liable to be tried in respect of that offence under this Act.

Evidence.

Regulations as to evidence.

163. (1.) The following enactments shall be made with respect to evidence in proceedings under this Act, whether before a civil court or a court-martial; that is to say,

(a) The attestation paper purporting to be signed by a person on his being attested as a soldier, or the declaration purporting to be made by any person upon his re-engagement in any of Her Majesty's regular forces, or upon any enrolment in any branch of Her Majesty's service, shall be evidence of such person having given the answers to questions which he is therein represented as having given:

The enlistment of a person in Her Majesty's service may be proved by the production of a copy of his attestation paper purporting to be certified to be a true copy by the officer having the custody of the attestation paper without proof of the handwriting of such office, or of his having the custody of the paper:

(b) A letter, return, or other document respecting the service of any person in or the discharge of any person from any portion of Her Majesty's forces, or respecting a person not having served in or belonged to any portion of Her Majesty's forces, if purporting to be signed by or on behalf of a Secretary of State, or of the Commissioners of the Admiralty, or by the commanding officer of any portion of Her Majesty's forces, or of any of Her Majesty's ships, to which such person appears to have belonged, or alleges that he belongs or had belonged, shall be evidence of the facts stated in such letter, return, or other document:

(c) Copies purporting to be printed by a Government printer of Queen's regulations, of royal warrants, of army circulars, and of rules made by Her Majesty, or a Secretary of State, in pursuance of this Act, shall be evidence of such regulations, royal warrants, army circulars, and rules:

(d) An army list or gazette purporting to be published by authority, and either to be printed by a Government printer or to be issued, if in the United Kingdom, by Her Majesty's Stationery Office, and if in India by some office under the Governor-General of India or the Governor of any presidency in India, shall be evidence of the status and rank of the officers therein mentioned, and of any appointment held by such officers, and of the corps or battalion or arm or branch of the service to which such officers belong:

(e) Any warrants or orders made in pursuance of this Act by any military authority shall be deemed to be evidence of the matters and things therein directed to be stated by or in pursuance of this Act, and any copies of such warrants or orders purporting to be certified to be true copies by the officer therein alleged to be authorised by a Secretary of State or Commander-in-Chief to certify the same shall be admissible in evidence:

* * * * *

(g) Where a record is made in one of the regimental books in pursuance of any Act or of the Queen's regulations, or otherwise in pursuance of military duty, and purports to be signed by the commanding officer or by the officer whose duty it is to make such record, such record shall be evidence of the facts thereby stated:

(h) A copy of any record in one of the said regimental books purporting to be certified to be a true copy by the officer having the custody of such book shall be evidence of such record:

(i) A descriptive return within the meaning of this Act, purporting to be signed by a justice of the peace, shall be evidence of the matters therein stated.

(2.) For the purposes of this Act the expression "Government printer" means any printer to Her Majesty, and in India any Government press.

Evidence of civil conviction or acquittal.

164. Whenever any person subject to military law has been tried by any civil court, the clerk of such court, or his deputy, or other officer having the custody of the records of such court, shall, if required by the commanding officer of such person, or by any other officer, transmit to him a certificate setting forth the offence for which the person was tried, together with the judgment of the court thereon if he was convicted, and the acquittal if he was acquitted, and shall be allowed for such certificate a fee of three shillings. Any such certificate shall be sufficient evidence of the conviction and sentence or of the acquittal of the prisoner, as the case may be.

Evidence of conviction by court-martial

165. The original proceedings of a court-martial, purporting to be signed by the president thereof and being in the custody of the Judge Advocate General, or of the officer having the lawful custody thereof, shall be deemed to be of such a public nature as to be admissible in evidence on their mere production from such custody; and any copy purporting to be certified by such Judge Advocate General or his deputy authorised in that behalf, or by the officer having such custody as aforesaid, to be a true copy of such proceedings or of any part thereof, shall be admissible in evidence without proof of the signature of such Judge Advocate General, deputy, or officer; and a Secretary of State, upon production of any such proceedings or certified copy, may, by warrant under his hand, authorise the offender appearing therefrom to have been convicted and sentenced to any punishment, to be imprisoned and otherwise dealt with in accordance with the sentence in the proceedings or certified copy mentioned.

Summary and other Legal Proceedings.

Prosecution of offences, and recovery and application of fines.

166. (1.) A court of summary jurisdiction having jurisdiction in the place where the offence was committed or in the place where the offender may for the time being be shall have jurisdiction over all offences triable in a civil court under this Act, except any such offence as is declared by this Act to be a misdemeanor, or to be punishable on indictment; and any offence within the jurisdiction of a court of summary jurisdiction may be prosecuted, and the fine and forfeiture in respect thereof may be recovered on summary conviction, in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts.

(2.) Any proceedings taken before a court of summary jurisdiction in pursuance of this Act shall be taken in accordance with the Summary Jurisdiction Acts so far as applicable.

(3.) A court of summary jurisdiction imposing a fine in pursuance of this Act may, if it seem fit, order a portion of such fine not exceeding one half to be paid to the informer.

(4.) Where the maximum fine or imprisonment which a court of summary jurisdiction in England, when sitting in an occasional courthouse, is authorised by law to impose is less than the minimum fine or imprisonment fixed by this Act, the court may impose the maximum fine or imprisonment which such court is authorised by law to impose, but if required by either party, shall adjourn the case to the next practicable petty sessional court.

(5.) The court of summary jurisdiction in Ireland, when hearing and determining a case arising under this Act, shall be constituted either of two or more justices of the peace sitting at some court or public place at which justices are for the time being accustomed to assemble for the purpose of holding petty sessions, or of some magistrate or officer sitting alone or with others at some court or other place appointed for the public administration of justice and for the time being empowered by law to do alone any act authorised to be done by more than one justice of the peace.

(6.) Subject to the provisions of this Act with regard to the payment to the informer, fines and other sums recovered before a court of summary jurisdiction in pursuance of this Act shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, if recovered in England, be paid into the Exchequer, and if recovered in Ireland, shall be applied in manner directed by the Fines Act (Ireland), 1851, and any Acts amending the same. 14 & 15 Vict.
c. 80.

167. (1.) In Scotland, offences and fines which may be prosecuted and recovered on summary conviction may be prosecuted and recovered and proceedings under this Act may be taken at the instance of the procurator fiscal of the court, or of any person in that behalf authorised by a Secretary of State or the Commander-in-Chief, or of any person authorised by this Act to complain. Summary proceedings in Scotland.

(2.) All fines under this Act in default of payment, and all orders made under this Act failing compliance, may be enforced by imprisonment for a term to be specified in the order or conviction, but not exceeding three months, and the conviction and warrant may be in the form number three of Schedule K. of the Summary Procedure Act, 1864. 27 & 28 Vict.
c. 53.

(3.) All fines and other sums recovered under this Act before a court of summary jurisdiction, subject to any payment made to the informer, shall be paid to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, on behalf of Her Majesty.

(4.) It shall be no objection to the competency of a person to give evidence as a witness in any prosecution for offences under this Act, that such prosecution is brought at the instance of such person.

(5.) Every person convicted of an offence under this Act shall be liable in the reasonable costs and charges of such conviction.

(6.) All jurisdictions, powers, and authorities necessary for the purposes of this Act are conferred on the sheriffs and their substitutes and on justices of the peace.

(7.) The court may make, and may also from time to time alter or vary, summary orders under this Act on petition by the procurator fiscal of the court, or such person as aforesaid, presented in common form.

168. All offences under this Act which may be prosecuted, and all fines under this Act which may be recovered on summary conviction, and all proceedings under this Act which may be taken before a court of summary jurisdiction, may be prosecuted and recovered and taken in the Isle of Man, Channel Islands, India, and any colony in such courts and in such manner as may be from time to time provided therein by law, or if no express provision is made, then in and before the courts and in the manner in which the like offences and fines may be prosecuted and recovered and proceedings taken therein by law, or as near thereto as circumstances admit. Summary proceedings in Isle of Man, Channel Islands, India, and the colonies.

169. It shall be lawful for the Governor-General of India, and for the legislature of any colony, to provide by law for reducing any fine directed by this Act to be recovered on summary conviction to such amount as may appear to the Governor-General or legislature to be better adapted to the pecuniary means of the inhabitants, and also to declare the amount of the local currency which is to be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be equivalent to any sum of British currency mentioned in this Act. Power of Governor-General of India and legislature of colony as to fines.

170. (1.) Any action, prosecution, or proceeding against any person for any act done in pursuance or execution or intended execution of this Act, or in respect of any alleged neglect, or default in the execution of this Act, shall not lie or be instituted unless it is commenced within twelve months next after the act, neglect, or default complained of, or, in case of a continuance of injury or damage, within twelve months next after the ceasing thereof. Protection of persons acting under Act.

(2.) In any such action tender of amends before the action was commenced may, in lieu of or in addition to any other plea, be pleaded. If the action was commenced after such tender, or is proceeded with after payment into court of any money in satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim, and the plaintiff does not recover more than the sum tendered or paid, he shall not recover any costs incurred after such tender or payment, and the defendants shall be entitled to costs, to be taxed as between solicitor and client, as from the time of such tender or payment; but this provision shall not affect costs on any injunction in the action.

(3.) Every such action, and also every action against a member or minister of a court-martial in respect of a sentence of such court, or of anything done by virtue or in pursuance of such sentence, shall be brought in one of Her Majesty's superior courts in the United Kingdom (which courts shall have jurisdiction to try the same wherever the matter complained of occurred) or in a supreme court in India, or in any Colonial court of superior jurisdiction, provided the matter complained of occurred within the jurisdiction of such Indian or Colonial Court respectively, and in no other court whatsoever.

Miscellaneous.

171. Any power or jurisdiction given to, and any act or thing to be done by, to, or before any person holding any military office may be exercised by, or done by, to, or before any other person for the time being authorised in that behalf according to the custom of the service; or according to rules made under section seventy of this Act. Exercise of powers vested in holder of military office.

Provisions as to
orders of

172. (1.) Where any order is authorised by this Act to be made by the Commander-in-Chief or the Adjutant-General, or by the Commander-in-Chief or Adjutant-General of the forces in India, or by any general or other officer commanding, such order may be signified by an order, instruction, or letter under the hand of any officer authorised to issue orders on behalf of such Commander-in-Chief, Adjutant-General, or general or other officer commanding, and an order, instruction, or letter purporting to be signed by any officer appearing therein to be so authorised shall be evidence of his being so authorised.

(2.) The foregoing enactment of this section shall extend to any order or directions issued in pursuance of this Act in relation to a military convict or military prisoner, and any such order or directions shall not be held void by reason of the death or removal from office of the officer signing or ordering the issue of the same, or by reason of any defect in such order or directions, if it be alleged in such order or directions that the convict or prisoner has been convicted, and there is a good and valid conviction to sustain the order or directions.

(3.) An order in any case if issued in the prescribed form shall be valid, but an order deviating from the prescribed form if otherwise valid shall not be rendered invalid by reason only of such deviation.

(4.) Where any military convict or military prisoner is for the time being in custody, whether military or civil, in any place or manner in which he might legally be kept in pursuance of this Act, the custody of such convict or prisoner shall not be deemed to be illegal only by reason of any informality or error in or as respects the order, warrant, or other document, or the authority by or in pursuance whereof such convict or prisoner was brought into or is detained in such custody, and any such order, warrant, or document may be amended accordingly.

(5.) Where a military convict, or a military prisoner, or a person who is subject to military law and charged with an offence, is a prisoner in military custody, and for the purpose of conveyance by sea is delivered on board a ship to the person in command of the ship or to any other person on board the ship acting under the authority of the commander, the order of the military authority which authorises the prisoner to be conveyed by sea shall be a sufficient authority to such person, and to the person for the time being in command of the ship, to keep the said prisoner in custody and convey him in accordance with the order, and the prisoner while so kept shall be deemed to be kept in military custody.

Furlough in case of sickness.

173. If any soldier on furlough is detained by sickness or other casualty rendering necessary any extension of such furlough in any place, and there is not any officer in the performance of military duty of the rank of captain, or of higher rank, within convenient distance of the place, any justice of the peace who is satisfied of such necessity may grant an extension of furlough for a period not exceeding one month; and the said justice shall by letter immediately certify such extension and the cause thereof to the commanding officer of such soldier, if known, and if not, then to a Secretary of State. The soldier may be recalled to duty by his commanding officer or other competent military authority, and the furlough shall not be deemed to be extended after such recall; but, save as aforesaid, the soldier shall not in respect of the period of such extension of furlough, be liable to be treated as a deserter, or as absent without leave.

canteens.

174. (1.) When a person holds a canteen under the authority of a Secretary of State or the Admiralty, it shall be lawful for any two justices within their respective jurisdictions to grant, transfer, or renew any licence for the time being required to enable such person to obtain or hold any excise licence for the sale of any intoxicating liquor, without regard to the time of year, and without regard to the requirements as to notices, certificates, or otherwise, of any Acts for the time being in force affecting such licences; and excise licences may be granted to such persons accordingly.

(2.) For the purposes of this section the expression licence includes any licence or certificate for the time being required by law to be granted, renewed, or transferred by any justices of the peace, in order to enable any person to obtain or hold any excise licence for the sale of any intoxicating liquor.

Use of recreation room without licence.
25 Geo. 2
c. 36.
6 & 7 Vict.
c. 68.

174A. Notwithstanding anything in the Disorderly Houses Act, 1751, or in the Theatres Act 1843, where a recreation room is managed or conducted under the authority of a Secretary of State or the Admiralty, it may be used for public dancing, music, or other public entertainment of the like kind or for the public performance of stage plays, without any licence in pursuance of those Acts, or either of them.

PART V.—APPLICATION OF MILITARY LAW, SAVING PROVISIONS, AND DEFINITIONS.

Persons subject to Military Law.

Persons subject to military law
as officers.

175. The persons in this section mentioned are persons subject to military law as officers, and this Act shall apply accordingly to all the persons so specified; that is to say,

- (1) Officers of the regular forces on the active list, within the meaning of any Royal Warrant for regulating the pay and promotion of the regular forces, and officers not on such active list who are employed on military service under the orders of an officer of the regular forces, who is subject to military law;
- (2) Officers who are members of the permanent staffs of any of the auxiliary forces, and are not otherwise subject to military law;
- (3) Officers of the militia other than members of the permanent staff;
- (4) All such persons not otherwise subject to military law as may be serving in the position of officers of any troops or portion of troops raised by order of Her Majesty beyond the limits of the United Kingdom and of India, and serving under the command of an officer of the regular forces:

Provided that nothing in this Act shall affect the application to such persons of any Act passed by the legislature of a colony:

- (5) Officers of the yeomanry, and officers of the volunteers, whenever in actual command of men who are in pursuance of this Act subject to military law, or when their corps is on actual military service;
- (6) Any officer of the yeomanry or volunteers, whether in receipt of pay or otherwise, during and in respect of the time when with his own consent he is attached to or doing duty with any body of troops for the time being subject to military law, whether of the regular or auxiliary forces, or, with his own consent, is ordered on duty by the military authorities:

- (7) Every person not otherwise subject to military law who under the general or special orders of a Secretary of State or of the Governor-General of India accompanies in an official capacity equivalent to that of officer any of Her Majesty's troops on active service in any place beyond the seas, subject to this qualification, that where such person is a native of India he shall be subject to Indian military law as an officer :
- (8) Any person, not otherwise subject to military law, accompanying a force on active service, who shall hold from the commanding officer of such force a pass, revocable at the pleasure of such commanding officer, entitling such person to be treated on the footing of an officer :
- (9) The persons holding commissions as officers in the Indian army reserve when such officers are called out in any military capacity.

176. The persons in this section mentioned are persons subject to military law as soldiers, and this Act shall apply accordingly to all the persons so specified; that is to say, Persons subject to military law as soldiers.

- (1) All soldiers of the regular forces :
- (2) All non-commissioned officers and men of the permanent staff of any of the auxiliary forces who are not otherwise subject to military law :
- (3) All non-commissioned officers and men serving in a force raised by order of Her Majesty beyond the limits of the United Kingdom and of India, and serving under the command of an officer of the regular forces :

Provided that nothing in this Act shall affect the application to such non-commissioned officers and men of any Act passed by the legislature of a colony :

- (4) All pensioners not otherwise subject to military law who are employed in military service under the orders of an officer of the regular forces :
- (5) All non-commissioned officers and men belonging to the army reserve force or the militia reserve force,—
 - (a) When called out for training and exercise ; and
 - (b) When called out for duty in aid of the civil power ; and
 - (c) When called out on permanent service under Her Majesty's proclamation :
- (6) All non-commissioned officers and men in the militia of the United Kingdom,—
 - (a) During their preliminary training ; and
 - (b) When they or the body of militia to which they belong are being trained or exercised either alone or with any portion of the regular forces or otherwise ; and
 - (c) When attached to or otherwise acting as part of or with any regular forces ; and
 - (d) When embodied :
- (7) All non-commissioned officers and men belonging to the yeomanry force of the United Kingdom,—
 - (a) When they or their corps are being trained or exercised either alone or with any portion of regular forces, or with any portion of the militia when subject to military law ; and
 - (b) When they are attached to or otherwise acting as part of or with any regular forces ; and
 - (c) When their corps is on actual military service ; and
 - (d) When serving in aid of the civil power :
- (8) All non-commissioned officers and men belonging to the volunteer forces of the United Kingdom,—
 - (a) When they are being trained or exercised with any portion of the regular forces, or with any portion of the militia when subject to military law ; and
 - (b) When they are attached to or otherwise acting as part of or with any regular forces ; and
 - (c) When their corps is on actual military service :

Provided that it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of any part of the volunteer force not in actual military service, when he knows that any non-commissioned officers or men belonging to that force are about to enter upon any service which will render them subject to military law, to provide for their being informed that they will become so subject, and for their having an opportunity of abstaining from entering on that service.

- (9) All persons who are employed by or are in the service of any of Her Majesty's troops when employed on active service beyond the seas, and who are not under the former provisions of this Act subject to military law :
- (10) All persons not otherwise subject to military law who are followers of or accompany Her Majesty's troops, or any portion thereof, when employed on active service beyond the seas ; subject to this qualification that, where any such persons are employed by or are followers of or accompany any portion of Her Majesty's forces, consisting partly of Her Majesty's Indian forces subject to Indian military law, and such persons are natives of India, they shall be subject to Indian military law.

177. Where any force of volunteers, or of militia, or any other force, is raised in India or in a colony, any law of India or the colony may extend to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men belonging to such force, whether within or without the limits of India or the colony ; and where any such force is serving with part of Her Majesty's regular forces, then so far as the law of India or the colony has not provided for the government and discipline of such force, this Act and any other Act for the time being amending the same shall, subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be specified in the general orders of the general officer commanding Her Majesty's forces with which such force is serving, apply to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of such force, in like manner as they apply to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men respectively mentioned in the two preceding sections of this Act. Persons belonging to colonial forces, and subject to military law as officers or soldiers.

178. When officers, non-commissioned officers, and men belonging to the auxiliary forces, or any pensioners, are subject to military law in pursuance of this Act, such officers, non-commissioned officers, men, and pensioners shall be subject to this Act in all respects as if they were part of the regular forces, and the provisions of this Act shall be construed as if such officers, non-commissioned officers, men, and pensioners were included in the expression "regular forces" : Provided that nothing in this section contained shall affect the conditions of service of any officer, non-commissioned officer, or man belonging to such auxiliary forces, or of any pensioner. Mutual relations of regular forces and auxiliary forces.

Modification of Act with respect to Royal Marines.

179. In the application of this Act to Her Majesty's Royal Marines the following modifications shall be made :

- (1) Nothing in this Act shall prejudice any power of the Admiralty to make Articles of War for the Royal Marines, or otherwise prejudice the authority of the Admiralty over the Royal Marines, or confer on any officers who are not officers of the Royal Marines any greater authority to command the Royal Marines than they have heretofore used ; and a general court-martial for the trial of an officer or man in the Royal Marines shall not be convened except by an officer authorised by a warrant from the Admiralty in pursuance of this section, and except that, where such officer or man while subject to this Act is serving beyond the seas with any other portion of the regular forces, and in the opinion of the general or other officer commanding those forces (such opinion to be stated in the order convening the court and to be conclusive), there is not present any officer authorised by warrant from the Admiralty to convene a general court-martial, a general court-martial convened by such general or other officer, if authorised to convene general courts-martial, may try such officer or man :
- (2) A district court-martial for the trial of a man in the Royal Marines may be convened by any officer having authority to convene a district court-martial for the trial of any soldier of any other portion of the regular forces :
- (3) Any power in relation to the convening of courts-martial, or of authorising an officer to convene courts-martial, or to delegate the powers of convening courts-martial, or of confirming the findings and sentences of courts-martial, or otherwise in relation to courts-martial, which under this Act Her Majesty may exercise by any warrant or warrants, may be exercised in Her Majesty's name by a warrant or warrants from the Admiralty ; and any such warrant may be addressed to any officer to whom any warrant of Her Majesty can be addressed :
- (4) Any power vested by this Act in Her Majesty in relation to the confirmation of the findings and sentences of courts-martial, or otherwise in relation to courts-martial, may be exercised by the Admiralty :
- (5) Without prejudice to any power of confirmation, the findings and sentences of any general or district court-martial on an officer or man of the Royal Marines may be confirmed by an officer authorised under this section to convene the same, or by any officer otherwise authorised under this Act to confirm the findings and sentences of general or district courts-martial, as the case may be, for the trial of any soldier of any other portion of the regular forces :
- (6) Any power vested in Her Majesty by this Act in relation to the making of rules, or to any order with respect to pay, or to any complaint in respect of an officer who thinks himself wronged, shall be vested in and exercised by the Admiralty, and the provisions of this Act respectively relating to such rules, orders, and complaints shall be construed, so far as respects the Royal Marines, as if "the Admiralty" were substituted for Her Majesty, as well as for the Secretary of State :
- (7) Anything required or authorised by this Act to be done by, to, or before a Secretary of State, the Commander-in-Chief, Adjutant-General, or Judge Advocate General, may, as regards the Royal Marines, be done by, to, or before the Admiralty ; and the provisions of this Act shall be construed, so far as respects the Royal Marines, as if "the Admiralty" were substituted for "Secretary of State," "Commander-in-Chief," "Adjutant-General," and "Judge Advocate General," wherever those words occur :
- (8) Anything required or authorised by this Act to be done by, to, or before the Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India, or the general or other officer commanding the forces in any colony or elsewhere, may, as regards the Royal Marines, be done by, to, or before such officer as the Admiralty may by warrant from time to time appoint in that behalf, and, if no such appointment is made, by such Commander-in-Chief or general or other officer :
- (9) Anything authorised by this Act to be done by Royal Warrant may be done, as regards the Royal Marines, by Warrant of the Admiralty, and the provisions of this Act with respect to Royal warrants printed by the Government printer shall apply to any warrants of the Admiralty under this Act :
- (10) Anything authorised to be done by the deputy of the Judge Advocate General may be done by any one of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, or by a secretary of the Admiralty :
- (11) In the provisions of this Act with respect to evidence, the expression "Queen's Regulations" shall be deemed to include Admiralty Regulations :
- (12) Nothing in the provisions of this Act relating to the term of enlistment, to the conditions of service, to appointment or transfer, to transfer to the reserve, to the re-engagement or prolongation of service, or to forfeiture of service of a soldier of the regular forces, or to the rules for reckoning service for discharge or transfer to the reserve, shall apply to the Royal Marines :

Save that if regulations made by a Secretary of State and the Admiralty provide for the transfer of men of the Royal Marines to any other part of Her Majesty's regular forces, a man of the Royal Marines may, with his consent, be so transferred in accordance with the said regulations, and subject to those regulations, and subject to those regulations shall become a soldier of the said part of Her Majesty's regular forces in like manner, so nearly as circumstances admit, as if he had been enlisted in pursuance of this Act :

And save that if any regulations so made provide for the transfer to the Royal Marines of men belonging to any other part of Her Majesty's regular forces, a man belonging to such part may, with his consent, be so transferred in accordance with the said regulations, and, subject to those regulations, shall become a man of the Royal Marines in like manner, so nearly as circumstances admit, as if he had been enlisted in pursuance of the Acts relating to the Royal Marines :

- (13) A marine on his re-engagement shall make a declaration, either before a justice of the peace or person having under this Act the same authority as a justice of the peace, for the purposes of enlistment, or before a naval officer commanding any ship commissioned by Her Majesty, or before the commanding officer of any battalion or detachment of Royal Marines, in the form from time to time directed by the Admiralty :

- (14) A man in the Royal Marines shall, for absence without leave, on conviction of that offence by court-martial, and for fraudulent enlistment, forfeit his service in like manner as he forfeits it for desertion under the Acts relating to the Royal Marines :
- (15) Officers and men of the Royal Marines, during the time that they are borne on the books of any ship commissioned by Her Majesty (otherwise than for service on shore), shall be subject to the Naval Discipline Act, and to the laws for the government of officers and seamen in the Royal Navy, and to the rules for the discipline of the Royal Navy for the time being, and shall be tried and punished for any offence in the same manner as officers and seamen in the Royal Navy :

29 & 30 Vict.
c. 109 as amended by 47 & 48 Vict.
c. 39.

Provided that—

- (a) The last-mentioned provision shall not prevent the application of this Act to any person dealing with or having any relations with any such officer or man of the Royal Marines or to any such officer or man if found on shore as a deserter or absentee without leave ; and
- (b) If any such officers or men of the Royal Marines are employed on land, the senior naval officer present may, if it seems to him expedient, order that they shall, during such employment, be subject to military law under this Act, and while such order is in force they shall be subject to military law under this Act accordingly :
- (16) If any officer or man of the Royal Marines who is borne on the books of any ship commissioned by Her Majesty commits an offence for which he is not amenable to a naval court-martial, but for which he can be punished under this Act, he may be tried and punished for such offence under this Act :
- (17) The Admiralty may direct that an officer or man of the Royal Marines may be tried under this Act for any offence committed by him on shore, whether he be or be not amenable to a naval court-martial for such offence, or be or be not borne on the books of any ship commissioned by Her Majesty :
- (18) Where any officer or man of the Royal Marines is on board any ship commissioned by Her Majesty, but is borne on the books thereof for service on shore, he shall be subject to the Naval Discipline Act to such extent and under such regulations as Her Majesty by Order in Council from time to time directs, and, so far as she does not so direct, as is for the time being directed by Order in Council with respect to the other regular forces :
- (19) Any naval prison within the meaning of the Naval Discipline Act shall be deemed to be included in the definition of a public prison for the purposes of this Act, and the Admiralty shall not have any authority to establish any military prison under this Act :
- (20) In this section the expression "Admiralty" means the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral for the time being, or any two of them :
- (21) The expression "man of the Royal Marines" includes a non-commissioned officer of the Royal Marines.

29 & 30 Vict.
c. 109 as amended by 47 & 48 Vict.
c. 39.

180. (1.) In the application of this Act to Her Majesty's forces when serving in India the following modification shall be made :

Modification of Act with respect to Her Majesty's Indian forces.

A court-martial may take the same proceedings for the punishment of a person not subject to military law who, in any part of India, commits any offence as a witness before a court-martial, or is guilty of a contempt of a court-martial, as might be taken by any civil court in that part of India in the case of the like offence in that court, and any court in which such proceedings are taken shall have jurisdiction to punish such person accordingly :

(2.) In the application of this Act to Her Majesty's Indian forces the following modifications shall be made :

- (a) Nothing in this Act shall prejudice or affect the Indian military law respecting officers or soldiers or followers in Her Majesty's Indian forces, being natives of India ; and on the trial of all offences committed by any such native officer, soldier, or follower, reference shall be had to the Indian military law for such native officers, soldiers, or followers, and to the established usages of the service, but courts-martial for such trials may be convened in pursuance of this Act :
- (b) For the purpose of this Act the expression "Indian military law" means the Articles of War or other matters made, enacted, or in force, or which may hereafter be made, enacted, or in force under the authority of the Government of India ; and such articles or other matters shall extend to such native officers, soldiers, and followers wherever they are serving :
- (c) The Governor of any presidency in India may suspend the proceedings of any court-martial held in India on an officer or soldier belonging to Her Majesty's Indian forces within such presidency :
- (d) An officer belonging to Her Majesty's Indian forces who thinks himself wronged by his commanding officer, and on due application made to him does not receive the redress to which he may consider himself entitled, may complain to the Commander-in-Chief in the presidency to which such officer belongs, who shall cause his complaint to be inquired into, and thereupon report to the Governor of such presidency in order to receive the further directions of that Governor :
- (e) A court-martial may sentence an officer of the Indian staff corps to forfeit all or any part of his army or staff service, or all or any part of both :
- (f) The Governor of any of the presidencies in India may reduce any warrant officer not holding an honorary commission, who is serving in or belonging to such presidency, to a lower grade of warrant rank, or may remand any such warrant officer to regimental duty in the regimental rank held by him immediately previous to his appointment to be a warrant officer :
- (g) The provisions of this Act relating to warrant officers not holding honorary commissions shall apply to hospital apprentices in India although not appointed by warrant :
- (h) Part Two of this Act shall not apply to Her Majesty's Indian forces, but persons may be enlisted and attested in India for medical service or for other special service in Her Majesty's Indian forces for such periods, by such persons, and in such manner, as may be from time to time authorised by the Governor-General of India.

(3.) In this Act, so far as regards India, any reference to an indictable offence, or an offence punishable on indictment, shall be deemed to refer to an offence punishable with rigorous imprisonment.

Modification of
Act with respect
forces.

181. (1.) The provisions of this Act with respect to enlistment shall not apply to a person enlisted or enrolled in any of Her Majesty's auxiliary forces, except so far as such person enlists or attempts to enlist in the regular forces, and except so far as the said provisions may be applied by any other Act.

(2.) The provisions of this Act shall apply to the permanent staff of the auxiliary forces who are not otherwise part of the regular forces, in like manner as if such permanent staff were part of the regular forces.

(3.) The provisions of this Act with respect to billeting and impressment of carriages shall apply to Her Majesty's auxiliary forces when subject to military law, in like manner as if they were part of the regular forces, subject to the following modification.

(4.) An order issued and signed as a route or an order signed by the officer commanding the battalion of militia, or the battalion or corps of yeomanry, or volunteers, shall be substituted for a route,—

- (a) In the case of any militiaman attending for his preliminary training; and
- (b) In the case of any militia officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, assembled for training and exercise at the place in the United Kingdom appointed by Her Majesty in that behalf; and
- (c) In the case of any militia officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, embodied under an order of Her Majesty, who has joined his corps at the place appointed for his assembling; and
- (d) In the case of any officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, of the yeomanry, or volunteers attending at the place at which his corps is required to assemble; and an order to billet such officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, purporting to be signed in manner required by this Act in the case of a route or by the officer commanding a battalion of militia, or a battalion or corps of yeomanry, or volunteers, as the case may be, shall be evidence, until the contrary is proved, of the order being issued in accordance with this Act, and when delivered to an officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, of the militia, yeomanry, or volunteers, shall be a sufficient authority to such officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, to demand billets, and when produced by an officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, to a constable shall be conclusive evidence to such constable of the authority of the officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, producing the same to demand billets in accordance with the order.

(5.) The competence or liability of an officer of the auxiliary forces to be nominated or elected to, or to hold, the office of sheriff, mayor, or alderman, or an office in a municipal corporation, shall not be affected by reason of the battalion or corps to which he belongs being assembled for annual training at the time of such nomination or election, or during the time of his tenure of office.

(6.) When a member of the volunteers, being a non-commissioned officer or private, is subject to military law, dismissal may be awarded to him as a punishment, in the event of his committing any offence triable by court-martial or punishable by a commanding officer under this Act.

Special
warrant officers.

182. The provisions of this Act shall apply to a warrant officer not holding an honorary commission in like manner as if he were a non-commissioned officer, subject nevertheless (in addition to the modifications for a non-commissioned officer) to the following modifications:

- (1) He shall not be punished by his commanding officer nor tried by regimental court-martial, nor sentenced by a district court-martial to any punishment not in this section mentioned; and
- (2) He may be sentenced—
 - (a) by a district court-martial to such forfeitures, fines, and stoppages as are allowed by this Act, and either in addition to or in substitution for any such punishment, to be dismissed from the service, or to be suspended from rank and pay and allowances, for any period stated by the court-martial, or to be reduced to the bottom or any other place in the list of the rank which he holds, or to be reduced to an inferior class of warrant officer (if any), or if he was originally enlisted as a soldier, but not otherwise, to be reduced to a lower grade, or to the ranks; or
 - (b) by any court-martial having power to try him, other than a district court-martial, to any punishment which under this section a district court-martial has power to award, either in addition to or in substitution for any other punishment;
- (3) A warrant officer reduced to the ranks or remanded to regimental duty in the rank of private shall not be required to serve in the ranks as a soldier;
- (4) The president of a court-martial for the trial of a warrant officer shall in no case be under the rank of captain.

Special provisions as to non-commissioned officer.

183. In the application of this Act to a non-commissioned officer the following modifications shall apply:

- (1) The obligation on a commanding officer to deal summarily with a soldier charged with drunkenness shall not apply to a non-commissioned officer charged with drunkenness;
- (2) The Commander-in-Chief, and in India the Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India, may reduce any non-commissioned officer to any lower grade or to the ranks;
- (3) A non-commissioned officer may be reduced by the sentence of a court-martial to any lower grade or to the ranks, either in addition to or without any other punishment, in respect of an offence;
- (4) A non-commissioned officer sentenced by court-martial to penal servitude or imprisonment shall be deemed to be reduced to the ranks.

Provided that—

- (a) an army schoolmaster shall not be liable to be reduced to the ranks (unless he has been transferred from the ranks in which case he may be reduced to the rank which he held at the date of transfer), but may nevertheless be sentenced by a court-martial to penal servitude or imprisonment, or to a lower grade of pay, or to be dismissed, and if sentenced to penal servitude or imprisonment shall be deemed to be dismissed; but
- (b) The Commander-in-Chief, and in India the Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India, may dismiss an army schoolmaster;
- (c) A soldier being an acting non-commissioned officer by virtue of his employment either in a superior rank or in an appointment, may be ordered by his commanding officer, either for an offence or otherwise, to revert to his permanent grade as a non-commissioned officer, or, if he has no permanent grade above the ranks, to the ranks.

184. In the application of this Act to persons who do not belong to Her Majesty's forces, the following modifications shall be made :—

Special provisions as to application of Act to persons not belonging to Her Majesty's forces.

- (1) Where an offence has been committed by any person subject to military law who does not belong to Her Majesty's forces, such person may be tried by any description of court-martial other than a regimental court-martial, convened by an officer authorised to convene such description of court-martial, within the limits of whose command the offender may for the time being be, and may be tried and on conviction dealt with and punished accordingly :
- (2) Any person subject to military law who does not belong to Her Majesty's forces shall, for the purposes of this Act relating to offences, be deemed to be under the command of the commanding officer of the corps or portion of a corps (if any) to which he is attached, and if he is not attached to any corps or a portion of a corps under the command of any officer who may for the time being be named as his commanding officer by the general or other officer commanding the force with which such person may for the time being be, or of any other prescribed officer, or, if no such officer is named or prescribed, under the command of the said general or other officer commanding, but such person shall not be liable to be punished by a commanding officer or by a regimental court-martial :

Provided that a general or other officer commanding shall not place a person under the command of an officer of rank inferior to the official rank of such person if there is present, at the place where such person is, any officer of higher rank under whose command he can be placed.

Saving Provisions.

185. All jurisdiction and powers of a Secretary of State under this Act with respect to military convicts or military prisoners, or to prisons other than military prisons, shall in Ireland be vested in the General Prisons Board, and shall be exercised by that board in the manner and subject to the regulations in and under which the jurisdiction and powers of that board are exercised under the General Prisons (Ireland) Act, 1877, and the provisions of this Act with respect to the orders and regulations of the Secretary of State shall apply to the orders and regulations of such board.

Special provision as to prisoners and prisons in Ireland.

40 and 41 Vict. c. 49.

186. Nothing in this Act shall affect the application of the Naval Discipline Act, or any Order in Council made thereunder, to any of Her Majesty's forces when embarked on board any ship commissioned by Her Majesty, and the auxiliary forces shall be deemed to be part of Her Majesty's forces within the meaning of that Act.

Saving of Naval Discipline Act as to forces when on board Her Majesty's ships.

Definitions.

187. This Act shall apply to the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man in like manner as if they were part of the United Kingdom, subject to the following modifications :

Application of Act to Channel Islands and Isle of Man.

- (1) The provisions of this Act relating to billeting and the impressment of carriages shall not extend to the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man ;
- (2) For the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the execution of sentences of penal servitude or imprisonment, and to prisons, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man shall be deemed to be colonies, and any sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment passed in any of those islands shall be deemed to have been passed in a colony ;
- (3) For the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the auxiliary forces the Channel Islands shall be deemed to be colonies ;
- (4) For the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the militia the Isle of Man shall be deemed to be a colony.

188. Where a person subject to military law is on board a ship, this Act shall apply until he arrives at the port of disembarkation in like manner as if he and the officers in command of him were on land at the place at which he embarked on board the said ship, subject to this proviso, that, if he is tried and sentenced while so on board ship, any finding and sentence, so far as not confirmed and executed on board ship, may be confirmed and executed in like manner as if such person had been tried at the port of disembarkation.

Application of Act to ships.

189. (1.) In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context, the expression "on active service" as applied to a person subject to military law means whenever he is attached to or forms part of a force which is engaged in operations against the enemy or is engaged in military operations in a country or place wholly or partly occupied by an enemy, or is in military occupation of any foreign country.

Interpretation of term "on active service."

(2.) Where the governor of a colony in which any of Her Majesty's forces are serving, or if the forces are serving out of Her Majesty's dominions, the general officer commanding such forces, declares at any time or times that, by reason of the imminence of active service or of the recent existence of active service, it is necessary for the public service that the forces in the colony or under his command, as the case may be, should be temporarily subject to this Act, as if they were on active service, then, on the publication in general orders of any such declaration, the forces to which the declaration applies shall be deemed to be on active service for the period mentioned in the declaration, so that the period mentioned in any one declaration do not exceed three months from the date thereof.

(3.) If at any time during the said period the governor or general officer for the time being is of opinion that the necessity continues he may from time to time renew such declaration for another period not exceeding three months, and such renewal shall be published and have effect as the original declaration, and if he is of opinion that the said necessity has ceased, he shall state such opinion, and on the publication in general orders of such statement, the forces to which the declaration applies shall cease to be deemed to be on active service.

(4.) Every such declaration, renewal of declaration, and statement by the governor of a colony shall be made by proclamation published in the official gazette of the colony, and it shall be the duty of every governor or general officer making a declaration or renewal of a declaration under this section, if he has the means of direct telegraphic communication with a Secretary of State, to obtain the previous consent of the Secretary of State to such declaration or renewal, and in any other case to report the same with the utmost practicable speed to the Secretary of State.

(5.) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, annul a declaration or renewal purporting to be made in pursuance of this section, without prejudice to anything done by virtue thereof before the date at which the annulment takes effect, and until that date any such declaration or renewal shall be deemed to have been duly made in accordance with this section, and shall have full effect.

Interpretation of terms.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

BILLETING.

PART I.

Accommodation to be furnished by keeper of victualling house.

- A keeper of a victualling house on whom any officer, soldier, or horse is billeted—
- (1) Shall furnish the officer and soldier with lodging and attendance; and
 - (2) Shall, if required by the soldier, furnish him for every day of the march and for not more than two days, if the soldier is halted at an intermediate place on the march for more than two days, and on the day of arrival at the place of final destination, with one hot meal on each day, the meal to consist of such quantities of diet and small beer as may be from time to time fixed by Her Majesty's regulations, not exceeding one pound and a quarter of meat previous to being dressed, one pound of bread, one pound of potatoes or other vegetables, and two pints of small beer, and vinegar, salt, and pepper, and with a breakfast consisting of half a pound of bread and a cup of tea; and
 - (3) When the soldier is not so entitled to be furnished with a hot meal, shall furnish the soldier with candles, vinegar, and salt, and allow him the use of fire, and the necessary utensils for dressing and eating his meat; and
 - (4) Shall furnish stable room and ten pounds of oats, twelve pounds of hay, and eight pounds of straw on every day for each horse.

PART II.

Regulations as to Billets.

- (1) When the troops are on the march the billets given shall, except in case of necessity or of an order of a justice of the peace, be upon victualling houses in or within one mile from the place mentioned in the route:
- (2) Care shall always be taken that the billets be made out to the less distant victualling houses in which suitable accommodation can be found before billets are made out for the more distant victualling houses:
- (3) Except in case of necessity, where horses are billeted, each man and his horse shall be billeted on the same victualling house:
- (4) Except in case of necessity, one soldier at least shall be billeted where there are one or two horses, and two soldiers at least where there are four horses, and so in proportion for a greater number:
- (5) Except in case of necessity, a soldier and his horse shall not be billeted at a greater distance from each other than one hundred yards:
- (6) When any soldiers with their horses are billeted upon the keeper of a victualling house who has no stables, on the written requisition of the commanding officer present the constable shall billet the soldiers and their horses, or the horses only, on the keeper of some other victualling house who has stables, and a court of summary jurisdiction upon complaint by the keeper of the last-mentioned victualling house may order a proper allowance to be paid to him by the keeper of the victualling house relieved:
- (7) An officer demanding billets may allot the billets among the soldiers under his command and their horses as he thinks most expedient for the public service, and may from time to time vary such allotment:
- (8) The commanding officer may, where it is practicable, require that not less than two men shall be billeted in one house.

Section 113.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

IMPRESSMENT OF CARRIAGES.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.
WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the sixteenth day of October, 1890, I did, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Land Board, order that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884" as requires land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection should be suspended with respect to the Country Land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Surveyor-General was, by the said Order in Council, required to divide the said land into lots, and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans: And whereas the Surveyor-General has accordingly divided the said land into the lots specified in the said Schedule, and has indicated the position thereof on proper maps or plans: Now, therefore, in pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the said lands specified in the said Schedule hereto, being situated in the NANANGO Land Agent's District, shall be open both for CONDITIONAL and UNCONDITIONAL Selection, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the FOURTH day of JUNE, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said lands shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be 1,280 acres.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this eighteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.

DIVISION OF BELYANDO.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Brisbane, 11th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," been pleased to approve of the following By-law, No. 10, made by the Board of the Division of Belyando.

A. H. BARLOW.

WHEREAS by "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887" the Board of any Division is empowered to make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Board of the Belyando Division, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Division from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 10.

1. All goats kept within the boundaries of the Belyando Division shall be registered by the owner or keeper thereof at the office of the clerk of the said Division in manner following, that is to say:—By delivering at the office of the said Division clerk a description of such goats, embracing the several particulars contained in Schedule A hereto, with a certificate under the hand of such owner or keeper of the truth thereof; and every such registration shall be in force from the day on which the same shall be so made until the thirty-first day of December then next ensuing and no longer.

2. At the time of making every such registration there shall be paid to the Division clerk by the person making the same the sums mentioned in the Schedule hereunto marked B, and until such amount or amounts shall have been so paid no such registration shall be deemed to have been made; and upon such payment the Division clerk shall, on demand, give a receipt for the sum paid in the form of the Schedule hereto marked C.

3. Every such registered goat shall at all times have a collar or triangle bearing the registered number and year of registration round its neck.

4. The owner or keeper of any goat or goats failing or neglecting to register the same, or to keep such collar or triangle numbered as aforesaid upon any such registered goat or goats, or any owner or keeper of any goat or goats not having the same duly registered, or keeping or allowing to remain on any unregistered goat any such collar or triangle as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than two pounds sterling nor more than five pounds sterling.

5. It shall and may be lawful for any officer of the Board, or any workman under the direction of the said Board, at any places within the boundaries of the Division, to seize and detain any goat or goats not duly registered or not wearing such collar or triangle as aforesaid, and may or may not kill every such goat or goats, and may burn or otherwise destroy and dispose of the carcass thereof.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

To the Supreme Court of Queensland.

[L.S.] The humble Petition of Thomas Edward White, Sealed Copy. of Brisbane, in the Colony of Queensland, merchant,

Sheweth,—

THAT Henry John Pollard, of Brisbane, in the Colony of Queensland, musician, is indebted to your Petitioner in the sum of three hundred and twenty pounds:

That your Petitioner is informed and believes that the said Henry John Pollard lately, and whilst so indebted to your Petitioner, committed an act of insolvency, that is to say,—“With intent to defeat or delay his creditors departed out of the Colony, and otherwise absented himself.”

Your Petitioner therefore prays that the said Henry John Pollard may be adjudicated insolvent.

THOS. E. WHITE.

Signed by the said Thomas Edward White, at Brisbane aforesaid, this eleventh day of April, 1894, in the presence of—

W. POCOCK, J.P.

This is the Petition, marked “A,” referred to in the annexed affidavit of Thomas Edward White, sworn before me at Brisbane this eleventh day of April, 1894.

THOS. E. WHITE, W. POCOCK,
Deponent. A Justice of the Peace.

In the Supreme Court of Queensland.

SATURDAY, 21st APRIL, 1894.

[No. 85.]

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 11th April, 1894.

THE following REPORT of the REGISTRAR-GENERAL on the VITAL STATISTICS of the REGISTRY DISTRICT of BRISBANE, including the CITY and SUBURBS, for the Month of March, 1894, is published for general information.

HORACE TOZER.

BIRTHS.

During the month of March 155 births were registered in the Registry District of Brisbane, being 90 males and 65 females, the number being 6 more than in the previous month of February.

In the month of March, 1893, there were 187 births registered, the number for the corresponding month of this year being 32 less than in March of last year.

DEATHS.

There have been 71 deaths registered in the Registry District of Brisbane during the month—41 males and 30 females; the excess of births over deaths being 84.

The number of deaths was 14 more than was registered in the previous month of February.

In the month of March, 1893, there were 83 deaths registered; the number for the corresponding month of this year being 12 less than in March of last year.

TABLE showing ESTIMATED POPULATION, the NUMBER of BIRTHS and DEATHS of MALES and FEMALES Registered within and outside the MUNICIPALITY, in the REGISTRY DISTRICT of BRISBANE and SUBURBS, from the 1st to the 31st MARCH, 1894; also TOTAL DEATHS under FIVE YEARS and under ONE YEAR, and PROPORTION of DEATHS under ONE YEAR to the TOTAL NUMBER of BIRTHS; also the PROPORTION of DEATHS under FIVE YEARS and under ONE YEAR to TOTAL DEATHS in the REGISTRY DISTRICT of BRISBANE and SUBURBS.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George,
[L.S.]
H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by "The Chinese Immigration Restriction Act, 1888," it is amongst other things provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, by Proclamation published in the Gazette, to declare that the provisions of the said Act shall not apply to any person or class of persons mentioned in such Proclamation, either generally or for any time fixed by such Proclamation: And whereas it is desirable that certain Chinese, viz., Jang Chong Leck, Cheung Wah, Ah Ling, On Kee, Wy Ty Hee, Yong See (wife of Jim Sin), Wong Sung (child of Jim Sin), Lee Toll, Ah Kia, Tommy Ah See, Loong Sing, and Bat Young, should be exempted from the provisions of the said Act for a period of two years: Now, therefore, I, SIR HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby declare that the provisions of the said Act shall not apply to the said Jang Chong Leck, Cheung Wah, Ah Ling, On Kee, Wy Ty Hee, Yong See (wife of Jim Sin), Wong Sung (child of Jim Sin), Lee Toll, Ah Kia, Tommy Ah See, Loong Sing, and Bat Young for a period of two years from the date hereof.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George,
[L.S.]
H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation under my Hand and Seal, dated the twentieth day of September, 1893, issued under the provisions of "The Queensland Fisheries Act of 1887," the taking of Dugong in the waters of Moreton Bay was absolutely prohibited from and after the first day of October, 1893: And whereas it is now deemed desirable to rescind the said Proclamation: Now, therefore, I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, rescind the said Proclamation of the twentieth day of September, 1893, as on and from the Fourteenth day of May, 1894.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, [L.S.]
H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-first year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "The Bank Holidays Act of 1877," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time, by Proclamation in the Gazette, to appoint a special day to be observed as a Public Holiday, either throughout Queensland, or in any part thereof, or in any city, town, borough, or district therein: Now, therefore, I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, and by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby appoint the following days to be observed as Public Holidays in the places hereunder named:—

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, the 9th and 10th of May proximo, being the days respectively appointed for holding the Annual Show of the Hughenden Pastoral and Agricultural Association, and the Annual Race Meeting of the Hughenden Jockey Club, in the Town of Hughenden; and WEDNESDAY, the 9th of May proximo, being one of the days appointed for holding the Annual Race Meeting of the South Warrego Racing Club, in the Town of Cunnamulla.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-fifth day of April, 1894, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, HORACE TOZER.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, [L.S.]
H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

IN pursuance of the power and authority in me vested, and in accordance with the provisions of section 121 of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby notify and proclaim that the part of the Suburban Reservation around the town of Cometville described hereunder shall be and is hereby rescinded.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council made on the twenty-ninth day of June, 1887, and the twenty-fifth day of April, 1894, I did, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Land Board, order that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884" as requires land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection should be suspended with respect to the Country Land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Surveyor-General was, by the said Orders in Council, required to divide the said land into lots and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans: And whereas the Surveyor-General has accordingly divided the said land into the lots specified in the said Schedule, and has indicated the position thereof on proper maps or plans: Now, therefore, in pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the said lands specified in the said Schedule hereto, being situated in the ROMA Land Agent's District, shall be open both for CONDITIONAL and UNCONDITIONAL Selection, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the FOURTH day of JUNE, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said lands shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be 1,280 acres.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.

[L.S.]
By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

H. W. NORMAN,
Governor.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the fifth day of May, 1887, I did, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Land Board, order that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884" as requires land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection should be suspended with respect to the Country Land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Surveyor-General was, by the said Order in Council, required to divide the said land into lots and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans: And whereas the Surveyor-General has accordingly divided the said land into the lots specified in the said Schedule, and has indicated the position thereof on proper maps or plans: Now, therefore, in pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the said lands specified in the said Schedule hereto, being situated in the GYMPIE Land Agent's District, shall be open both for CONDITIONAL and UNCONDITIONAL Selection, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the FOURTH day of JUNE, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said land shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be 1,280 acres.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

DIVISION OF HUGHENDEN.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Brisbane, 25th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," been pleased to approve of the following By-laws, Nos. 1 to 17 inclusive, made by the Board of the Division of Hughenden.

HORACE TOZER.

WHEREAS by "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887" it is enacted that the Board of any Division may make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Board of the Division of Hughenden, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-laws shall be in force within the said Division from the date of publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 1.

MEETING OF THE BOARD.

An ordinary meeting of the Board shall be held in Hughenden on the second Wednesday of each alternate month, commencing with July, 1893; and at any time a special meeting of the Board may be convened upon the requisition made in writing by any two members of the Board for the consideration of the business set forth in the requisition. Seven days' notice, by posted circular, shall be given by the clerk, of both ordinary and special meetings.

BY-LAW No. 2.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

1. At all ordinary meetings of the Board, as soon as the quorum is present, the business shall be proceeded with, and the following shall be the order of business:—Reading and confirmation of minutes; reading of correspondence (outward and inward); receiving petitions or memorials; reception of reports; consideration of tenders; business arising out of minutes of previous meetings; consideration of notices of motion or the orders of the day.

2. No discussion shall be allowed on the minutes of proceedings, except as to their correctness or for any necessary rectification of clerical error.

3. Every petition or memorial shall be presented by a member of the Board, who shall be responsible that it is written in respectful language; and shall, so far as possible, make himself acquainted with the subject thereof before presenting the same.

4. All notices of motion shall be written and signed by the members making the same, and handed to the chairman or clerk at least one month prior to the date of the consideration of the same. Such notices shall be filed in order as received, and be placed in succession on the orders of the day for consideration.

5. In the absence of any member who has given due notice of motion, any other member present may take up and move the same. If not so moved the motion shall lapse.

6. No motion, after being placed on the orders of the day, shall be withdrawn without the permission of the Board.

BY-LAW No. 3.

ORDER OF DEBATE.

1. The chairman shall preserve order, and his decision on disputed points of order shall be final.

2. When the chairman is called on to decide a point of order or practice, he shall state the rule applicable to the case, without argument or comment.

3. If two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the chairman shall decide which member is entitled to pre-audience.

4. Any member may require the question or matter under discussion to be read for his information at any time during a debate, but not so far as to interrupt any other member while speaking.

5. Every member, when speaking, shall rise and address the chairman, and shall not address any other member except through the chairman.

6. On being called to order by the chairman, any member who is speaking shall at once resume his seat, and be silent till the sense of the Board has been taken on the point of order.

7. No member shall be allowed to speak twice on any subject under discussion, except in reply or by way of explanation, nor for longer than ten minutes at one time, unless with the consent and approval of the Board.

8. No member shall be allowed to speak disrespectfully of any resolution arrived at by a majority of the Board, but he may enter his protest against any of the proceedings of the Board, and the protest shall be recorded in the minutes; such notice of intention to protest must, however, be given on the adoption of the resolution objected to. No member shall digress from the subject-matter of the question under discussion, or impute improper motives to others, and all personal reflections upon any member shall be considered highly disorderly.

9. No motion, the effect of which, if carried, would be to rescind any resolution which has already passed the Board, shall be entertained during the same divisional year, unless a call of the whole Board has been duly made for the purpose; and no such motion for rescinding any resolution which shall have been negatived by the Board shall be again entertained during the same divisional year.

10. Any number of amendments can be proposed on a motion before the Board, and when more than one amendment is moved and seconded, the question shall first be put on the last amendment, and then on the next to the last, and so on to the original motion in the inverse order to that in which they have been moved, except when such motion or amendment shall relate to the fixing of salaries, rates, or other matters of finance, in which case the lowest sum shall be put first, then the next lowest, and so on to the highest.

11. Any motion for adjournment of meeting or debate, if seconded, shall be immediately put without discussion, and if such motion be negatived it shall not be competent for any member to make a similar motion until some other business has intervened. On resuming any discussion which has been adjourned the mover of such adjournment shall speak first.

12. The chairman shall, on taking the sense of the Board, put the question first in the affirmative, then in the negative.

BY-LAW No. 4.

COMMITTEES.

1. There shall be two standing committees, to be styled respectively "finance" and "works" committees.

2. The finance committee shall consist of three members of the Board, two to form a quorum.

3. All accounts, bills, vouchers, and all monetary transactions shall in the first instance be submitted to the finance committee, and be signed by the chairman of the same as guaranteeing their correctness previous to settlement.

4. The finance committee shall submit a report to the Board at each ordinary meeting of the whole of the receipts and disbursements of cash on account of the Division.

5. An account shall be kept at such bank as the Board may direct, and all moneys received from whatever source shall be paid into the bank to the credit of the divisional fund, and no moneys shall be paid except by cheques signed by the chairman of the Board, one member of the finance committee, and countersigned by the clerk, or, in the chairman's absence, by two members of the finance committee countersigned by the clerk.

6. The works committee shall consist of three members of the Board, two to form a quorum.

7. All matters connected with public buildings, making or repairing roads or bridges, or with any other public works whatever, shall be submitted to the works committee or to the board's overseer, and a written report thereon made to the Board.

8. All committee reports submitted to the Board shall be written out fairly on foolscap paper and duly signed by the chairman of such committee, care being taken to have sufficient marginal space to admit of their being bound into books if necessary.

9. Committee reports, with the exception of those submitted by the finance committee, shall be laid on the table for at least one week prior to being rejected or adopted by the Board. A special committee may be dissolved by vote of the Board at any time.

BY-LAW No. 5.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

1. No permanent appointment shall be made to any office under the Board until an advertisement has been published in one or more of the local newspapers calling for applications for competent persons to fill such appointment.

2. All such appointments shall be made by a majority of the votes of the Board.

3. On the first meeting after the election of the chairman the Board shall fix the amount of remuneration or salary to be allowed to each officer employed under the Board for the current divisional year.

4. The clerk shall have charge of the common seal and all charters, books, and records of the Board, or relating to the property thereof, and the same shall be kept in such place as the Board shall direct.

5. The clerk shall on no account affix the common seal to any document without the express order of the Board.

6. A book shall be kept in which members attending each Board meeting shall sign their names, from which a list shall be prepared of the number of times each member has attended, and the same shall be published yearly.

7. It shall be competent for any member, without any previous notice, to move for a call of the whole Board to consider any subject at the next or any subsequent meeting; and upon such motion being carried, due notice thereof shall be given in the notice-paper of the day for which such call is made.

8. The chairman shall be authorised to expend any sum not exceeding ten pounds, and such expenditure shall be reported to the Board at its next sitting.

9. All tenders for public works or otherwise shall be advertised for in one or more of the local newspapers. The Board reserves to itself the right of accepting or rejecting any tender, from the highest to the lowest.

10. Any one or more of the above general rules may be suspended pro tem. in cases of emergency, provided that the majority of the Board deem it necessary.

BY-LAW No. 6.

CLEANING OF PREMISES.

1. Any person who shall throw, cast, lay, cause or allow to be thrown, cast, or laid, any dirt, litter, ashes, soot, rubbish, carrion, fish, offal, dung, soil, dead animal, blood, offensive fluid, or any other offensive matter or thing in or upon any road, street, carriage or foot way, or thoroughfare in the Division of Hughenden, or cause, permit, or suffer any such matter or thing to fall, flow, or run into any sewer, pipe, or drain, or into any channel, sink, or open or uncovered gutter, or into any stream, watercourse, public well or dam, or other public water within the said Division, or who shall enuse, permit, or suffer any offensive matter or liquid to run from any house, yard, or premises upon any road, street, thoroughfare, carriage or foot way, gutter, or public place within the said Division, shall be liable to a penalty.

2. Any person who shall cart away, carry or remove, place or leave any dead animal or carrion within the said Division, and shall not bury the same to a sufficient depth, or burn the same in such place as the authorised officers of the Board may direct, so that the same shall not be or become in any way offensive to passengers or inhabitants, shall be liable to a penalty for every such offence.

3. The occupier, or where there shall be no occupier, then the owner, of any land or premises shall keep the same at all times free from all accumulations or deposits of water, matter, or thing which shall be, become, or continue offensive or unwholesome, and shall not allow, permit, or suffer any animal, or the carcass of any animal, or any part thereof, in such a state or condition as to be offensive or unwholesome, to be or continue to be in, upon, or about any such land or premises, under a penalty.

BY-LAW No. 7.

SLAUGHTER-YARDS.

1. Any person desirous of establishing any shambles or slaughter-yards within the said Division shall give one month's previous notice, in writing, to the clerk of the said Division of his intention to do so, and any person establishing any shambles or slaughter-yards as aforesaid, without having given such notice as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty.

2. No person shall carry or convey, or cause to be carried or conveyed, the carcass of any newly slaughtered animal in or through any street, road, or public place within the said Division without a sufficient and proper clean cloth covering the same, under a penalty.

BY-LAW No. 8.

PROTECTION OF ROADS AND STREETS.

1. No person shall form, dig, or open, or cause to be formed, dug, or opened, any drain or sewer, or sink any shaft, or make or cause to be made any opening or cutting in any part of the roads, streets, reserves, or footways within the said Division, or dig or remove any turf, sand, clay, soil, stone, or other material, or remove any tree or timber from or on any of the lands, roads, streets, reserves, carriage or foot ways under the control or in the power of the said Board, without the consent of the Board of the said Division first had and obtained for that purpose, or wantonly break, damage, or injure the said carriage or foot ways, under a penalty.

2. No person shall haul or draw, or cause to be hauled or drawn, upon any part of the streets or public places within the said Division, any timber, stone, or other thing, otherwise than upon wheeled carriages, or shall suffer any timber, stone, or other thing which shall be carried principally or in part upon wheeled carriages, to drag or trail upon any part of such streets or public places to the injury thereof, or to hang over any part of such carriage so as to occupy or obstruct the street beyond the breadth of such wheeled carriage, under a penalty.

3. Any person who shall dig, or cause to be dug or made, any hole, or leave or cause to be left any hole before or on any vacant premises, or before or behind or on the sides of any house, building, or tenement erected or being erected, or about to be erected, in and adjoining to any street, road, or public thoroughfare within the said Division, for the purpose of making cellars or foundations to houses or buildings, or for any other purpose or purposes whatsoever, and shall not fence or enclose the same and place a light upon the said enclosure, and keep the same constantly burning from sunset to sunrise during the continuance of such enclosure, shall be liable to a penalty.

4. No person shall fell timber on any road within the said Division so as to leave stumps dangerous to traffic, under a penalty.

BY-LAW No. 9.

CAMPING UPON PUBLIC ROADS.

No person shall camp within three hundred yards of any well, dam, reservoir, or lagoon, nor on any public road within the said Division, under a penalty.

BY-LAW No. 10.

CAMELS.

No camel shall be allowed to be nearer to any main road or water-hole than one half-mile, within a radius of two miles from any town in this Division, except when actually travelling from place to place, under a penalty.

BY-LAW No. 11.

WATER RESERVES.

1. No person shall cast any filth, rubbish, dead animal, putrid or offensive matter into any stream, watercourse, public well, or dam, or other public water within the said Division, under a penalty.

2. No person shall swim any animal, or wash anything, or bathe, or cause, suffer, or permit any animal to bathe or wallow in or otherwise pollute any lagoon or waterhole within the said Division from which water is obtained for domestic purposes, under a penalty.

3. No person shall obstruct or divert from its channel any public sewer, watercourse, or stream within the said Division without written permission of the Board of the said Division, under a penalty.

4. Any person injuring any public pump, tank, well, or trough within the said Division, or any apparatus connected therewith, or the approaches thereto, being the property of or under the control of the Board, or taking out and wasting water from any public tank, well, water reserve, dam, or reservoir within the said Division, or taking away or leaving open any gate, slip-rail, or fence belonging to any enclosed pump, tank, well, water reserve, dam, or reservoir within the said Division, being the property of or under the control of the Board, shall be liable to a penalty.

5. No person shall encamp or graze, or cause or permit to encamp or graze, within any enclosed water reserve within the said Division, any horses, cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, or cause, suffer, or permit any swine or other animals to bathe or camp in troughs or other vessels where water is placed for convenience of travellers and their horses and cattle, under a penalty.

6. No person shall (except in an enclosed building or bath-house) undress or bathe in any river, stream, or waterhole near to or within view of any public street, bridge, or other place of public resort within the said Division between the hours of seven o'clock in the morning and eight o'clock in the evening, under a penalty.

BY-LAW No. 12.

CONTROL AND MANAGEMENT OF ROADS.

1. No person with any dray, wagon, cart, or other vehicle, or any horses, cattle, or sheep, shall encamp within one hundred yards of any licensed gate, and the owner or person in charge of any such dray, wagon, cart, or other vehicle shall cause the same to be drawn to one side not less than five yards from the wheel-tracks of any well-defined track, and nothing pertaining or belonging to any such dray, wagon, cart, or other vehicle shall be permitted to be nearer than five yards to the said track or roadway; and any person whether in charge of or the owner of any such dray, wagon, cart, or other vehicle, horse, cattle, or sheep who shall cause or allow any obstruction to the traffic on any road or street within the Division shall be liable to a penalty.

2. Any person leaving any fire on or adjacent to any road or track in the Division, and not thoroughly extinguishing the same, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

BY-LAW No. 13.

LICENSED GATES.

Every person obtaining a license to erect a fence across any public road situated within the Division of Hughenden, or of any renewal of such license, shall pay in advance to the clerk of the Division, at the office of the Hughenden Divisional Board, the sum of five shillings for each gate included in such license or renewal of license.

BY-LAW No. 14.

GOATS.

1. All goats kept within the Division of Hughenden shall be registered in the divisional clerk's office on or before the first day of January in each year, and a fee of two shillings and sixpence shall be charged for every female or wether goat, and a fee of one pound for every male entire goat so registered:

Provided that every owner of more than three female or wether goats shall pay a fee of five shillings for registration of each and every such goat over three in his possession.

2. Every registered goat shall have a triangle composed of three pieces of wood, each not less than sixteen inches in length, or a leather collar, two inches wide, fixed around its neck, with its registered number legibly inscribed thereon.

3. All unregistered goats may be taken possession of by the inspector of nuisances, or other officer of the Board, and sold or destroyed at the option of the Board.

4. All goats taken possession of by the Board's officer shall be kept in custody of that officer for twelve hours, during which time any goat may be claimed by its owners, and shall be released on payment to that officer of the registration fee and a fine of two shillings and sixpence.

BY-LAW No. 15.

DOGS.

1. All dogs over the age of six months kept within this Division shall be registered in the divisional clerk's office on or before the tenth day of October in each year, and a fee of two shillings and sixpence shall be charged for every dog so registered.

2. All unregistered dogs may be destroyed by order of the Board.
 3. Any owner of any dog failing to register the same as aforesaid shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.
 4. Every registered dog shall have a collar fixed around its neck, with the name of its owner legibly inscribed thereon.
 5. The person by whom any dog is ordinarily kept shall be liable to the several provisions of this By-law as a keeper of such dog, whether kept for his own use or that of another.
- The provisions of the above clauses shall not apply to any dog belonging to or kept by any aboriginal.

BY-LAW No. 16.NOXIOUS WEEDS.

The Bathurst burr is hereby declared to be a noxious weed and a nuisance within the meaning of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887."

BY-LAW No. 17.ENTIRE HORSES AT LARGE.

No person shall be permitted to run an entire horse at large upon any reserve within this Division under the control of the Board, under a penalty.

PENALTIES.

For every neglect, breach of, offence of or against any of the provisions of these By-laws, where no specific penalty is provided for such neglect, breach, or offence, the maximum penalty shall be twenty pounds.

The foregoing By-laws were passed by the Board of the Division of Hughenden on the twenty-second day of February, A.D. 1893, at a special meeting called for that purpose; the said By-laws were duly published in accordance with the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," and were confirmed at a subsequent special meeting of the said Board on the thirteenth day of September, A.D. 1893.

D. SIMSON, Chairman.

DIVISION OF WINTON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 25th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," been pleased to approve of the following By-laws, Nos. 1, 2, and 3, made by the Board of the Division of Winton.

HORACE TOZER.

WHEREAS by "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887" the Board of any Division is empowered to make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned; It is hereby resolved by the Board of the Winton Division, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Division from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 1.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF AND THE DEPASTURING OF STOCK ON THE COMMONS OR RESERVES THAT ARE NOW OR WHICH MAY HEREAFTER BE SET APART OR DEDICATED FOR THE USE OF THE INHABITANTS AND UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE WINTON DIVISIONAL BOARD.

1. The Board may from time to time appoint a herdsman or inspector, or such other officer as they may deem necessary, for the management of the commons and reserves under their control, and such herdsman, inspector, or other officer may be removed by the said Board.
2. It shall be the duty of such herdsman to receive and account for all fees and other moneys on behalf of the Board, payable under this By-law, and the herdsman shall pay all such moneys received by him once in each month to the clerk of the Board.
3. He shall also keep a book, in which shall be registered the description and brands of all stock which the owners shall be authorised to depasture on such commons or reserves, with the names, residence, and occupation of such owner or owners, and until such particulars are furnished no person will be allowed to depasture stock on the said commons or reserves.
4. Upon such registration being completed, the herdsman may and is hereby empowered to permit the depasturing of any cattle or stock, being the property of the inhabitants of the Winton Division, subject to the following conditions.
5. No person shall be allowed to depasture more than twenty head of cattle, as specified hereinafter, on the said common.
6. The term "Cattle" means mares, geldings, colts, fillies, asses, mules, cows, oxen, steers, heifers, and calves, but such term shall not apply to entire male animals more than six months old.
- Application for permission to depasture stock shall be in form of Schedule A hereto.
7. No entire cattle over six months old shall be depastured on the reserve.
8. The following fees shall be paid in respect of stock depasturing on the commons or reserves aforesaid:—
For each mare, gelding, ass, or mule—4s. per head per quarter.
For each ox or cow—3s. per head per quarter.
9. No fees shall be charged for depasturing the progeny of registered stock if the said progeny be under the age of six months.
10. All fees for depasturing must be paid half-yearly in advance, viz., on or before the first day of January and the first day of July in each year.
11. If any stock be placed on the reserve between those dates, the fee or fees for the then current half-year must be paid.
12. Any person offending against any of the foregoing By-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.
13. The herdsman shall prepare and forward to the Winton Divisional Board twice in every year—that is to say, before the first day of January and the first day of July—a detailed statement of all moneys received by him in respect of these By-laws, and of all cattle and stock of every kind depastured on the reserve, together with the names, residence, and occupation of the person owning or claiming any such cattle or stock, and shall also render a monthly report to the Winton Divisional Board of all payments made to him in respect of these By-laws.

14. Every drover or person in charge of travelling stock intending to pass across any town reserve under the control of the Board within the Division of Winton shall give not less than twelve nor more than twenty-four hours' notice of such intention to the herdsman or other person appointed by the Board in that behalf, and shall proceed across such reserve towards his destination with such stock at a rate of progress of not less than six miles within every successive period of twenty-four hours from the time of entering upon such reserve, under a penalty not exceeding ten pounds nor less than five pounds, to be recovered from the owner of such stock or the person in charge of the same: Provided always, that the herdsman shall be empowered to grant permission in writing, at his discretion, to drovers in charge of stock for sale desirous of remaining for a longer period; such permission not to exceed ten days.

15. On its being proved to the satisfaction of the Board's officer that any animal depasturing on any of the reserves under the control of the Board is causing or likely to cause injury to persons or property, such officer may order such animal to be removed at once from the reserve, and in the event of such order not being complied with, may cause the animal to be impounded forthwith, and the owner thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

16. Any mares, geldings, asses, mules, cows, oxen, or calves, not registered as provided in these By-laws, found running on any town reserve within the Division of Winton, may be impounded, and the owner thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

BY-LAW No. 2.REGISTRATION OF GOATS.

1. All goats kept within the Division of Winton shall be registered at the office of the Board of the said Division, on or before the first day of January and the first day of July in each year, and a fee of two shillings and sixpence shall be charged for every female goat, and a fee of one pound for every male goat so registered: Provided that every owner of more than three female goats shall pay a fee of five shillings for registration of each and every such goat over three in his possession.

2. Every registered goat shall have a triangle composed of three pieces of wood, each not less than sixteen inches in length, or a leather collar, two inches wide, fixed around its neck, with its registered number legibly inscribed thereon.

3. All unregistered goats may be taken possession of by the inspector of nuisances or other officer of the Board, and sold or destroyed at the option of the Board.

4. All goats taken possession of by the Board's officer shall be kept in custody of that officer for twelve hours, during which time any goat may be claimed by its owner, and shall be released on payment to the officer aforesaid of the registration fee and a fine of two shillings and sixpence.

BY-LAW No. 3.WATER RESERVE.

1. The chairman, with the approval of the Board, may at any time, by public notice posted on the land and advertised once in one or more newspapers circulating within the Division of Winton, set apart or reserve any particular waterhole within the said division for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants with water. After such notice has been posted ten days, and advertised as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to drive horses, cattle, or other animals into such waterhole, under a penalty not exceeding five pounds; and any person or persons found bathing or washing in such waterhole shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one pound: Provided always that persons supplying the inhabitants with water shall be allowed to drive a vehicle used for that purpose only into such waterhole.

Re gardeners.

2. Any person or persons who shall take water for gardening purposes from any waterhole on any reserve within the Winton Division, without first obtaining written permission to do so from the Winton Divisional Board, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and every person, or all persons obtaining permission to use water for gardening purposes, shall pay a sum of not less than five pounds per acre per annum upon all land enclosed by them for gardening purposes, payable half-yearly in advance.

The forms to be employed in the different notices and registries under the foregoing Regulations shall be in accordance with those in the Schedules A and B hereto.

SCHEDULE A.

Form of application to be allowed to depasture cattle on the Winton Reserve.

Gentlemen,—I beg to apply for permission to depasture the following on the Winton Reserve, situated in the Division of Winton, subject to the By-laws of the said Division relating to the depasturing of stock on reserves:—

Mares	Colts	Cows	Steers
Geldings	Asses	Oxen	Calves
Fillies	Mules	Heifers

To the Winton Divisional Board.

SCHEDULE B.

To the Herdsman or Inspector of Reserves in the Division of Winton.

Sir,—On receipt of this order you will permit Mr. to depasture on the Reserve the following stock—that is, viz.:—

Mares	Colts	Cows	Steers
Geldings	Asses	Oxen	Calves
Fillies	Mules	Heifers

Chairman's certificate.

The foregoing By-laws were passed by the Board of the Winton Division on the tenth day of May, A.D. 1893, at a special meeting called for that purpose; the said By-laws were duly published in accordance with "The Divisional Boards Act of 1887," and were confirmed at a subsequent special meeting of the said Board on the tenth day of January, A.D. 1894.

A. G. FRASER, Chairman.

MUNICIPALITY OF TOWNSVILLE.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 25th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in accordance with a Proclamation of the Governor in Council published in the Government Gazette of the 16th September, 1893, and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Health Act of 1884," respectively, been pleased to approve of the following Regulations, Nos. 20 and 21, made by the Council of the Municipality of Townsville.

HORACE TOZER.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation of the Governor in Council, published in the Government Gazette on the 16th September, 1893, the Council of the Municipality of Townsville was thereby appointed Trustees of the Reserve for Botanic Gardens known as the Queen's Park, in the Parish of Coonanibelah, town of Townsville, established by notice dated the 14th June, 1893, and the said Trustees are thereby empowered to make by-laws for the carrying out the purposes of the trust, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council: It is hereby resolved by the said Trustees that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Gardens from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 20.

FOR THE REGULATION AND MANAGEMENT OF THE BOTANIC GARDENS (QUEEN'S PARK), TOWNSVILLE.

Appointment of gardeners.

1. The trustees may temporarily or permanently appoint and at pleasure remove or suspend a curator, gardeners, and such other workmen and servants as they may deem necessary and expedient from time to time for carrying out the purposes of the trust.

Time of opening and closing the gardens.

2. The gardens shall be open during such hours as the trustees may from time to time direct. Provided that the gardens shall always be open from sunrise to sunset on each day of the week.

Damage to property—Plucking flowers.

3. No person shall pluck any of the flowers or walk on the beds or borders, or climb upon or get over the fence, or disturb, damage, or destroy any property or thing in the gardens.

Young children to be under control.

4. The curator, or other person duly authorised in that behalf, may remove from the gardens children under twelve years of age, unless in charge of some responsible person.

Carriages and other vehicles not allowed.

5. Carriages or other vehicles and persons riding on horseback shall not enter the gardens, nor shall any horses, cattle, or other animals be depastured in the gardens without the express authority or permission in writing of the trustees: Provided, however, that the trustees or their assigns, officers, servants, or workmen shall in no case be responsible or liable for any loss or damage to any horses, cattle, or other stock, or their progeny respectively, depastured or received, delivered, left, or sent to be depastured upon the Botanic Gardens (Queen's Park).

Dogs not allowed in the gardens.

6. No person or persons accompanied by a dog or dogs shall be allowed to enter the Botanic Gardens, and all dogs found within the said gardens without an owner may be destroyed, and the owner or owners of any dogs found within the said gardens shall make compensation, to be recovered before any justice of the peace, for any damage done by such dog or dogs.

Goats and poultry to be destroyed.

7. All goats and poultry found within the gardens will be destroyed, and the owner or owners shall make compensation, to be recovered before any justice of the peace, for any damage done by such goats or poultry.

Intoxicated and disorderly persons to be removed.

8. Persons intoxicated, or not decently dressed, or using profane, obscene, abusive, or insulting language, or misbehaving, or creating any disorder or disturbance, or committing any act of indecency, shall be expelled by the curator or by any other person acting under the authority of the trustees.

Gambling with cards or dice prohibited.

9. No person shall, whilst in the said gardens, play or use cards or dice or any other instrument or device for the purpose of gaming.

Use of firearms prohibited.

10. No person shall use firearms or throw stones in the said gardens, or molest any of the animals in the gardens, nor kindle any fire in the gardens.

Plants, seeds, or cuttings not to be supplied

11. No plants, seeds, or cuttings shall be supplied from the gardens without the special permission of the trustees.

Merchandise not to be sold.

12. No person shall (unless and until the permission in writing from the trustees has been first obtained) offer for sale any article of merchandise or trade within the boundaries of the gardens.

Penalty.

13. For every neglect, breach, or offence of or against any of the provisions of these rules and regulations, where no specific penalty is provided for such neglect, breach, or offence, the maximum penalty shall be ten pounds.

WHEREAS by "The Health Act of 1884" the Council of any Municipality may make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Council of the Municipality of Townsville, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-law shall be in force within the said Municipality from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 21.

Removal and abatement of nuisances.

1. This By-law shall be read and construed with and as an amendment of By-law No. 15—for the removal and abatement of nuisances. Clause 5 of By-law No. 15, which was published in the Government Gazette on the 5th September, 1893, is hereby repealed, provided that such repeal shall not affect anything lawfully established or perfected thereunder.

Cesspits to be discontinued on notice.

2. Within fourteen days after notice every owner, landlord, tenant, occupier or occupiers of any house, warehouse, or other tenement shall discontinue the use of any cesspit and shall cause the said cesspit to be emptied and the excavation so used for the reception of nightsoil or other filth to be filled in with earth or other deodorising material, and any owner, landlord, tenant, occupier, or occupiers of the said premises who shall fail to discontinue the use of the said cesspit or other convenience and remove the contents as aforesaid according to the notice to that effect, signed by the inspector of nuisances or other officer authorised in that behalf by the Council, shall forfeit and pay for such neglect, upon conviction before any two or more justices of the peace, a sum not exceeding five pounds for every day's neglect therein: Provided, however, the Council may by resolution grant special permission to any owner, landlord, tenant, occupier, or occupiers of any house or other tenement for a period not exceeding twelve months to use an approved cesspit, which shall be constructed in accordance with the specified description contained in clause 14 of By-law No. 15—for the abatement and removal of nuisances—published in the Government Gazette dated 5th September, 1893.

Contractor may be employed to remove nightsoil.

3. The Council may from time to time enter into a contract with any person or persons for the performance of the work of the removal of nightsoil, and for the supply of dry earth or other deodorising material, and may charge the costs of such work to the occupier or occupiers, owner, landlord, or tenant, at rates not in any case to exceed those specified in Schedule A, By-law No. 15, published in the Government Gazette dated 5th September, 1893, and may contract with any person or persons to supply approved closet-pans, and may charge the costs thereof to the occupier or occupiers, owner, landlord, or tenant, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in clause 7, By-law No. 15 aforesaid.

Certificate.

The foregoing By-laws were passed by special order of the Council of the Municipality of Townsville on the eighth day of March, A.D. 1894; the said By-laws were duly published in accordance with the 169th section of "The Local Government Act of 1878," and were confirmed on the twenty-second day of March, 1894, and sealed with the common seal of the said Council on the twenty-seventh day of March, 1894.

MURDO CAMERON, Mayor.

D. F. TREEHY, Town Clerk.

CAIRNS FIRE BRIGADE BOARD.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 25th April, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Fire Brigades Act of 1881," been pleased to approve of the following Regulations made by the Cairns Fire Brigade Board.

HORACE TOZER.

WHEREAS by "The Fire Brigades Act of 1881" it is provided that nothing contained in the said Act shall be taken to prevent the fire brigade board of any town from making such regulations as they may deem necessary for the several purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Cairns Fire Brigade Board, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following Regulations shall be in force with respect to the Cairns Fire Brigade Board, from the date of the publication hereof:—

REGULATIONS.

Name.

1. The brigade shall be called the Cairns Fire Brigade.

How constituted.

2. The brigade shall consist of as many paid members as the Governor in Council may from time to time approve of. In the event of any vacancy occurring, the members may recommend to the Board some suitable man to fill such vacancy.

Officers.

3. A board shall be kept in a conspicuous place in the station with the names of the officers and members legibly inscribed thereon.

Practices.

4. Practices shall be held, under the direction of the superintendent or assistant superintendent, on such day or days in every month as may be determined by the Board.

Fires.

5. On an alarm of fire each member shall proceed to the fire-station, and should the hose, reels, and other apparatus have left, he shall immediately follow, and on arrival at the scene of the fire report himself to the officer in charge. He shall remain on duty until dismissed or relieved by the superintendent or other officer in charge of the brigade, or until the apparatus has been returned to the station and the roll called.

Uniform.

6. Every member shall be supplied with a uniform, which shall be deemed to be the property of the Brigade Board, in which he shall appear at all fires, practices, or meetings. Any member not appearing in such uniform at any such fire, practice, or meeting shall be required to give a satisfactory reason for the omission to the superintendent or officer in charge; and no member shall appear in his uniform or any part thereof except as hereinbefore specified, or by order or permission of the superintendent.

Absence of members from practice.

7. Any member absenting himself from a practice shall be liable to a fine not exceeding the amount of pay which he would have received for such practice, unless such absence be caused by sickness or inability to leave his employment, proof of which must be given to the satisfaction of the superintendent.

8. Any member being absent from practice two months in succession without special permission from the superintendent or officer in charge shall cease to be a member of the brigade.

Examination of members.

9. There shall be an examination of every member of the brigade in the month of August in each year, which shall be conducted by the superintendent or such person as he may appoint, and every member who shall fail to pass such examination to the satisfaction of the superintendent or person aforesaid may be called upon to resign.

Change of residence.

10. Any member changing his residence must give notice of the fact to the secretary.

Special meeting of brigade.

11. A special meeting of the brigade may be called at any time and place by the superintendent, or by a requisition in writing to the secretary, signed by not less than eight members of the brigade, stating the business to be transacted; and no business other than that stated in the requisition shall be brought before such meeting.

12. At all meetings of the brigade fourteen members shall form a quorum, and no business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present.

Superintendent.

13. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to take command at all fires, parades, or practices, and to see that the appliances are at all times in proper working order. In the absence of the superintendent and assistant superintendent the hose officer shall take command.

Assistant superintendent.

14. The assistant superintendent shall, during the absence of the superintendent, take charge of the brigade, and be responsible for its discipline, and when present on duty at fires he shall see that all orders issued are obeyed, and, to the best of his ability, shall prevent the members of the brigade from being interfered with or misdirected in the suppression of fire.

Secretary.

15. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep correct minutes of the proceedings of every board and brigade meeting in a book kept for that purpose, to call the roll at all meetings, parades, practices, or fires, and to perform all such business as appertains to the duty of secretary.

Station-keeper.

16. The station-keeper shall be appointed annually, and his duties shall be to reside at the station, to comply with the directions of the superintendent, to keep the whole of the plant in working order, and to keep such watch as may be ordered from time to time, to give the alarm when required, to keep the station and the apartments connected therewith clean and in good order, and to do such work pertaining to his office as he may be directed by the superintendent. In case of fire he shall not give up the plant, or any part thereof, to any person other than a member of the brigade, unless otherwise ordered by competent authority.

Inventory of property.

17. An inventory of all the property of the Board shall be kept by the secretary, and presented to the Board at the annual meeting.

Whistle calls.

18. One Call—Go on if on road; commence work if at fire.
Two Calls—Stop if on road; cease work if at fire.
Three Calls—One more length of hose or suction required as directed.
Four Calls—Make up and place apparatus on carriage.
Continuous Whistling—Indicates danger or calling of members round the superintendent.

Alteration of By-laws.

19. Notice shall be given, in writing, one month previously, of any motion to alter, amend, or abrogate these By-laws.

Chairman's certificate.

The foregoing Regulations were made by the Fire Brigade Board for the town of Cairns on the thirtieth day of March, A.D. 1894.

IN INSOLVENCY.

MR. JUSTICE REAL.

In the Matter of an Insolvency Petition against Mary Ann Caston (wife of Charles C. Caston), formerly Mary Ann Compigne, of Gympie, in the Colony of Queensland, a married woman having separate estate, by The Queensland National Bank, Limited.

UPON the hearing of this Petition this day, and upon proof satisfactory to the Court that the said Mary Ann Caston is possessed of separate estate, and of the debt of the Petitioner, and of the act of insolvency alleged to have been committed by the said Mary Ann Caston having been given, it is ordered that the said Mary Ann Caston be and she is hereby adjudged insolvent, and that James Boyne Hall, Esquire, be Official Trustee of her Estate. And it is further ordered that the First General Meeting of the creditors of the said Mary Ann Caston, for the election of a Trustee, be held at the Office of the Registrar of this Court, on the Third day of May, 1894, at Eleven o'clock in the forenoon. And it is further ordered that the said Mary Ann Caston shall, on the Thirtieth day of April, 1894, at Brisbane, deliver to the Trustee in this Estate a full, true, and accurate statement, verified on oath, of her debts and liabilities of every kind, and of the names and residences, so far as known, of her creditors, and of the causes of her inability to meet her engagements.

Given under the seal of the Court this twenty-third day of April, 1894.

By the Court,

W. A. DOUGLAS, Deputy Registrar.

HEAD-QUARTERS' GENERAL ORDERS.

By Major-General J. F. OWEN, R.A., Commandant.

Brisbane, 28th April, 1894.

No. 85.

A MEDICAL BOARD will assemble early next week to examine Major-General J. F. Owen, R.A., as to fitness for general service with regard to promotion to the permanent rank of Major-General.

The P.M.O. will arrange the place, day, and hour for the Board, of which he will be President, and will also be good enough to detail the members.

WITH reference to General Order No. 59, of 31st March, 1894, the name of Major F. W. Beattie, commanding 3rd Kennedy Regiment, was accidentally omitted from the table showing the attendance at the Camp at Townsville, and should be entered therein.

No. 87.

[S.G.O.] THE Railway Authorities complain that in several instances requisition passes have been presented at ticket offices which unmistakably show that the drawer of the pass signed a blank form, thereby permitting the member of the Corps to fill in any particulars in the body of the form that he may consider suitable. As such a proceeding is grossly irregular and unbusiness-like, Commanding Officers are cautioned against such a practice. No form of any description prepared for signature should receive the signature until the Officer Commanding is satisfied that the document is complete in every detail.

IN pursuance of the power in me vested, and in accordance with the provisions of the 42nd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the unselected land, in the parish of Millaroo, in the Ravenswood Land Agent's District, set forth in the accompanying description, opened to selection by Proclamation dated the 24th March, 1892, shall be and is hereby withdrawn from selection.

E.M.—2-5-94. L.O. 1.

THE RAVENSWOOD LAND AGENT'S DISTRICT.

On the Resumed Part of Woodhouse Run.

County of Gladstone, parish of Millaroo.

Area, about 32 square miles.

The unsurveyed Crown land bounded on the north by Landers Creek; on the west by portions 5v, 7v, and 8v; on the south by portion 18v and a reserve; and on the east by the Burdekin River;—exclusive of land reserved or required for roads, stock routes, camping, water, or other public purpose.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, [L.S.] H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

IN pursuance of the power in me vested, and in accordance with the provisions of the 42nd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the unselected lots of land, being portions 60v and 61v, in the parish of Westwood, in the Rockhampton Land Agent's District, opened to selection by Proclamation dated the 25th August, 1892, shall be and are hereby withdrawn from selection.

E.M.—2-5-94.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, [L.S.] H. W. NORMAN, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

IN pursuance of the power and authority in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and proclaim that the purchasing price of portions 144v to 150v, parish of Maroochy, in the Brisbane Land Agent's District, opened to unconditional selection by Proclamation dated 23rd December, 1891, shall, on and after the 4th June, 1894, be reduced from £2 to £1 per acre.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

A PROCLAMATION.

[L.S.] By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the ninth day of July, 1891, I did, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Land Board, order that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884" as requires land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection should be suspended with respect to the Country Land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Surveyor-General was, by the said Order in Council, required to divide the said land into lots, and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans: And whereas the Surveyor-General has accordingly divided the said land into the lots specified in the said Schedule, and has indicated the position thereof on proper maps or plans: Now, therefore, in pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the said lands specified in the said Schedule hereto, being situated in the ROMA Land Agent's District, shall be open both for CONDITIONAL and UNCONDITIONAL Selection, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the FOURTH day of JUNE, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said lands shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be 1,280 acres.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command, A. H. BARLOW.
